The following letter was sent by Edison International to certain shareholders of its common stock on April 14, 2008.

Dear Shareholder,

The annual meeting of Edison International scheduled to be held on April 24, 2008 is quickly approaching. Your vote is extremely important, regardless of the number of shares of Edison International that you own.

The Edison International Board of Directors and Management recommend that you vote "FOR" the proposals listed in the Joint Proxy Statement and "FOR" the ratification of the appointment of the Board of Directors of Edison International.

For reasons stated below and explained in the Joint Proxy Statement, the Edison International Board of Directors and Management recommend that you vote "AGAINST" the shareholder proposal requesting the Board to review executive compensation.

- o Our long-standing competitive compensation structure has aligned executive compensation with shareholder value, as indicated by our strong five-year cumulative total shareholder return.
- o Shareholders can more clearly express their concerns and have a greater impact on our compensation practices by communicating directly with our Investor Relations department, Board of Directors, or individual members of the Compensation and Executive Personnel Committee (the "Committee").
- o The proposal would not provide the Board or its Committee with meaningful guidance to review the compensation structure or individual executive compensation payouts.
- o Because our executive compensation program is already strongly aligned with company performance, an advisory vote to ratify prior executive compensation is unnecessary, and could undermine the fundamental role of the Board and its Committee in formulating executive compensation policies and practices that reflect the interests of shareholders.

Thank you for your continued support.
Very truly yours,

/s/ Barbara E. Mathews
