ACL SEMICONDUCTORS INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

NOTE 1. The Company

ACL Semiconductors, Inc. was incorporated in the State of Delaware on September 17, 2002 and acquired Atlantic Components Ltd., a Hong Kong based company (Atlantic) through a reverse-acquisition that was effective September 30, 2003. The Company's principal activities are distribution of electronic components under the Samsung brand name which comprise DRAM and Graphic RAM, FLASH, SRAM and MASK ROM for the Hong Kong and Southern China markets. Atlantic was incorporated in Hong Kong on May 30, 1991. On October 2, 2003, the Company set up a wholly-owned subsidiary, Alpha Perform Technology Limited (Alpha), a British Virgin Islands company, to provide services on behalf of the Company in jurisdictions outside of Hong Kong. Effective January 1, 2004, the Company ceased the operations of Alpha and all the related activities were consolidated with those of Atlantic.

NOTE 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation - The condensed consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of ACL Semiconductors Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries, Atlantic and Alpha (collectively, ACL or the Company). The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete consolidated financial statements. These condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements and notes thereto included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). In the opinion of management, these condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments which are of a normal recurring nature and which are necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position of ACL as of September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, and the results of operations for the three-month and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008 and the cash flows for the nine month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008.

The results of operations for nine months ended September 30, 2009 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the entire fiscal year.

Basis of Consolidation - The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of ACL Semiconductors Inc. and its subsidiaries. Intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Use of Estimates - Preparing condensed consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues recognition, allowance for doubtful account, long lived assets impairment, inventories, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, the date of the condensed consolidated financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results and outcomes could differ from these estimates and assumptions.

ACL SEMICONDUCTORS INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Revenue Recognition - The Company derives revenues from resale of computer memory products. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with the SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104, Revenue Recognition (SAB 104). Under SAB 104, revenue is recognized when there is persuasive evidence of an arrangement, delivery has occurred or services are rendered, the sales price is determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured. Revenue typically is recognized at time of shipment. Sales are recorded net of discounts, rebates, and returns, which historically were not material.

Currency Reporting - Amounts reported in the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures are stated in U.S. Dollars, unless stated otherwise. The functional currency of the Company's subsidiaries is Hong Kong dollars (HKD) as most of the Company's operations are conducted in HKD. Foreign currency transactions (outside Hong Kong) during the period are translated into HKD according to the prevailing exchange rate at the relevant transaction dates. Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the balance sheet dates are translated into HKD at period-end exchange rates

For the purpose of preparing these consolidated financial statements, the financial statements of ACL reported in HKD have been translated into U.S. Dollars at US$1.00=HKD7.8, a fixed exchange rate maintained between the United States and China.

Concentration of Risk - The Company's distribution operations are dependent on the availability of an adequate supply of electronic components under the Samsung brand name which have historically been principally supplied to the Company by Samsung Electronics H.K. Co., Ltd. (Samsung HK), a subsidiary of Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., a Korean public company, pursuant to a distributorship agreement between the Company and Samsung HK (the Distributorship Agreement). Samsung HK supplied approximately 54% and 49% of materials acquired by the Company for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively. The Distributorship Agreement has a one-year term and contains certain sales quotas to be met by the Company. The Distributorship Agreement has been renewed for one-year terms more than ten times, most recently on March 1, 2009. The Company has never failed to meet the sales quotas set forth in the Distributorship Agreement, however, there is no assurance that Samsung HK will continue to supply sufficient electronic components to the Company on terms and prices acceptable to the Company or in volumes sufficient to meet the Company's current and anticipated demand, nor can assurance be given that the Company would be able, in the event Samsung does not supply sufficient volumes, to secure sufficient products from other third party supplier(s) on acceptable terms. In addition, the Company's operations and business viability are to a large extent dependent on the provision of management services and financial support by Mr. Yang.

For the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, and the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, the Company purchased $34,303,640, $21,779,620, $110,961,728 and $74,197,431, respectively, of components to Samsung HK. At September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, the Company's accounts payable, net of rebate receivables due to Samsung, totaled $9,469,102 and $6,695,409, respectively.

Reclassifications - Certain reclassifications were made to the prior period consolidated financial statements in order to conform the current consolidated financial statement presentation.

ACL SEMICONDUCTORS INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

Earnings Per Common Share - In accordance with SFAS No. 128, Earnings Per Share, the basic earnings (loss) per common share is computed by dividing net earnings (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings (loss) per common share is computed similarly to basic earnings (loss) per common share, except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares subject to outstanding options or that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In the third quarter of 2009, the Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). The ASC is the single official source of authoritative, nongovernmental GAAP, other than guidance issued by the SEC. The adoption of the ASC did not have a material impact on our financial statements.

In the third quarter of 2009, the Company adopted new accounting guidance related to accounting for convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash upon conversion (ASC 470 Update), effective January 1, 2009, which required retrospective application. This standard requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash (or other assets) on conversion to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components of the instrument in a manner that reflects the issuer's non-convertible debt borrowing rate. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial condition or results of operations, as we do not have any convertible debt that is accounted for under the guidance of ASC 470.

In June 2009, the FASB issued guidance on Accounting for Transfers of Financial Assets that requires enhanced disclosures about transfers of financial assets and a company's continuing involvement in transferred assets. This guidance is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and will become effective for us on January 1, 2010. We expect the adoption of this guidance will not have a material impact on our disclosures, since we have not engaged in transfers of financial assets.

Interest expense related to capital leases totaled $6,351 and $1,714 for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively, and $10,161 and $4,533 for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

NOTE 6. Stock Options

On March 31, 2006, the Board of Directors adopted the 2006 Equity Incentive Stock Plan (the "Plan") and the majority stockholder approved the Plan by written consent. The purpose of the Plan is to provide additional incentive to employees, directors and consultants and to promote the success of the Company business. The Plan permits the Company to grant both incentive stock options ("Incentive Stock Options" or "ISOs") within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), and other options which do not qualify as Incentive Stock Options (the "Non-Qualified Options") and stock awards.

Unless earlier terminated by the Board of Directors, the Plan (but not outstanding options) terminates on March 31, 2016, after which no further awards may be granted under the Plan. The Plan is administered by the full Board of Directors or, at the Board of Directors' discretion, by a committee of the Board of Directors consisting of at least two persons who are "disinterested persons" defined under Rule 16b-2(c)(ii) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Committee").

Recipients of options under the Plan ("Optionees") are selected by the Board of Directors or the Committee. The Board of Directors or Committee determines the terms of each option grant including (1) the purchase price of shares subject to options, (2) the dates on which options become exercisable and (3) the expiration date of each option (which may not exceed ten years from the date of grant). The minimum per share purchase price of options granted under the Plan for Incentive Stock Options and Non-Qualified Options is the fair market value (as defined in the Plan) on the date the option is granted.

ACL SEMICONDUCTORS INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Optionees will have no voting, dividend or other rights as stockholders with respect to shares of Common Stock covered by options prior to becoming the holders of record of such shares. The purchase price upon the exercise of options may be paid in cash, by certified bank or cashier's check, by tendering stock held by the Optionee, as well as by cashless exercise either through the surrender of other shares subject to the option or through a broker. The total number of shares of Common Stock available under the Plan, and the number of shares and per share exercise price under outstanding options will be appropriately adjusted in the event of any stock dividend, reorganization, merger or recapitalization or similar corporate event.

The Board of Directors may at any time terminate the Plan or from time to time make such modifications or amendments to the Plan as it may deem advisable and the Board of Directors or Committee may adjust, reduce, cancel and regrant an unexercised option if the fair market value declines below the exercise price except as may be required by any national stock exchange or national market association on which the Common Stock is then listed. In no event may the Board of Directors without the approval of stockholders, amend the Plan if required by any federal, state, local or foreign laws or regulations or any stock exchange or quotation system on which the Common Stock is listed or quoted and the applicable laws of any other country or jurisdiction where options or stock purchase rights are granted under the Plan.

Subject to limitations set forth in the Plan, the terms of option agreements will be determined by the Board of Directors or Committee, and need not be uniform among Optionees.

There were no options outstanding as of September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

NOTE 7. Related Party Transactions

Related party receivables are payable on demand upon the same terms as receivables from unrelated parties.

Transactions with Mr. Yang

NOTE 11. Fair Value of Financial Instruments
Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value measurements are determined under a three-level hierarchy for fair value measurements that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value, distinguishing between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs).

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In determining fair value, we primarily use prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets (market approach). We also consider the impact of a significant decrease in volume and level of activity for an asset or liability when compared with normal activity to identify transactions that are not orderly.

The highest priority is given to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). Securities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

- Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets that are unadjusted and accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - Quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in markets that are not active, quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets or financial instruments for which significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly;
- Level 3 - Prices or valuations that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable.

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

Credit risk adjustments are applied to reflect the company's own credit risk when valuing all liabilities measured at fair value. The methodology is consistent with that applied in developing counterparty credit risk adjustments, but incorporates the company's own credit risk as observed in the credit default swap market.

The following table presents the Company's assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis at September 30, 2009:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Cash and cash equivalents	1,124,059			1,124,059
Restricted cash	2,086,504			2,086,504
Total assets	$ 3,210,563	$	$	$ 3,210,563

NOTE 12. Derivative instruments

On February 1, 2009, the Company adopted SFAS 161 as referenced in Note 1. The adoption of SFAS 161 requires additional disclosures about the Company's objectives and strategies for using derivative instruments, the accounting for the derivative instruments and related hedged items under SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" ("SFAS 133"), and the effect of derivative instruments and related hedged items on the financial statements. The adoption had no financial impact on the consolidated condensed financial statements.

Since all of the Company sales are done in USD, the bank is exposed to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations in the normal course of its business. As part of its risk management strategy, the Company purchases FX forward contracts from the banks to secure the exchange rate for a period of time in order to hedge any FX exposure between HKD and USD throughout the purchase and sale period. The Company applies hedge accounting based upon the criteria established by SFAS 133, whereby the Company designates its derivatives as cash flow hedges. Cash flows from the derivative programs were classified as operating activities in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows.

As of September 30, 2009, there is a participating forward currency option agreement between the Company and Standard Charter Bank for the Company to buy US$500,000 from SCB at a contract rate of 7.735 at specified dates up to January 7, 2010 for settlement with the bank on a monthly basis. According to the terms of the agreement, the Company agreed to buy USD in triple amounts if the spot rate is less than the contract rate at settlement dates. The gain on this forward contract during the year ended December 31, 2008 was $36,346 and has been recorded in "Net income on cashflow hedge" under "Other income (expenses)".

As of September 30, 2009, the target redemption forward currency option agreement between the Company and Standard Charter Bank for the Company to buy US$750,000 from SCB at a lower strike contract rate of 7.75 and an upper strike contract rate of 7.85 at specified dates up to April 29, 2010 for settlement with the bank on a monthly basis has matured and terminated on January 29, 2009. According to the terms of the agreement, the Company agreed to buy USD in triple amounts if the spot rate is less than the lower strike contract rate or greater than the upper strike contract rate at settlement dates. The gain on this forward contract has been recorded in "Net income on cashflow hedge" under "Other income (expenses)".

As of September 30, 2009, there is a pivot bonus forward currency option agreement between the Company and Standard Charter Bank for the Company to buy US$1,000,000 from SCB at a lower strike contract rate of 7.73 and an upper strike contract rate 7.749 at specified dates up to July 2, 2009 for settlement with the bank on a monthly basis. According to the terms of the agreement, the Company agreed to buy in triple amounts if the spot rate is less than the lower strike contract rate at settlement date. The gain on this forward contract during the year ended December 31, 2008 was $56,410 and has been recorded in "Net income on cashflow hedge" under "Other income (expenses)".

As of September 30, 2009, the Company has holdings of US$500,000 Commodity Basket Linked Notes which were issued by Standard Charter Bank at specified dates up to February 17, 2009. According to the terms of agreements, the Company agreed to receive interest at a rate equal to 6% if the Basket Return is larger than 0% and 100% redeemed if the Basket Return is less than or equal to 0% on the maturity date. The Company fully redeemed the securities on the maturity date of February 17, 2009 and received profits of $17,378 which has been recorded in [Net income on cashflow hedge] under [Other income (expenses)].

Company Overview and Background

The Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Atlantic Components Limited, a Hong Kong corporation (Atlantic), is engaged primarily in the business of distribution of memory products under Samsung brand name which principally comprise DRAM, Graphic RAM and FLASH for the Hong Kong and Southern China markets. The Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Alpha Perform Technology Limited (Alpha), which previously engaged in this business, ceased activities as of January 1, 2004, and all its operations were consolidated with those of Atlantic.

As of September 30, 2009, ACL had more than 150 active customers in Hong Kong and Southern China.

ACL is in the mature stage of operations. As a result, the relationships between sales, cost of sales, and operating expenses reflected in the financial information included in this document to a large extent represent future expected financial relationships. Much of the cost of sales and operating expenses reflected in the Company's financial statements are recurring in nature.

Overview

Net sales

Sales from Samsung HK are recognized upon the transfer of legal title of the electronic components to the customers. The quantities of memory products the Company sells fluctuate with changes in demand from its customers. The suggested prices set by Samsung HK that the Company charge its customers are subject to change by the Company based on prevailing economic conditions and their impact on the market.

Net sales for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009 (sometimes referred to as 2009 3Q) were 43.5% and 39.9% greater than net sales for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2008. The Company's gross profit for 2009 3Q and the nine months ended September 30, 2009 increased by 3.4% and 83.6% over the gross profit for the comparable periods of the prior fiscal year. This increase in gross profit was mainly due to the strong demand in memory products in the PRC market, particularly for NAND FLASH products from the consumer electronics segment and increased prices for DRAM and Graphic RAM products arising out of a general market shortage of supplies thereof.

As a result of the general tightening of credit markets in Hong Kong and Asia, many lenders have revised the terms of their revolving credit lines to levels the Company did not deem commercially reasonable. Accordingly, on a case by case basis, the Company has elected to terminate or not renew several of its credit facilities resulting in a reduction in the Company's external financing from banks by 1% and 47% for the three and nine months comparative periods in 2008. To address the reduction in available credit facilities, the Company is relying on its own cash reserves and cash flows from operations to fund its ongoing operations and has tightened the credit terms it extends to its customers. As a result, the Company does not expect that the reduction in available credit facilities is going to have a materially adverse impact upon its operations for the foreseeable future.

With the increase of commission income from Samsung due to high volume turnover and increase in unit price, the Company's income before income taxes provision has increased by 31% to $718,935 in 2009 3Q, compared to 2008 3Q and 792% to $3,062,620 in the nine month period ended September 30, 2009 compared to the nine month period ended September 30, 2008.

The Company expects the market for memory products to remain relatively flat during the fourth quarter of 2009 as a result of market saturation.

Cost of sales

Cost of sales consists of costs of goods purchased from Samsung HK, and purchases from other Samsung authorized distributors. Many factors affect the Company's gross margin, including, but not limited to, the volume of production orders placed on behalf of its customers, the competitiveness of the memory products industry and the availability of cheaper Samsung memory products from overseas Samsung distributors due to regional demand and supply situations. Nevertheless, the Company's procurement operations are supported by Samsung HK pursuant to a distributorship agreement between the Company and Samsung HK. However, the distributorship is for a one-year period and even though it has been renewed more than 10 times, there is no assurance that it will be renewed again in the future.

Operating expenses

The Company's operating expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008 were comprised of sales and marketing and general and administrative expenses only.

Sales and marketing expenses consisted primarily of costs associated with advertising and marketing activities.

General and administrative expenses include all corporate and administrative functions that serve to support the Company's current and future operations and provide an infrastructure to support future growth. Major items in this category include management and staff salaries, rent/leases, professional services, and travel and entertainment. The Company expects these expenses to increase as a result of increased legal and accounting fees anticipated in connection with the Company's compliance with ongoing reporting and accounting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission and as a result of anticipated expansion by the Company of its business operations. Sales and marketing expenses are expected to fluctuate as a percentage of sales due to the addition of sales personnel and various marketing activities planned throughout the year.

Interest expense, including finance charges, relates primarily to Atlantic's short-term and long-term bank borrowings and capital lease obligations, which the Company intends to reduce.

Net Sales

The following table presents our net sales for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 73,637,304	$ 51,318,942	43.5%	$ 209,061,971	$ 149,473,142	39.9%

Net sales increased by $22,318,362 or 43.5%, from $51,318,942 for the three months ended September 30, 2008 to $73,637,304 in the three months ended September 30, 2009. The increase was mainly due to the strong demand and resulting higher sales prices for memory products in the PRC market, especially for Nand Flash, DRAM and Graphic RAM products.

Net sales increased by $59,588,829 or 39.9%, from $149,473,142 for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 to $209,061,971 in the nine months ended September 30, 2009. The increase was mainly due to upward market price trends for Samsung's products and the strong demand for Nand Flash, DRAM, Graphic RAM and Flash products.

Cost of sales

The following table presents our cost of sales for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 71,888,286	$ 49,627,985	44.9%	$ 202,439,712	$ 145,867,069	38.8%

Cost of sales increased by $22,260,301, or 44.9%, from $49,627,985 for the three months ended September 30, 2008 to $71,888,286 for the three months ended September 30, 2009. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, cost of sales increased by $56,572,643, or 38.8%, as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008. The increase in both periods was principally attributable to the increase in net sales.

Gross Profit

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 1,749,018	$ 1,690,957	3.4%	$ 6,622,259	$ 3,606,073	83.6%

Gross profit increased by $58,061, or 3.4%, from $1,690,957 for the three months ended September 30, 2008 to $1,749,018 for the three months ended September 30, 2009. The increase was principally attributable to the increase in net sales.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, gross profit increased by $3,016,186, or 83.6%, as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase in net sales during such period.

Sales and Marketing

The following table presents the sales and marketing expenses for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 24,280	$ 20,963	15.8%	$ 73,060	$ 57,899	26.2%

For the three months ended September 30, 2009, sales and marketing expenses increased $3,317, or 15.8%, as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2008. For the nine months ended September, 2009, sales and marketing expenses increased by $15,161 or 26.2%, as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008. Such increase was directly attributable to and reflective of an increased sales and marketing effort by the Company.

General and Administrative

The following table presents the general and administrative expenses for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 1,694,741	$ 927,387	82.7%	$ 4,064,871	$ 2,452,602	65.7%

For the three months ended September 30, 2009, general and administrative expenses increased $767,354, or 82.7%, as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2008. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, general and administrative expenses increased $1,612,269, or 65.7%, as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008. This increase was principally attributable to the default by an unrelated customer under liquidation on an account receivable of the Company in the amount of $697,803 and increases in compensation paid to Company employees and executives. This defaulted amount was subsequently recovered in full by the Company through its receipt of factoring insurance proceeds included in Other income .

Income from Operations

The following table presents the income from operations for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 29,997	$ 742,607	(96.0)%	$ 2,484,328	$ 1,095,572	126.8%

Income from operations for 2009 Q3 decreased by $712,610, or 96%, from $742,607 for the three months ended September 30, 2008 to $29,997. Such decrease was mainly due to a bad debt of $697,803 owed by a customer that is in liquidation.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, income from operations increased by $1,388,756, or 126.8%, as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008. Such increase was attributable mainly to the gross profit increase net of bad debt and compensation paid to Company employees and executives increased.

Interest Income

The following table presents the interest income for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 301	$ 22,477	(98.7)%	$ 7,316	$ 67,407	(89.1)%

For the three months ended September 30, 2009, interest income decreased $22,176, or 98.7%, as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2008. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, interest income decreased $60,091, or 89.1%, as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008. These decreases in interest income for both comparative periods were due to a reduction in interest from restricted cash and lower interest rates.

Interest Expense

The following table presents the interest expense for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 87,828	$ 330,203	(73.4)%	$ 370,638	$ 830,507	(55.4)%

For the three months ended September 30, 2009, interest expense decreased by $242,375 or 73.4%, from $330,203 in the three months ended September 30, 2008 to $87,828 in the three months ended September 30, 2009. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, interest expense decreased by $459,869 or 55.4%, from $830,507 in the nine months ended September 30, 2008 to $370,638 in the nine months ended September 30, 2009. These decreases were mainly due to a decrease in the use by the Company of letters of credit to obtain goods from suppliers.

Net Income on Cash Flow Hedge

The following table presents the net income on cash flow hedge for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 17,724	$ 45,814	(61.3)%	$ 66,446	$ 106,166	(37.4)%

For the three months ended September 30, 2009, income on cash flow hedge decreased by $28,090, or 61.3%, as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2008. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, net income on cash flow hedge decreased by $39,720, or 37.4%, as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008. The decreases were due to the expiration or termination of several currency hedging contracts in 2009.

Income from Insurance Compensation

The following table presents the income from insurance compensation for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, one of the Company's customers that owed the Company $697,803 went into liquidation. Since the debt was purchased through a bank under a factoring agreement which offered 90% credit risk coverage plus reimbursement of costs, the Company received $719,711 in insurance proceeds to settle the claim.

Income Tax Provision

The following table presents the income tax provision for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	2008	% Change
$ 253,954	$ 17,411	1358.6%	$ 651,390	$ 17,411	3641.3%

Income tax provision increased by $236,543 or 1358.6% from $17,411 for the three months ended September 30, 2008 to $253,954 for the three months ended September 30, 2009. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, income tax provision increased by 633,979 or 3641.3% over the nine months ended September 30, 2008. The increases were due to an increase in the estimated Hong Kong taxes payable by Atlantic.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's principal sources of liquidity have been cash from operations, bank lines of credit and credit terms from suppliers. The Company's principal uses of cash have been for operations and working capital. The Company anticipates these uses will continue to be its principal uses of cash in the future.

As of September 30, 2009, the Company had revolving lines of credit and loan facilities in the aggregate amount of $16,380,970, of which $3,959,739 was available (representing an approximately 47% reduction in the Company's borrowing lines of credit from December 31, 2008), which reduction was attributable to the termination of three lines of credit with three banks in the aggregate amount of $14,562,619. In connection therewith, $3,083,249 of restricted bank deposits were released to the Company. Other detailed disclosures on credit facilities are made in Note 8 and Note 9 of the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2009, including the amounts of facilities, outstanding balances, maturity date, and pledges of assets.

The Company's ability to draw down under its various credit and loan facilities is, in each case, subject to the prior consent of the relevant lending institution to make advances at the time of the requested advance and each facility (other than with respect to certain long term mortgage loans) is payable within 90 days of drawdown. As a result of the general tightening of credit markets in Hong Kong and Asia, many lenders have revised the terms of their revolving credit lines to levels the Company did not deem commercially reasonable. Accordingly, on a case by case basis, the Company has elected to terminate or not renew several of its credit facilities resulting in a significant reduction in the Company's available short term borrowings.

To address the reduction in available credit facilities, the Company is relying on its own cash reserves and cash flows from operations to fund its ongoing operations and has tightened the credit terms it extends to its customers. As a result, the Company does not expect that the reduction in available credit facilities is going to have a materially adverse impact upon its operations for the foreseeable future.

The Company will continue to seek additional sources of available financing on acceptable terms; however, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain the necessary additional capital on a timely basis or on acceptable terms, if at all. In addition, if the results are negatively impacted and delayed as a result of political and economic factors beyond management's control, our capital requirements may increase.

The short-term borrowings from banks to finance the cash flow required to finance the purchase of Samsung memory products from Samsung HK must be made a day in advance of the release of goods from Samsung HK's warehouse before receiving payments from customers upon physical delivery of such goods in Hong Kong which, in most instances, take approximately two days from the date of such delivery.

Edgar Filing: ACL SEMICONDUCTOR INC - Form 10-Q

The following factors, among others, could have negative impacts on the Company's results of operations and financial position: the termination or change in terms of the Distributorship Agreement; pricing pressures in the industry; a continued downturn in the economy in general or in the memory products sector; an unexpected decrease in demand for Samsung's memory products; the Company's ability to attract new customers; an increase in competition in the memory products market; and the ability of some of the Company's customers to obtain financing.

Although the Company believes its expectations of future growth are reasonable, it cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. The Company is under no duty to update our expectations to conform them to actual results or to reflect changes in expectations.

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

In the nine months ended September 30, 2009, net cash provided by operating activities was $2,838,499 while in the nine months ended September 30, 2008, net cash used for operating activities was $2,774,663, an increase of $5,613,162. This increase was primarily due to an increase of accounts receivable and other liabilities including a $1,773,948 trade deposit received as of September 30, 2009.

Net Cash Used Provided by Investing Activities

For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, net cash provided by investing activities was $3,037,596 while in the nine months ended September 30, 2008, net cash used for investing activities was $145,202, an increase in cash used of $2,892,394. This increase was primarily due to the decrease of restricted cash and marketable securities net of purchase of automobiles and machinery as of September 30, 2009.

Net Cash Provided by Financing Activities

In the nine months ended September 30, 2009, net cash used for financing activities was $6,536,391 while in the nine months ended September 30, 2008, net cash provided by financing activities was $3,810,696, a decrease of $10,347,087. This decrease was due to the Company repayment of certain bank lines of credit and cancellation of bank facilities as of September 30, 2009.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements of ACL Semiconductors Inc. include the accounts of Atlantic Components Ltd., a Hong Kong subsidiary and Alpha Perform Technology Limited, a BVI subsidiary. All significant inter-company transactions and balances are eliminated in consolidation.

Critical Accounting Policies

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) recently issued Financial Reporting Release No. 60, Cautionary Advice Regarding Disclosure About Critical Accounting Policies (FRR 60), suggesting companies provide additional disclosure and commentary on their most critical accounting policies. In FRR 60, the SEC defined the most critical accounting policies as the ones that are most important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and operating results, and require management to make its most difficult and subjective judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates of matters that are inherently uncertain. Based on this definition, ACL's most critical accounting policies include: inventory valuation, which affects cost of sales and gross margin; policies for revenue recognition, allowance for doubtful accounts, and stock-based compensation. The methods, estimates and judgments ACL uses in applying these most critical accounting policies have a significant impact on the results ACL reports in its consolidated financial statements.

Inventory Valuation.

ACL's policy is to value inventories at the lower of cost or market on a part-by-part basis. This policy requires ACL to make estimates regarding the market value of its inventories, including an assessment of excess or obsolete inventories. ACL determines excess and obsolete inventories based on an estimate of the future demand for its products within a specified time horizon, generally 12 months. The estimates ACL uses for demand are also used for near-term capacity planning and inventory purchasing and are consistent with its revenue forecasts. If ACL's demand forecast is greater than its actual demand it may be required to take additional excess inventory charges, which will decrease gross margin and net operating results in the future.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts.

ACL maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of ACL's customers to make required payments. ACL's allowance for doubtful accounts is based on ACL's assessment of the collectability of specific customer accounts, the aging of accounts receivable, ACL's history of bad debts, and the general condition of the industry. If a major customer's credit worthiness deteriorates, or ACL's customers' actual defaults exceed ACL's historical experience, ACL's estimates could change and impact ACL's reported results.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In the third quarter of 2009, the Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). The ASC is the single official source of authoritative, nongovernmental GAAP, other than guidance issued by the SEC. The adoption of the ASC did not have a material impact on our financial statements.

In the third quarter of 2009, the Company adopted new accounting guidance related to accounting for convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash upon conversion (ASC 470 Update), effective January 1, 2009, which required retrospective application. This standard requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash (or other assets) on conversion to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components of the instrument in a manner that reflects the issuer's non-convertible debt borrowing rate. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial condition or results of operations, as we do not have any convertible debt that is accounted for under the guidance of ASC 470.

In June 2009, the FASB issued guidance on Accounting for Transfers of Financial Assets that requires enhanced disclosures about transfers of financial assets and a company's continuing involvement in transferred assets. This guidance is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and will become effective for us on January 1, 2010. We expect the adoption of this guidance will not have a material impact on our disclosures, since we have not engaged in transfers of financial assets.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

We are a smaller reporting company as defined by Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act and are not required to provide the information required under this item.

Item 4T. Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

In connection with the preparation of this Form 10-Q, we carried out an evaluation under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including the CEO and CFO, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act. This evaluation was retrospective and conducted as of September 30, 2009, the last day of the fiscal quarter covered by this Form 10-Q. Based upon that evaluation, our CEO and CFO have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of September 30, 2009 because we have not completed the remediation discussed elsewhere in this Item 4T of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2009.

Our management has concluded that there are material weaknesses in our internal controls over financial reporting. These weaknesses include:

Company-level controls. We did not maintain effective company-level controls as defined in the Internal Control Integrated Framework published by COSO. These deficiencies related to each of the five components of internal control as defined by COSO (control environment, risk assessment, control activities, information and communication, and monitoring). These deficiencies resulted in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of our annual or interim financial statements would not be prevented or detected. Specifically,

Our control environment did not sufficiently promote effective internal control over financial reporting throughout our organizational structure, and this material weakness was a contributing factor to the other material weaknesses described in this Item 4T;

Our board of directors has not established adequate financial reporting monitoring activities to mitigate the risk of management override, specifically:

none of our board of directors is independent;

no financial expert on our board of directors has been designated;

no formally documented financial analysis is presented to our board of directors, specifically fluctuation, variance, trend analysis or business performance reviews;

an effective whistleblower program has not been established;

there is insufficient oversight of external audit specifically related to fees, scope of activities, executive sessions, and monitoring of results;

there is insufficient oversight of accounting principle implementation;

there is insufficient review of related party transactions; and there is insufficient review of recording of stock transactions.

We have not maintained sufficient competent evidence to support the effective operation of our internal controls over financial reporting, specifically related to our board of directors' oversight of quarterly and annual SEC filings; and management's review of SEC filings, journal entries, account analyses and reconciliations, and critical spreadsheet controls;

We had inadequate risk assessment controls, including inadequate mechanisms for anticipating and identifying financial reporting risks; and for reacting to changes in the operating environment that could have a material effect on financial reporting;

There was inadequate communication from management to employees regarding the general importance of controls and employees duties and control responsibilities;

We had inadequate monitoring controls, including inadequate staffing and procedures to ensure periodic evaluations of internal controls to ensure that appropriate personnel regularly obtain evidence that controls are functioning effectively and that identified control deficiencies are remediated timely;

We had an inadequate number of trained finance and accounting personnel with appropriate expertise in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, in certain circumstances, an effective secondary review of technical accounting matters was not performed;

We had inadequate controls over our management information systems related to program changes, segregation of duties, and access controls;

We had inadequate access and change controls over end-user computing spreadsheets. Specifically, our controls over the completeness, accuracy, validity and restricted access and review of certain spreadsheets used in the period-end financial statement preparation and reporting process were not designed appropriately or did not operate as designed; and

We were unable to assess effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting in a timely matter.

Financial statement preparation and review procedures. We had inadequate policies, procedures and personnel to ensure that accurate, reliable interim and annual consolidated financial statements were prepared and reviewed on a timely basis. Specifically, we had insufficient: a) levels of supporting documentation; b) review and supervision within the accounting and finance departments; c) preparation and review of footnote disclosures accompanying our financial statements; and d) technical accounting resources. These deficiencies resulted in errors in the financial statements and more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of our annual or interim financial statements would not be prevented or detected.

Inadequate reviews of account reconciliations, analyses and journal entries. We had inadequate review procedures over account reconciliations, account and transaction analyses, and journal entries. Specifically, deficiencies were noted in the following areas: a) management review of supporting documentation, calculations and assumptions used to prepare the financial statements, including spreadsheets and account analyses; and b) management review of journal entries recorded during the financial statement preparation process. These deficiencies resulted in a more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of our annual or interim financial statements would not be prevented or detected.

Inadequate controls over purchases and disbursements. We had inadequate controls over the segregation of duties and authorization of purchases, and the disbursement of funds. These weaknesses increase the likelihood that misappropriation of assets and/or unauthorized purchases and disbursements could occur and not be detected in a timely manner. These deficiencies resulted in errors in the financial statements and in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of our annual or interim financial statements would not be prevented or detected. Specifically,

We had inadequate procedures and controls to ensure proper segregation of duties within our purchasing and disbursements processes and accounting systems;

We had inadequate procedures and controls to ensure proper authorization of purchase orders; and

We had inadequate approvals for payment of invoices and wire transfers.

As of September 30, 2009, we had not completed the remediation of any of these material weaknesses. In addition, we have not yet furnished a management report for the years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 and intend to furnish such report by way of amendment to the respective Annual Report on Form 10-K filed for such periods by not later than December 31, 2009. The failure to furnish such management report for the periods ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 in a timely manner additionally renders our disclosure controls and procedures ineffective.

We are addressing the outstanding material weaknesses described above, as well as our control environment. We also expect to undertake the following remediation efforts:

We plan to evaluate the composition of our board of directors and to determine whether to add independent directors or to replace an inside director with an independent director, in both cases, in order to have a majority of our board of directors become independent;

We plan on drafting quarterly financial statement variance analysis of actual versus budget with relevant explanations of variances for distribution to our board of directors;

We are in the process of developing, documenting, and communicating a formal whistleblower program to employees. We expect to post the policy on the web site in the governance section and in the common areas in the office. We plan on providing a toll free number for reporting complaints and will hire a specific third party whistleblower company to monitor the hotline and provide monthly reports of activity to our board of directors;

Management intends to continue to provide SEC and US GAAP training for employees and retain external consultants with appropriate SEC and US GAAP expertise to assist in financial statement review, account analysis review, review and filing of SEC reports, policy and procedure compilation assistance, and other related advisory services;

We intend on developing an internal control over financial reporting evidence policy and procedures which contemplates, among other items, a listing of all identified key internal controls over financial reporting, assignment of responsibility to process owners within the Company, communication of such listing to all applicable personnel, and specific policies and procedures around the nature and retention of evidence of the operation of controls;

We intend on undertaking a restricted access review to analyze all financial modules and the list of persons authorized to have edit access to each. We will remove or add authorized personnel as appropriate to mitigate the risks of management or other override; and

We plan to re-assign roles and responsibilities in order to improve segregation of duties.

These specific actions are part of an overall program that we are currently developing in an effort to remediate the material weaknesses described above. We likely will not have sufficient time to implement our remediation plan before testing our internal control over financial reporting for our current fiscal year that will end December 31, 2009.

Attached as exhibits to this report are certifications of our CEO and CFO, which are required in accordance with Rule 13a-14 of Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The discussion above in this Item 4T includes information concerning the controls and controls evaluation referred to in the certifications and those certifications should be read in conjunction with this Item 4T for a more complete understanding of the topics presented.

We are committed to improving our internal control processes and will continue to diligently review our internal control over financial reporting and our disclosure controls and procedures. The failure to implement adequate controls may result in deficient and inaccurate reports under the Exchange Act.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Except as described above, there have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the quarter ended September 30, 2009 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
