statement and proxy card relating to that meeting. In addition, stockholders must comply with the procedural requirements in the Company's bylaws. Under the Company's bylaws, notice of any stockholder nomination to the board or proposal of business must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary of the Company not less than ninety (90) days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than one-hundred (100) days notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such notice of the date of the meeting is mailed or such public disclosure is made. To be in proper form, a stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth: (i) the name and address of the stockholder who intends to make the nominations or propose the business and, as the case may be, of the person or persons to be nominated or of the business to be proposed; (ii) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Company entitled to vote at such meeting and, if applicable, intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (iii) if applicable, a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder; (iv) such other information regarding each nominee or each matter of business to be proposed by such stockholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, or the matter been proposed, or intended to be proposed by the Board of Directors; and (v) if applicable, the consent of each nominee to serve as director of the Company if so elected. The chairman of the meeting shall refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person or the proposal of any business not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure. Stockholders can obtain a copy of the Company's bylaws from the Company upon request. The Company's bylaws are also on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Overview

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

- attract, retain and motivate talented executive officers;
- provide executive officers with cash bonus opportunities linked to achievement of business objectives and individual performance goals; and
- align the financial interests of executive officers with those of stockholders by providing executive officers with an equity stake in the Company.

Elements of Executive Compensation.

below the rate of expense increases over the past two years. As a result, and with the concurrence of the Company's management team, the Compensation Committee has been judicious about increasing salaries until the Company is able to improve both its net income results and its cash position.

- Quarterly Company revenue compared to a Board-approved "Financial Plan";
- Quarterly Company gross margins compared to the Financial Plan;
- Company expenses compared to the Financial Plan; and
- Achievement of individual quarterly management objectives.
