IFT Issues a Preliminary Opinion

MEXICO CITY, April 29, 2015 - Grupo Televisa, S.A.B. (“Televisa” or the “Company”; NYSE:TV; BMV:TLEVISACPO) announced today that on April 28 the Instituto Federal de Telecomunicaciones (“IFT”) published in the Mexican Official Gazette certain information of a preliminary opinion (the “Preliminary Opinion”) which presumes the probable existence of substantial power of Televisa and some of its subsidiaries in the market of pay-television services in certain municipalities of Mexico.

The markets included in the Preliminary Opinion are the same IFT had previously determined in a prior proceeding, which is currently in the evidence admission period of the process.

In the Preliminary Opinion, the investigative authority informed that they did not find definitive precedents in Televisa’s business practices that allow them to conclude that the Company had incurred in anticompetitive actions in the relevant markets.

The main Governing Board of IFT has not confirmed the existence of substantial power. The Company will analyze the Preliminary Opinion and, at the appropriate moment, will exercise its rights under applicable law.

About Grupo Televisa

Televisa is the largest media company in the Spanish-speaking world based on its market capitalization and a major participant in the international entertainment business. It operates four broadcast channels in Mexico City, produces and distributes 25 pay-TV brands for distribution in Mexico and the rest of the world, and exports its programs and formats to the U.S. through Univision Communications Inc. (“Univision”) and to other television networks in over 50 countries. Televisa is also an active participant in Mexico’s telecommunications industry. It has a majority interest in Sky, a leading direct-to-home satellite television system operating in Mexico, the Dominican Republic and Central America. Televisa also participates in Mexico’s telecommunications industry in many regions of the country where it offers video, voice, and broadband services. Televisa also has interests in magazine publishing and distribution, radio production and broadcasting, professional sports and live entertainment, feature-film production and distribution, the operation of a horizontal Internet portal, and gaming. In the United States, Televisa has equity and debentures that, upon conversion and subject to any necessary approval from the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) in the United States, will represent approximately 38% on a fully diluted, as-converted basis of the equity capital in Broadcasting Media Partners, Inc. (“BMP”), the controlling company of Univision, the leading media company serving the United States Hispanic market.
