MAILING - ANNOUNCEMENT

DATE: 18-03-04

SUBJECT: BBC World Service's news package is now available for Turkcell's subscribers

BBC World Service's news package is now available for Turkcell's subscribers

Previously, Turkcell announced the launch of its mobile interaction platform under the brand Shubuo in June 2003, which is managed under Turkcell's wholly owned subsidiary MAPCO. Currently, under the Shubuo brand, Turkcell subscribers have access to service packages on key interest areas such as news, finance, football, flirt, city life and music.

The BBC news package is aimed at customers who want to follow up international news in Turkish. The subscribers of this service will receive an average of four SMS messages and will be able to listen to the audio news update twice on a daily basis.

Through continuing improvement of such tailor made services Turkcell aims at improving customer loyalty. Turkcell will maintain its commitment to customer centered product development and will continue providing value-added-services for its customers.

THE TELECOMMUNICATION AUTHORITY FINES TURKCELL REGARDING NATIONAL ROAMING

Subject: Statement made pursuant to Circular VIII, No: 39 of the Capital Markets Board.

Istanbul Stock Exchange

ISTANBUL

Special Subjects:

The Telecommunication Authority ("TA") has fined Turkcell, claiming that Turkcell has not complied with its responsibility under Turkish regulations to provide national roaming. The fine totals TL21,822,150,300,000 (approximately US$16.7mn as of April 1, 2004). Roaming allows other operators' subscribers to use Turkcell's networks when they are outside the reach of their own operator's network.

Turkcell will take the necessary legal actions against the TA's ruling.

We hereby confirm that the above-mentioned explanations are furnished as per the provisions of the Communique Serial no VIII/39, that they reflect all information we have gathered so far, that they are in accordance with our corporate documents, that we have used all endeavours to collect the complete and true related information and that we assume the responsibility for this disclosure.
