cellcom israel announces change of chief financial officer

Netanya, Israel – June 13, 2013 – Cellcom Israel Ltd. (NYSE: CEL) (TASE: CEL) (hereinafter: the "Company"), announced today that Mr. Yaacov Heen notified the Company of his resignation from office as the Company's CFO, effective September 17, 2013, following the successful completion of the Cellcom Netvision operational merger and after 16 gratifying years with the Company in various positions. The Company's board of directors has nominated Mr. Shlomi Fruhling as the Company's CFO, effective September 18, 2013.

Mr. Ami Erel, the Company's chairman of the board of directors thanked Mr. Heen for his considerable contribution to the Company during his 16 years with the Company and said that "during Yaacov's 4 year tenure as the Company's CFO, he demonstrated leadership and exceptional interpersonal and professional capabilities and he is one of the leading and valued managers of the IDB group. I am certain of his future success."

Mr. Nir Sztern, the Company's CEO said today that "Mr. Heen has been Cellcom Israel's CFO for the last four years, at which time he has led 3 very successful debenture offerings in the TASE for a total sum of approximately NIS 3 billion, led the negotiation of strategic transactions, including the Netvision merger, Dynamica's operations and national roaming services agreement with Golan Telecom and led the initiation, design and implementation of cutting edge financial and management information systems. Mr. Heen was a most valuable member of our management team at a time of major changes and we thank him, on behalf of the employees, management, board of directors and shareholders of the Company, for his remarkable contribution to the Company in addressing and coping with each and every one of these changes.

Mr. Fruhling has been assisting the Company in certain projects in the past year and before that has served as VP strategy and finance of Netvision while I was Netvision's CEO. I am delighted to work with him again in Cellcom and wish Shlomi success in his new position."

Mr. Fruhling has served as a vice president of Discount Investment Company Ltd., or DIC, from 2012, where he managed portfolio companies, including streamlining plans and crisis management, investment opportunities and realization of assets as well as managing complex projects in DIC's subsidiaries. From 2008 to 2011 he served as VP Strategy and Finance of 013 Netvision Ltd. (presently our subsidiary), in charge of the company's budget, controls and work methods, company cash flow, debt and equity raising, investor relations, strategy and M&As. From 2005 to 2008 Mr. Fruhling has served as head economist of DIC. Mr. Fruhling holds a B.A. in economics and business administration from the Tel-Aviv Management College.
