Part III -- Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Dial Global, Inc. (the "Company"; "we" or "our") has determined that it is not in a position to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2012 (the "Form 10-Q") by its prescribed due date, November 14, 2012, for the reasons that follow.

For the last several weeks, the Company has been involved in extensive negotiations with its lenders to cure certain non-compliance events under its credit agreements, namely not complying with: (1) its debt leverage and interest coverage covenants measured as of September 30, 2012, (2) its quarterly interest payment obligations on Friday, November 9, 2012, (3) certain reporting obligations (including those which the Company has historically satisfied by delivering its Form 10-Q to its lenders) and (4) certain notice obligations. Such negotiations resulted in the execution of second amendments and limited waivers to the Company's credit facilities to waive these non-compliance events for a limited period of time. These amendments were executed today and are described in more detail in the Company's 10-Q which we anticipate filing with the SEC today.

Additionally, in connection with the preparation of the financial statements for the period as to which the Form 10-Q relates, the Company determined to undertake an evaluation of its property and equipment, goodwill and other intangible assets to measure whether they have been impaired, which, in view of the complexity of the exercise, could not be concluded until today and in addition to the lender discussions described above, required significant attention from the Company's finance personnel.

The Company's staff and resources have been substantially committed to completing the foregoing objectives and it was ultimately unable to complete all of the steps necessary to file its Form 10-Q yesterday November 14, 2012. The Company intends to file its Form 10-Q with the SEC later today within the extension period of five calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
