Internet Gold's Smile.Media and ISSTA, Israel's Largest Travel Group, to Operate Israeli LMT Travel Portal

Monday November 13, 9:00 am ET

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, November 13 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold, (Nasdaq: IGLD and TASE: IGLD) today announced that Smile.Media Ltd., its fully-owned subsidiary, and ISSTA, Israel's largest travel group, which holds through a subsidiary company, among other companies, the exclusive rights of the American Express Travel in Israel, plan to form a jointly-owned company through which they will operate and develop the Israeli LMT (Last Minute Travel) portal, www.lmt.co.il. The brand will be transferred from Travel Holdings, a company that holds worldwide rights to the LMT brand name and that operates Last MinuteTravel.Com, a leader in US travel portals business.

The new company will be owned equally by Smile.Media and ISSTA.

In preparation for this step, ISSTA recently secured exclusive rights to use LMT's proprietary technology in Israel and to promote LMT-branded activities in the Israeli market. ISSTA and Smile.Media plan to totally transform the Israeli LMT portal, first through the addition of cutting-edge technological features and a new look-and-feel. They will then use the portal as a platform for promoting ISSTA's extensive travel offerings. Launch of the new portal is scheduled for December 2006.

"This partnership with ISSTA, Israel's largest travel group is the perfect vehicle for bringing Smile.Media into the rapidly-growing travel space," said Eli Holtzman, Internet Gold's CEO. "Travel has become one of e-Commerce's most successful niches. In developing the LMT site, we will take full advantage of our proven marketing, creative and operational expertise, and merge them with ISSTA's impressive travel infrastructure. We are confident that LMT-Israel will emerge as Israel's leading online travel site and become an important contributor of revenues to Smile.Media."

Achishai Gal, CEO of the ISSTA Group, added, "The combination of ISSTA, Israel's largest travel group, and Internet Gold, its most experienced portal operator, is a dream-team for building an exciting online travel service. We believe that Israeli consumers, like their counterparts throughout the developed world, will welcome the ability to explore a countless travel alternatives online at their leisure, and to independently make reservations and arrange payments. As such, we expect the LMT site to drive a new level of demand for our travel packages, thereby becoming a significant long-term driver of ISSTA's success."
