Talking Points for Customers

- Johnson & Johnson & Animas announced a definitive agreement whereby Animas will be acquired by Johnson & Johnson
- Animas will be operating as a stand-alone entity reporting into LifeScan
- Key Facts
 - Johnson & Johnson, the largest healthcare company in the world, known for its integrity & responsibility to patients & HCPs.
 - Lifescan, the largest strip & meter company in the US, known for its excellent customer service.
 - Animas, the fastest growing pump company, known for its innovation and excellent customer support.
 - Together, J&J, LifeScan, and Animas will continue to provide level of patient care and service to healthcare providers.
- The merger of Animas into LifeScan will be the best of both worlds:
 - The merger is being structured to allow Animas to maintain its entrepreneurial and patient-centric focus.
 - The resources of J&J will help ensure that Animas will be able to continue to grow and bring its product pipeline of next generation syringe pumps, MEMs pumps, and continuous blood glucose monitoring to the market in a timely manner.
 - The combination of Animas with its pumps and LifeScan with its strips and meters shall allow both entities to better serve patients and produce better products.
