Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

In 2006, NACCO Industries, Inc. (the "Company") initiated litigation in the Delaware Chancery Court against Applica Incorporated ("Applica") and individuals and entities affiliated with Applica's shareholder, Harbinger Capital Partners Master Fund, Ltd. The litigation alleged a number of contract tort claims against the defendants related to the failed transaction with Applica, which had been previously announced. On February 14, 2011, the parties to this litigation entered into a settlement agreement. The settlement agreement provides for, among other things, the payment of $60 million to the Company and dismissal of the lawsuit with prejudice.

In addition to litigation expenses previously disclosed, litigation expenses were $5.8 million for the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2010. The Company expects to incur additional litigation costs for the first two months of 2011 in the range of approximately $2.5 million to $3.0 million for services rendered prior to entering into the settlement agreement, but such costs will not continue as a result of the settlement.
