AUDIT COMMITTEE FINANCIAL EXPERT

Stantec's Board of Directors has determined that it has at least one audit committee financial expert serving on its audit committee. The Board of Directors has determined that each of William D. Grace and Ivor M. Ruste is an audit committee financial expert (as such term is defined in the rules and regulations of the Securities Exchange Commission) and is independent, as that term is defined by the New York Stock Exchange's corporate governance standards applicable to Stantec. The Securities and Exchange Commission has indicated that the designation of a person as an audit committee financial expert does not impose on such person any duties, obligations or liability that are greater than those imposed on such person as a member of the audit committee and the Board of Directors in the absence of such designation and does not affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the audit committee or Board of Directors.

The Code of Ethics applies to all directors, officers and employees of Stantec, including Stantec's principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer. Stantec's Board of Directors, through its corporate governance and compensation committee, reviews the operation of the Code of Ethics and any waivers thereof. The Code of Ethics is reviewed at least annually to ensure that it complies with all legal requirements and is in alignment with best practices. In the event that amendments are needed, recommendations are made to the corporate governance and compensation committee and the Board of Directors for approval. The Code of Ethics is available on Stantec's website (www.stantec.com) in the Inside Stantec Governance section and is available in print to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of Stantec.

The Board of Directors has also adopted whistleblower procedures which allow officers and employees who feel that a violation of the Code of Ethics has occurred to report this violation on a confidential and anonymous basis.
