Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a Special Meeting of stockholders of Systems & Computer Technology Corporation to be held at 2 Country View Road, Malvern, PA 19355, on February 4, 2004, at 10:00 am, local time.

At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to approve the merger of our company with a wholly-owned subsidiary of SunGard Data Systems Inc., a publicly-traded Delaware corporation. If the merger is completed, each share of our common stock, par value $.01 per share, will be converted into the right to receive $16.50 in cash, without interest and subject to adjustment, as more fully described in the enclosed proxy statement.

You are also being asked to grant to the proxy holders the authority to vote in their discretion on a motion to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting. We may determine to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting, for example, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger, declared the merger advisable and in the best interests of our stockholders, and unanimously recommends that our stockholders approve the merger and the merger agreement. Among the factors considered by our board of directors in evaluating the merger was the opinion, dated December 8, 2003, of ThinkEquity Partners LLC, one of our financial advisors, which provides that, as of that date, the cash consideration to be received by our stockholders in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The written opinion of ThinkEquity Partners LLC is attached as Appendix B to the accompanying proxy statement and should be read carefully and in its entirety.

The affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting is necessary to approve the merger. You should be aware that the failure to vote, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement and the merger. If the merger is approved by the requisite holders of our common stock at the Special Meeting, the merger will be consummated as soon as all of the other conditions to the consummation of the merger are satisfied or waived.

We urge you to read carefully the attached proxy statement and the Agreement and Plan of Merger, a copy of which is included in the proxy statement as Appendix A. The enclosed proxy statement provides you with a summary of the merger, the merger agreement and additional information about the parties involved.

It is very important that your shares be represented at the Special Meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting, you are requested to authorize a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or via the internet in accordance with the instructions provided, or to promptly complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the envelope provided.

This proxy statement is first being mailed to stockholders on or about January 2, 2004.

Sincerely,
Michael D. Chamberlain
President and Chief Executive Officer

- At the effective time of the merger, each share of our common stock, par value $.01 per share, will be converted into the right to receive $16.50 in cash, without interest. The merger agreement provides that in the event we change the outstanding shares of our common stock to a different number or class of shares by reason of any stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction then the merger consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such change or transaction.
- After the completion of the merger, the holders of our common stock will have no continuing equity interest in our company, and will not share in our future earnings, dividends or growth, if any. In addition, after the merger has been completed, our common shares will no longer be listed on NASDAQ or registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger (page 12)

Our board of directors unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement and unanimously voted to recommend that our stockholders approve the merger and the merger agreement.

Opinion of Financial Advisor (page 14)

- On December 8, 2003, ThinkEquity Partners LLC (which we may refer to as "ThinkEquity") rendered an oral opinion to our board of directors that, as of the date of that opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. ThinkEquity confirmed its opinion to the board of directors in writing on December 8, 2003.
- The full text of the written opinion of ThinkEquity, which is based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement. The opinion of ThinkEquity does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of our common stock should vote with respect to the merger. You should read carefully the opinion in its entirety.

Availability of Funds (page 19)

- SunGard has represented to us in the merger agreement that at the consummation of the merger it will have adequate funds to pay the aggregate merger consideration and all other payments contemplated by the merger agreement.

Structure of the Merger (page 20)

- As a result of the merger, the Acquisition Sub will be merged with and into our company, with our company being the surviving entity. Following the effective time of the merger, we will become a subsidiary of SunGard.
- In the merger, each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled, retired and converted into the right to receive the per share merger consideration.

- The merger will be accounted for in accordance with the purchase method of accounting under generally accepted accounting principles.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (page 20)

- In addition to their interests as stockholders, certain of our employees, consultants, directors and officers have interests in the merger that may differ from your interests as a stockholder. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger and the merger agreement. These interests include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Transaction Bonuses. Certain of our officers have agreements with our company pursuant to which they will be entitled to a bonus upon the completion of the merger.

The treatment of options is more fully described in the section entitled "Terms of the Merger" Treatment of Options.

- Indemnification. Under the terms of the merger agreement, our directors and officers will be entitled to indemnification in certain circumstances, as more fully described in the section entitled "Terms of the Merger" Indemnification.

Record Date and Voting Power (page 22)

- Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on December 30, 2003, as the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting.

- On the record date, we had [35,142,882] shares of common stock outstanding held by approximately _____ stockholders of record. We have no other class of voting securities issued or outstanding.

- Stockholders of record on the record date will be entitled to one vote per share on any matter that may properly come before the Special Meeting and any adjournment or postponement of that meeting.

Quorum and Vote Required (page 22)

- Our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws, each as amended and restated to date, require: (a) the presence, in person or by duly executed proxy, of the holders of shares of our common stock representing at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the Special Meeting in order to constitute a quorum; and (b) the affirmative vote of the holders of our common stock representing at least a majority of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting in order to approve the merger. Please be aware that the failure to vote, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement and the merger.

Proxies, Voting and Revocation (page 22)

- Shares of our common stock represented at the Special Meeting by properly executed proxies received prior to or at the Special Meeting, and not revoked, will be voted at the Special Meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of that meeting, in accordance with those instructions on the proxies. If a proxy is duly executed and submitted without instructions, the shares represented by that proxy will be voted FOR the approval of the merger and in the discretion of our management with respect to any other matter that comes before the meeting, including any adjournments or postponements of the meeting or matters incident to the conduct of the meeting. Proxies are being solicited on behalf of our board of directors.
- Your vote is important! Whether or not you expect to attend in person, we urge you to vote your shares by signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card at your earliest convenience. Returning your proxy card will help ensure the presence of a quorum at the meeting. Promptly voting your shares will save us the expense of additional solicitation. An addressed envelope, for which no postage is required if mailed in the United States, is enclosed if you wish to vote your shares by mail. You may also authorize a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or via the internet in accordance with the instructions provided. Sending in your proxy card will not prevent you from voting at the meeting if you desire to do so, as your vote by proxy is revocable at your option.
- A proxy may be revoked by the person who executed it at, or before, the Special Meeting by: (a) delivering to our secretary a written notice of revocation of a previously delivered proxy bearing a later date than the proxy; (b) duly executing, dating and delivering to our secretary a subsequent proxy; or (c) attending the Special Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Special Meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute revocation of a proxy.

Effective Time (page 23)

- The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at a later time as specified in the certificate of merger and we will refer to this time as the effective time . The effective time of the merger will take place on a date that is not later than the fifth business day after certain of the conditions contained in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived, or at such other time as our company and SunGard agree.

- At the effective time of the merger, SunGard will deposit with a paying agent cash in an amount sufficient to pay the holders of our common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, the merger consideration to which they are entitled under the merger agreement.
- As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will send to each stockholder of record a letter of transmittal and instructions specifying the procedures to be followed in surrendering his, her or its certificates. You should not send any share certificates to the paying agent or to anyone else until you receive the letter of transmittal. Upon the surrender of a share certificate in accordance with the letter of transmittal and accompanying instructions, the surrendering holder will be entitled to the merger consideration.

Conditions to the Merger (page 28)

- We will not complete the merger unless a number of conditions are satisfied or waived, including approval of the merger by our stockholders and other closing conditions described more fully in the section entitled Conditions to the Merger .

Solicitation of Proposals from Other Parties (page 30)

- We have agreed, except in limited circumstances, not to solicit or encourage any proposals relating to alternative business combinations or other similar transactions with a party other than SunGard while the merger is pending.

Back to Contents

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 32)

- SunGard and our company may terminate the merger agreement by mutual agreement, and the merger agreement may otherwise be terminated under certain other circumstances.

Termination Fee; Expense Reimbursement (page 33)

- As a condition to SunGard's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, we have agreed to pay SunGard a termination fee of $22,500,000 and expenses of up to $1,000,000 if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances.

Dissenting Stockholder Appraisal Rights (page 36)

- Delaware law provides you with appraisal rights in the merger. As a result of these appraisal rights, if you are not satisfied with the amount you are receiving in the merger, you are entitled to have the value of your shares determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and to receive payment based on that valuation. The ultimate amount you receive as a dissenting stockholder in an appraisal proceeding may be more or less than, or the same as, the amount you would have received in the merger. To exercise your appraisal rights, you must deliver a written objection to the merger to our company at or before the Special Meeting and you must not vote in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Your failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under Delaware law will result in the loss of your appraisal rights.

Regulatory Approvals (page 38)

- The consummation of the merger is subject to certain regulatory approvals. While we believe that we will be able to obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner and without the imposition of burdensome conditions, we cannot be certain that we will obtain these approvals within the period of time contemplated by the merger agreement or on conditions that would not be detrimental to the combined company or at all.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 38)

- If the merger is completed, the exchange of our shares by our stockholders in return for the merger consideration will be a taxable transaction under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Generally, a taxpayer will recognize capital gain or loss to the extent the per share merger consideration differs from the taxpayer's basis in our common shares. Because of the complexities of the tax laws, we advise you to consult your own tax advisors concerning any federal, state, local, foreign and other tax consequences resulting from the merger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: Upon what am I being asked to vote?

A: You are being asked to approve the merger of our company with the Acquisition Sub. After the merger, our company, as the surviving entity, will continue as a subsidiary of SunGard and you will no longer own an equity interest in our company. Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger and recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger and the merger agreement and FOR the grant of discretionary authority to the proxy holders on a motion to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting.

Q: Why am I being asked to grant to the proxy holders the authority to vote, in their discretion, on a motion to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting?

A: We may determine to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting, for example, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: Upon completion of the merger, we will be merged with the Acquisition Sub, and our stockholders will receive a cash payment of $16.50, as described below, for each share that they hold.

Q: What will happen to my shares of SCT common stock after the merger?

A: Following completion of the merger, your shares of common stock will represent solely the right to receive the cash merger consideration, and trading in our common stock on NASDAQ will cease. Price quotations for our common stock will no longer be available, and we will cease filing periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Q: Does our board of directors recommend the approval of the merger?

A: Yes. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our stockholders approve the merger. Our board of directors considered many factors in deciding to recommend the approval of the merger, including the risk of remaining independent, the value of the merger consideration as compared to remaining independent, the fairness opinion of ThinkEquity and the premium to the then current market price of our stock represented by the merger consideration.

Q: Why has the merger been proposed?

A: Our board of directors has proposed the merger because, in its business judgment, it believes that the merger represents the strategic alternative that is in the best interest of our stockholders and is even more favorable to our stockholders than our company continuing to operate as an independent company. The merger consideration to be received by our stockholders represents a premium to the historical and recent market price of our common stock. Our board of directors determined, in its business judgment, that the merger is more favorable to our stockholders than our company continuing to operate as an independent company.

Q: What is the premium to the market price of our common shares offered by SunGard in the merger?

A: The $16.50 per share merger consideration represents a premium of approximately 14% to the closing price of our common stock on December 9, 2003, the last trading day before the public announcement of the signing of the merger agreement, approximately 9% to the average daily closing price of our common stock over the 30 trading day period ended December 9, 2003, approximately 164% to the lowest price of our common stock in the year preceding December 9, 2003 and approximately 3% to the recently achieved highest price of our common stock in the year preceding December 9, 2003 which was also the highest price of our stock in over three years prior to the public announcement.

Q: What vote is required to approve the merger?

A:

Approval of the merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of our common stock representing at least a majority of the shares then outstanding and entitled to vote on the matter. We urge you to authorize a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or via the internet in accordance with the instructions provided, or to complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card to assure the representation of your shares at the Special Meeting. Please be aware that the failure to vote, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement and the merger, but will have no effect on any motion to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting for purposes of determining whether there are sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Q: What rights do I have if I oppose the merger?

A: Delaware law provides you with appraisal rights in the merger. As a result of these appraisal rights, if you are not satisfied with the amount you are receiving in the merger, you are entitled to have the value of your shares determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and to receive payment based on that valuation. The ultimate amount you receive as a dissenting stockholder in an appraisal proceeding may be more or less than, or the same as, the amount you would have received in the merger. To exercise your appraisal rights, you must deliver a written objection to the merger to our company at or before the Special Meeting and you must not vote in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Your failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under Delaware law will result in the loss of your appraisal rights.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: As a holder of our common stock, you will receive $16.50 in cash, without interest for each share that you own. We refer to this amount as the merger consideration. For example, if you own 100 common shares, upon completion of the merger and provided no adjustment is required as described below, you will receive $1,650 in cash.

The merger agreement provides that if, prior to the completion of the merger, we change the outstanding shares of our common stock to a different number or class of shares by reason of any stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction then the merger consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such change or transaction.

Q: If the merger is completed, when can I expect to receive the merger consideration for my shares?

A: Promptly after the effective time of the merger you will receive instructions regarding the surrender of your share certificates. You should not send your share certificates to us or anyone else until you receive these instructions. The paying agent will arrange for the payment of the merger consideration to be sent to you as promptly as practicable following receipt of your share certificates and other required documents.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: Although we can provide no assurances, we are working to complete the merger as soon as practicable after the Special Meeting on February 4, 2004.

Q: What will happen to my options to purchase common shares?

A: If you hold options to purchase shares of our common stock that do not, by their terms, expire at or prior to the completion of the merger, then as soon as practicable we will offer you the opportunity to receive, upon the completion of the merger and cancellation of these options, cash in an amount equal to the number of shares of our common stock underlying each of these options multiplied by the excess of the per share merger consideration over the exercise price per share.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: Depending on your individual tax status, your receipt of the merger consideration will be a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. To review the tax consequences of the merger to you in greater detail, see page 38. Your tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your own tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Back to Contents

Q: What happens if I sell my common shares before the Special Meeting?

A: The record date for the Special Meeting is earlier than the expected completion date of the merger. If you held your common shares on the record date but have transferred those shares after the record date and before the merger, you will retain your right to vote at the Special Meeting but not the right to receive the merger consideration. The right to receive the merger consideration will pass to the person to whom you transferred your common shares.

Q: If my common shares are held in [street name] by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will not vote your common shares unless you provide instructions on how to vote. of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at a later time as specified in the certificate of merger. The effective time of the merger will take place on a date that is not later than the fifth business day after certain of the conditions contained in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived, or at such other time as our company and SunGard agree.

At the effective time of the merger, holders of our common stock will have no further ownership interest in our company. Instead, each holder of shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be entitled to receive $16.50 in cash per share, without interest and subject to adjustment. The merger agreement provides that in the event we change the outstanding shares of our common stock to a different number or class of shares by reason of any stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction then the merger consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such change or transaction.

Background of the Merger

With the sale of our energy and utilities solutions business in March 2003, our company concluded a two-year strategic repositioning program that transformed our company from an administrative solutions provider serving several industries to a focused market-leading provider of a full suite of administrative solutions designed for the higher education market. Beginning in 2001, with the sale of our government solutions business and with the subsequent sales of our manufacturing and distribution solutions business in 2002 and the energy and utilities solutions business during 2003, we had divested our three non-core divisions. In 2002, we made three acquisitions that significantly expanded the suite of solutions that we offered to the higher education industry. Early in the strategic repositioning process, we had approached our major financially capable competitors as well as several other software vendors serving multiple industries to ascertain their potential interest in acquiring our company. At that time, no such interest had been evidenced.

Despite the completion of our strategic repositioning program, our stock hit a low price of $6.25 per share on March 17, 2003, which was comparable to multi-year low prices of $5.75 and $5.95 per share seen in April 2001 and September 2002, respectively. Our stock price reflected in part, the poor performance of our services business in the first quarter of fiscal year 2003, which we took action to correct in the second fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2003. Our company's stock price remained below $8 per share throughout April and well into May, 2003.

On March 28, 2003, Thomas Unterberg, a director of our company and chairman of C. E. Unterberg, Towbin (CEUT), and Allen Freedman, non-executive chairman of our board of directors, had a telephone conversation with representatives of a private equity firm to ascertain their interest in a possible transaction involving one of their portfolio companies. Discussions of various potential transactions with this firm continued intermittently through August.

On April 25, 2003, Mr. Freedman received a letter from a major stockholder urging, among other things, that our company pursue new strategies including seeking a merger partner or a recapitalization. Mr. Freedman's reply by letter of May 6 discussed steps the we had taken to reposition our business and committed management to study further core business acquisitions and to review capital structure. Mr. Freedman, on his own in June, 2003, and along with Michael Chamberlain, chief executive officer of our company, and Eric Haskell, chief financial officer of our company, in May and August, 2003, met with representatives of this stockholder to review with the stockholder the steps our company had taken and was continuing to take in order to implement our company's strategies and enhance our company's financial performance, and to confirm that our company was exploring options available to maximize stockholder value. There was no further contact between the stockholder and our company following the meeting in August.

In early May, 2003, CEUT reviewed with our management the possible financial parameters of an acquisition of our company by a private equity firm. Also during that month, the private equity firm with which Messrs. Unterberg and Freedman had previously spoken indicated its interest in reviewing certain confidential financial information, including a five-year financial plan. Around the same time, another private equity firm contacted Mr. Freedman to propose an acquisition of our company and MR. Unterberg had conversations with a third firm.

On June 17, 2003 our board of directors requested that management prepare a long range forecast to help it evaluate whether our stock was fairly valued and to evaluate various financial alternatives, including the possible sale of our company. The board held two additional conference calls on July 7 and July 15 to discuss the five-year forecast that management was preparing and the implications of that forecast.

After the stock market closed on July 16, we reported earnings per share from continuing operations of $0.14 (which included a restructuring charge of $0.03 per diluted share, thus resulting in earnings per diluted share of $0.17 on a non-GAAP basis), which was $0.08 above expectations. The next day, the stock closed at $11.43 per share after trading as high as $13.87 on volume of 1.6 million shares, up 15.3% from the July 16 closing price of $9.91 per share.

At its July 31, 2003 meeting, our board of directors reviewed our company's long-term financial plans and forecasts and considered various options including extraordinary and regular dividends, share repurchases and the possible sale of our company. The board decided to defer action on any particular option until after private equity firms that had expressed an interest in our company had a chance to review our financial plans. Ultimately, four groups that included six private equity firms signed confidentiality agreements with our company, had discussions with management and CEUT, and received confidential financial information including financial forecasts from our company. On August 19 and August 20, 2003, two of the four groups of financial sponsors sent letters to Allen Freedman indicating their interest in exploring the purchase of our company at indicative price ranges extending from $12 to $15 per share. Our stock closed at $11 per share on August 19 after trading down to $9.44 on August 6.

On September 5, 2003, we retained CEUT to advise us with respect to the potential sale of our company. At that time, we authorized CEUT to contact two potential strategic buyers. We contacted a third potential strategic buyer that had previously expressed an interest in our higher education business. Due to the lack of interest shown in the past by our direct competitors in acquiring our company, the perception on the part of our company and our advisors that such would continue to be the case and the perceived risks to our business that could result from disclosure of acquisition approaches to our direct competitors, we did not approach these companies about a possible sale of our company.

On September 8, 2003, the board of directors authorized detailed due diligence for the two groups of financial sponsors that submitted written indications of interest to our company under the condition that the board would not consider selling our company for less than $14 per share. On that date the closing price for our common stock was $11.04 per share. Management meetings were arranged for the week of September 22, 2003, and confidential financial and operating information was collected and distributed in response to information requests from the two buyer groups. In addition, shortly after the September 8 board meeting, we authorized CEUT to contact SunGard, with which CEUT had previously had discussions when selling our company's energy and utilities solutions business a year earlier which discussions were subject to a confidentiality agreement with our company. A new confidentiality agreement with SunGard was signed on September 25, 2003 and representatives of SunGard's management met with our management and CEUT on September 29. None of the other three potential strategic buyers that we and CEUT contacted indicated an interest in acquiring our company.

SunGard and the two financial buyer groups that met with management were asked to submit formal acquisition proposals by October 14, 2003. On October 3, we announced preliminary fourth quarter earnings, indicating that license fees were 50% above expectations for the quarter and that earnings per share would be at least $0.23 compared to consensus expectations of $0.17. On that day, the stock closed at $12.56 after trading as high as $13.85 on a reported volume of 793,200 shares. Subsequently, one of the financial sponsor groups indicated that it could not make an acquisition proposal because the market price of our common stock was too high.

Prior to October 14, 2003, SunGard and the remaining financial buyer group informed CEUT that they were not yet in a position to make definitive acquisition proposals and asked for additional time. On October 14, our board extended the deadline for definitive proposals to Monday, October 20. The two potential buyers were informed of this decision by CEUT. On October 20, SunGard submitted a letter to CEUT indicating its interest in pursuing a cash acquisition of our company at a preliminary and indicative valuation of $15.75 per share and requested exclusivity during a period of due diligence. On October 21, the board met and instructed

CEUT to offer exclusivity in return for a higher indication of value. SunGard agreed to increase its preliminary indicative valuation to $16 per share. On October 28, our company entered into an agreement with SunGard that granted SunGard the exclusive right to negotiate a merger agreement with our company through November 21, provided that SunGard remained interested in pursuing a transaction with our company at a price of no less than $16 per share. On October 28, we announced that we earned $0.30 per share in the fourth fiscal quarter ended September 30. During that week, the stock closed at $14.70 per share after trading as high as $15.25 on October 28, as compared to closing at $14.16 per share for the week ended October 24.

SunGard continued its due diligence activities and contract negotiations with our company beyond the November 21 end of exclusivity. On November 24, our board of directors met and decided to continue discussions with SunGard. On December 1, the board met to review ThinkEquity's preliminary analysis relating to its fairness opinion. On December 8, our board of directors met to review ThinkEquity's final report and opinion and to consider whether to proceed with the merger. At that meeting the board asked CEUT to negotiate an increase in the merger consideration, SunGard subsequently agreed to an increase to $16.50 per share, and the board unanimously approved the merger.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

As described above in the section entitled "Background of the Merger," our board of directors unanimously approved the merger at a meeting held on December 8, 2003. Our board of directors believes that the terms of the merger and the merger agreement are advisable and fair, from a financial point of view, to, and in the best interests of our company and our stockholders. Accordingly, our board of directors recommends approval by our stockholders of the merger and the merger agreement.

In reaching its conclusion to approve the merger and the merger agreement, our board of directors consulted with our management, our legal counsel and our accountants, and CEUT and ThinkEquity our financial advisors in this transaction. Our board of directors considered our short-term and long-term interests and those of our stockholders.

After taking into consideration all of the factors described below, our board of directors determined that the potential benefits of the merger outweighed the potential detriments associated with the merger. In particular, our board of directors considered the following positive factors in reaching its decision to approve the merger and the merger agreement:

- Independence Risks and Value of Merger Consideration as compared to Remaining Independent. The board of directors believed that a sale to SunGard was more favorable to our stockholders than remaining independent based on the potential value of such alternative and the risks associated with remaining independent. The main strategic and operational risks associated with our company remaining independent include:
 - risks and volatility associated with winning new license fee business and its associated revenue and earnings volatility;
 - risks associated with growth of our market and the constraints that limited market growth could place upon our revenue and earnings growth;
 - risks associated with constrained state budgets and their impact upon new commitments to administrative systems for state universities in the near term;
 - risks associated with resurgent competition from two of our largest competitors who are currently involved in a takeover battle;
 - risks associated with growing our business by offering new products and product extensions within our target market;
 - risks associated with selling multiple products through a sales force not experienced in selling multiple product lines;

Back to Contents

- risks associated with finding suitable acquisition candidates, consummating acquisitions at acceptable prices, and integrating such acquisitions; and
- risks associated with profitably implementing our software under service contracts and maintaining and increasing profit margins.

In determining that a sale to SunGard was more favorable to our stockholders than remaining independent, the board considered the merger consideration offered by SunGard as compared to the range of potential values if we remained independent, as well as the board's perception that the risk associated with consummating the sale to SunGard was lower than the risks associated with achieving and maintaining a competitive value through our company remaining independent.

- Merger Consideration Premium. The $16.50 per share merger consideration represents a premium of approximately 14% to the closing price of our common stock on December 9, 2003, the last trading day before the public announcement of the signing of the merger agreement, approximately 9% to the average daily closing price of our common stock over the 30 trading day period ended December 9, 2003, approximately 164% to the lowest price of our common stock in the year preceding December 9, 2003 and approximately 3% to the recently achieved highest price of our common stock in the year preceding December 9, 2003, which was also the highest price paid for our stock in over three years prior to the public announcement.
- Fairness Opinion. The opinion of ThinkEquity regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of our common stock is described more fully in the section entitled "Opinion of the Financial Advisor."
- Process. The results of the process conducted by our company for evaluating the strategic alternatives and making certain that all reasonable alternatives and likely candidates for acquiring our company were pursued.
- Conditions to Closing. The absence of a financing condition to the merger and the perceived ability of SunGard to obtain the regulatory approvals required to complete the merger.
- Ability to Accept a Superior Proposal. The provisions of the merger agreement that permit the board to consider an unsolicited superior proposal if required to comply with the board's fiduciary duties to our stockholders.
- Employee and Customer Impact. Management advised our board of directors that it believed that the operating style and culture of SunGard would be well received by our employees and would increase the likelihood of a non-disruptive business combination process. Our management also believed that SunGard's focus on businesses that provide software and services to not-for-profit and public sector organizations would resonate well with our employees and customers, would result in a high rate of retention of our employees, and would therefore minimize any disruption in the support of our customers.

Our board of directors also identified and considered the following potentially negative factors in its deliberations:

- Disruptions. The possible disruption to our businesses that may result from the announcement of the transaction and the resulting distraction of our management's attention from the day-to-day operations of our businesses.
- Operating Restrictions. The restrictions contained in the merger agreement on the operation of our businesses during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger.
- Termination Fee. The $22,500,000 termination fee, plus expenses up to $1,000,000, to be paid to SunGard if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances specified in the merger agreement.

Back to Contents

Our board of directors also considered the potential benefits to certain directors and officers discussed in the section entitled Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.

Although the foregoing discussion sets forth the material factors considered by our board of directors in reaching its recommendation, it may not include all of the factors considered by the board, and each director may have considered different factors. In view of the variety of factors and the amount of information considered, the board did not find it practicable to, and did not, make specific assessments of, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. The determination was made after consideration of all of the factors as a whole and as a result of numerous meetings.

Opinion of Financial Advisor

Our board of directors requested that ThinkEquity render its opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by our stockholders. ThinkEquity, as part of its investment banking business, is continuously engaged in the evaluation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and for corporate and other purposes.

At the December 8, 2003 meeting of our board of directors, ThinkEquity delivered to the board of directors its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of December 8, 2003, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration of $16.50 per share was fair, from a financial point of view, to our stockholders.

The full text of ThinkEquity's written opinion dated December 8, 2003, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. You are urged to read the ThinkEquity opinion carefully and in its entirety. In reading the discussion of the fairness opinion set forth below, stockholders should be aware that ThinkEquity's opinion:

- was provided for the information of the board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger;
- is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration and does not address any other aspect of the merger or any related transaction;
- was not intended to and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to any matters relating to the merger or any related transaction; and
- does not address the merits of the underlying decision to engage in the merger, the consideration our stockholders may have received in an alternative transaction, or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative transaction or business strategy that may be available to us.

Although ThinkEquity rendered an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to our stockholders, the merger consideration itself was determined by our company and SunGard through arm's-length negotiations. ThinkEquity was not involved in any capacity in the negotiations with respect to the terms of the merger agreement. ThinkEquity was not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, third parties regarding alternatives to the merger. The ThinkEquity opinion was just one of the many factors taken into consideration by our board of directors. Consequently, ThinkEquity's analysis should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of our board of directors or management to enter into the merger agreement.

In arriving at its opinion, ThinkEquity:

- reviewed a December 3, 2003 draft of the merger agreement and related documents;
- reviewed information, including financial forecasts and other financial and operating data concerning our company, prepared by our management;

Back to Contents

- discussed the past and present operations and the financial condition and prospects of our company with our senior executives;
- reviewed publicly available information with respect to the historical financial performance, stock prices and trading activity of our company;
- reviewed publicly available information with respect to the historical financial performance, stock prices and trading activity of publicly traded companies in lines of business that ThinkEquity viewed as being generally comparable to those of our company and compared this information to corresponding information with respect to our company;
- compared the financial terms of the merger with the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of other acquisition transactions involving companies in lines of business that ThinkEquity viewed as being generally comparable to those of our company; and
- performed other analyses and considered other factors as ThinkEquity deemed appropriate.

In rendering its opinion, ThinkEquity assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to ThinkEquity by representatives of our company for the purposes of its opinion and further relied upon the assurances of the representatives of our company that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. With respect to the financial projections of our company that were furnished to ThinkEquity, such projections were provided by our management, and ThinkEquity assumed that such projections were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgment of our management as to the expected future financial performance of our company.

ThinkEquity did not review any of the books and records of our company except as expressly described above, and ThinkEquity did not make any independent inspection, valuation or appraisal of our assets or liabilities, nor was ThinkEquity furnished with any such valuation or appraisal. For purposes of its opinion, ThinkEquity assumed that the merger agreement in the form in which it was finally executed would be substantially similar in all material respects to the December 3, 2003 draft of the merger agreement reviewed by ThinkEquity, that the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement were true and correct, and that the merger would be consummated as provided in the merger agreement, with full satisfaction of all covenants and conditions and without any waivers thereof. ThinkEquity's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to ThinkEquity as of the date of the opinion.

In preparing its opinion, ThinkEquity performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses. Described below is a summary of the material analyses performed by ThinkEquity in connection with the rendering of its opinion.

The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand ThinkEquity's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of ThinkEquity's financial analyses.

For purposes of analyzing the merger consideration to be received by our stockholders, ThinkEquity calculated the enterprise value and equity value of our company. Enterprise value was calculated by adding the equity value of our common stock (including calculating the values of in-the-money options with a deduction for the exercise prices) and our total debt outstanding as of September 30, 2003 and subtracting our cash and cash equivalents outstanding as of September 30, 2003. These analyses indicated implied enterprise and equity values of our company, based on the merger consideration, of $497 million and $590 million, respectively.

Comparable Company Analysis

ThinkEquity analyzed selected historical and projected operating information provided by our management, stock price performance data and valuation multiples for our company and compared this data to that of 13 publicly traded companies deemed by ThinkEquity to be generally comparable to our company. ThinkEquity utilized the earnings forecasts for these companies from publicly available data, First Call and select Wall Street equity research reports. In conducting its analysis, ThinkEquity analyzed the multiples in the following subsets of comparable companies:

- selected companies with a market capitalization less than $1 billion which provide enterprise software solutions which are tailored to one or several specific industry groups or market sub-segments and whose growth is primarily driven by the client bases that they serve, referred to below as Niche Software Solutions Providers; and
- selected companies that implement packaged software and develop custom solutions for their clients, generating the majority of their revenue from professional and outsourcing services, referred to below as Government Integrators.

The companies included in the ThinkEquity analysis were:

Niche Software Solutions Providers

- Epicor Software Corporation
- Indus International, Inc.
- JDA Software Group, Inc.
- Lawson Software, Inc.
- MAPICS, Inc.
- Micros Systems, Inc.
- Retek, Inc.

Government Integrators

- Affiliated Computer Services, Inc.
- American Management Systems, Inc.
- Anteon International Corporation
- CACI International, Inc.
- Computer Sciences Corporation
- ManTech International Corporation

All multiples were based on closing stock prices on December 5, 2003. Estimated financial data for the selected companies were based on publicly available research analysts' estimates and estimated financial data for our company were based on internal estimates provided by our management. ThinkEquity reviewed enterprise values of the selected companies as multiples of, among other things, latest 12 months, commonly referred to as "LTM", and estimated calendar years 2003 and 2004 revenues and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, commonly referred to as "EBITDA". ThinkEquity calculated enterprise values as the equity value of common stock (including calculating the values of in-the-money options with a deduction for the exercise prices) plus total debt and minority interest, less cash and cash equivalents. ThinkEquity reviewed equity values of the selected companies as a multiple of, among other things, LTM and estimated calendar years 2003 and 2004 net income. ThinkEquity also reviewed stock price to calendar year 2003 and 2004 earnings per share as a multiple of estimated long-term growth rate, referred to as "P/E to Growth Rate".

Multiples were calculated for both the Niche Software Solutions Providers and Government Integrators as well as an average of the corresponding multiples from each group, referred to as "combination" multiples.

ThinkEquity used the median point for each of these metrics to develop a range of multiples of LTM and estimated calendar years 2003 and 2004 revenues, EBITDA, net income and growth rate, which ThinkEquity then applied to financial data of our company for the most closely corresponding periods in order to derive an implied equity value reference range for our company. Utilizing the median for each of the respective combination multiples, these analyses indicated an implied equity value range for our company of $526 million to $760 million with a median implied equity value for our company of $591 million.

Comparable Precedent Transactions Analysis

ThinkEquity analyzed 24 merger and acquisition transactions that have taken place over the last three and a half years involving companies that ThinkEquity deemed generally comparable to our company and the merger. ThinkEquity reviewed, among other things, the ratio of the comparable companies' enterprise value implied in the respective transactions to their last twelve months (pre-acquisition) revenue and EBITDA, referred to in this summary as [LTM Revenue] and [LTM EBITDA], respectively.

The precedent transactions in the ThinkEquity analysis were:

The table below summarizes the analysis.

	Enterprise Value /

Median	1.0x	8.4x
Mean	1.1x	8.7x

ThinkEquity used the median points for each of the two metrics to develop a range of multiples of LTM revenues and EBITDA, which ThinkEquity then applied to corresponding financial data of our company in order to derive an implied equity value reference range for our company. These analyses indicated an implied equity value range for our company of $368 million to $476 million with a median implied equity value for our company of $422 million.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

ThinkEquity calculated the estimated present value of the stand-alone, unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that our company is forecast to generate over fiscal years 2004 through 2008 using financial forecasts provided to ThinkEquity by our management. ThinkEquity then calculated an estimated range of terminal values for our company by applying perpetual growth rates ranging from 2.0% to 4.0% to our calendar year 2008 estimated and unlevered, after-tax free cash flow. The present value of the cash flows and terminal values were calculated using discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 11.5%. This analysis indicated an implied equity value range for our company of $490 million to $747 million with a median implied equity value for our company of $584 million.

Miscellaneous

In connection with rendering its opinion, ThinkEquity conducted other analyses as it deemed appropriate, including reviewing our historical and estimated financial and operating performance, analyzing selected Wall Street equity research reports on, and earnings and other estimates for, software companies, reviewing and comparing certain financial data and valuation parameters for our company and reviewing available information regarding the institutional holdings of our common stock. In addition, ThinkEquity examined publicly available information relating to trends in the software industry.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process that involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. ThinkEquity believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion. ThinkEquity employed several analytical methodologies and no one method of analysis should be regarded as critical to the overall conclusion reached by ThinkEquity. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the value of particular techniques. The conclusion reached by ThinkEquity is based on all analyses and factors taken as a whole and also on application of ThinkEquity's experience and judgment, which conclusion may involve significant elements of subjective judgment and qualitative analysis. ThinkEquity therefore gives no opinion as to the value or merit standing alone of any one or more parts of the analyses it performed.

In its analyses, ThinkEquity considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters existing as of the date of its opinion, many of which are beyond the control of our company. No company, transaction or business used in those analyses as a comparison is identical to our company or the proposed merger, and an evaluation of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions analyzed. The estimates contained in ThinkEquity's analyses and the valuation ranges resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by its analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, ThinkEquity's analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Pursuant to the terms of its engagement letter with ThinkEquity, we have agreed to pay ThinkEquity a fee of $400,000, which became payable upon the rendering of the ThinkEquity opinion. In addition, we have agreed to reimburse ThinkEquity for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by ThinkEquity in connection with its engagement and the merger, including fees and disbursements of its legal counsel. We have agreed to indemnify ThinkEquity against certain liabilities in connection with its engagement, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

ThinkEquity was also engaged by our company to act as its financial adviser and to render a fairness opinion in connection with its 2002 acquisition of Campus Pipeline and to act as our financial adviser in connection with its 2002 acquisition of Sallie Mae Solutions. ThinkEquity received fees in the amount of $950,000, in aggregate, for these services, the last of which was received in October 2002.

In the ordinary course of business, ThinkEquity and its affiliates may actively trade the equity securities of our company and SunGard for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Additional Financial Advisor

For its financial advisory services, which included financial and market-related advice in connection with the merger, we have agreed to pay C.E. Unterberg, Towbin (CEUT) a fee of approximately $4.0 million upon consummation of the merger. This fee was calculated using a formula tied to the total value of the transaction. We have also agreed to reimburse CEUT for its expenses incurred in performing its services and to indemnify CEUT and its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Unterberg or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under federal securities laws, related to or arising out of CEUT's engagement and any related transactions.

CEUT was not engaged to issue a fairness opinion on the merger in light of Thomas Unterberg's position as both a director of our company and a principal of CEUT.

CEUT is a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading and brokerage activities as well as in providing investment banking, financing and financial advisory services. In the ordinary course of its trading, brokerage and financing activities, CEUT or its affiliates may, at any time, hold long or short positions, and may trade or otherwise effect transactions, for its own account or the accounts of customers, in debt or equity securities or senior loans of our company or SunGard.

Availability of Funds

SunGard has represented to us in the merger agreement that at the consummation of the merger it will have sufficient funds available to permit SunGard to satisfy the obligation to pay the merger consideration in the merger.

Back to Contents

Structure of the Merger

In the merger, we will be merged with the Acquisition Sub, with our company as the surviving entity. As a result of the merger, we will become a subsidiary of SunGard.

In the merger, each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled, retired and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for in accordance with the purchase method of accounting under generally accepted accounting principles. Consequently, the aggregate consideration paid by SunGard in connection with the merger will be allocated to the assets and liabilities of our company based upon their fair values, with the excess, if any, being treated as goodwill.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

In addition to their interests in the merger as stockholders, certain of our directors and officers have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, your interests as a stockholder. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in adopting the merger agreement. These interests include, but are not limited to, the following:

Transaction Bonuses. Our chief executive officer, our executive vice president and chief financial officer, and our executive vice president and general counsel have agreements with our company pursuant to which they will be entitled to receive bonuses in the amounts of approximately $2.1 million, $1.5 million and $1.1 million, respectively, upon the completion of the merger.

Severance Agreements. In order to reinforce and encourage their continued attention and dedication to their assigned duties without the distraction which may arise in the event of a change of control, we have severance agreements with our chief executive officer, our executive vice president and chief financial officer, our executive vice president and general counsel, and our senior vice president of sales. Under the severance agreements, we have agreed to pay such officers certain specified severance payments and benefits in the event that their employment with us is terminated by our company, or by the officer under certain circumstances, following a change in control. In return, each of them have agreed that for a one-year period following the date of his termination following a change in control, he will not to solicit or take away any of our customers or employees that are or were customers or employees during his employment with us. The severance agreements provide for the payment to the officers of three times the sum of:

(i) the higher of their annual base salary in effect immediately prior to the notice of termination or immediately prior to the change in control; and

(ii) the higher of the target bonus for the year in which the termination occurs or the highest bonus paid or payable to the officer for any of the previous five years.

In addition to the payment described above, the severance agreements require us, for a period of 36 months after the date of a covered termination, to provide the officers with life, disability, accident and health insurance benefits substantially similar to those which they received immediately prior to the notice of termination, unless the named executive officer is otherwise offered or provided comparable benefits without cost during such period. The severance agreements also provide that we will indemnify the officers from certain legal and other expenses incurred in connection with a termination of his employment, as well as from certain excise taxes which may be levied upon the severance payments and other benefits conferred to the officers upon a change of control.

Our chief executive officer, our executive vice president and chief financial officer, our executive vice president and general counsel, and our senior vice president of sales in any material respect as required under the merger agreement have agreements with us that provide, among other things, that if such officers are terminated by our company without cause (other than in connection with a change in control), or by the officer under certain circumstances, he would receive the following benefits:

- two times his annual base salary as in effect on the date of termination of employment;

Back to Contents

- continuation of all employer-provided insurance coverage for two years following the date of termination of employment;
- all options to purchase our securities held by him on the date of termination of his employment immediately vest and may be exercised for two years following the date of termination of employment; and
- if applicable, an additional sum of cash which compensates him in full for the imposition of any additional income tax and/or excise tax or penalty which may be levied upon the severance payments and other benefits conferred to him under the agreement.

Options. Certain of our directors and officers hold options which will be will be canceled and exchanged for the right to receive cash in an amount equal to the number of shares of our common stock underlying each option multiplied by the excess of the per share merger consideration over the exercise price per share. The treatment of options is more fully described in the section entitled Terms of the MergerTreatment of Options.

Indemnification. Under the terms of the merger agreement, our directors and officers will be entitled to continued indemnification rights and directors and officers liability insurance coverage with respect to their acts and omissions occurring prior to the merger, as more fully described in the section entitled Terms of the MergerIndemnification.

Interested Director. One of our directors is a principal of C.E. Unterberg, Towbin which provided financial advisory services in connection with the merger, as more fully described in the section entitled "The Merger Additional Financial Advisor."

Certain Effects of the Merger

If the merger is completed, holders of our common stock will not have an opportunity to continue their equity interest in the surviving entity and, therefore, will not have the opportunity to share in our future earnings, dividends or growth, if any. In addition, upon completion of the merger, our common shares will no longer be listed on NASDAQ and will cease to be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place of the Special Meeting

The Special Meeting will be held at 2 Country View Road, Malvern, PA 19355, on February 4, 2004, at 10:00 am, local time.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement pursuant to which our company will be merged with the Acquisition Sub, with our company being the surviving entity.

Record Date and Voting Power

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on December 30, 2003, as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. As of the record date, there were [35,142,882] shares of common stock outstanding which were held by approximately _____ stockholders of record. Common stock is our only issued and outstanding class of stock. Stockholders of record on the record date will be entitled to one vote per share on any matter that properly comes before the Special Meeting and any adjournments or postponements of that meeting.

Quorum and Vote Required

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, each as amended and restated to date, and Delaware law require: (a) the presence, in person or by duly executed proxy, of the holders of shares of common stock representing at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the Special Meeting in order to constitute a quorum; and (b) the affirmative vote of the holders of common stock representing at least a majority of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting in order to approve the merger. For purposes only of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, we intend to count abstentions as present at the Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not, however, counted as favorable votes and, therefore, have the same effect as a vote against the merger. Broker non-votes are proxies from brokers or other nominees indicating that they have not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote the shares which are the subject of the proxy on a particular matter with respect to which the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power.

Under Delaware law and our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and voting is necessary to vote to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting, assuming such a motion is made. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on any motion to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting for purposes of determining whether there are sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Proxies, Voting and Revocation

Our shares of common stock represented at the Special Meeting by properly executed proxies received prior to, or at, the Special Meeting, and not revoked, will be voted at the Special Meeting, and at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting, in accordance with the instructions on those proxies. If a proxy is duly executed and submitted without instructions, common shares represented by that proxy will be voted FOR the approval of the merger and in such manner as the persons named on the proxy card in their discretion determine with respect to such other business as may properly come before the Special Meeting, including on any motion to adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting. Proxies are being solicited on behalf of our board of directors.

If the Special Meeting is adjourned or postponed for any reason, at any subsequent reconvening of the special meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as such proxies would have been voted at the original convening of the meeting (except for any proxies that have been revoked or withdrawn).

An addressed envelope, for which postage has been prepaid if mailed in the United States, is enclosed if you wish to grant a proxy to vote your shares by mail. Sending in your proxy card will not prevent you from voting at the meeting if you desire to do so, as your vote by proxy is revocable at your option.

Back to Contents

You can also authorize a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or via the internet in accordance with the instructions provided. Voting by proxy via telephone or via the internet is fast, convenient and your proxy is immediately tabulated. Also, by using the telephone or the internet, you help us reduce postage and proxy tabulation costs. Instructions to authorize a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or via the internet may be found on your proxy card, or can be provided by your broker, our transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services LLC, or our proxy solicitor, _____. Please do not return the enclosed proxy card if you authorize a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or via the internet.

A proxy may be revoked by the person who executed it at, or before, the Special Meeting by:

- delivering to our corporate secretary a written notice of revocation of a previously delivered proxy bearing a later date than the proxy;
- duly executing, dating and delivering to our corporate secretary a subsequent proxy;
- attending the Special Meeting and voting in person; or
- in addition to the foregoing, if you authorized a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or via the internet, you may also revoke your proxy by authorizing a new proxy by telephone or via the internet.

Attendance at the Special Meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute revocation of a previously delivered proxy.

Any written notice revoking a proxy should be delivered to Systems & Computer Technology Corporation, Great Valley Corporate Center, 4 Country View Road, Malvern, Pennsylvania 19355, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Solicitation of Proxies and Expenses

Our company and SunGard will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies from our stockholders. We have retained _____ to assist in soliciting proxies and will pay approximately $_____ plus reasonable out of pocket expenses in connection with the solicitation. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names our common shares beneficially owned by others to forward to those beneficial owners. We will reimburse persons representing beneficial owners of our common shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to those beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone or personal solicitation by our directors, officers or other regular employees. No additional compensation will be paid to our directors, officers or other regular employees for these services.

TERMS OF THE MERGER

The terms of and conditions to the merger are contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A and incorporated in this document by reference. Set forth below is a description of the material terms and conditions of the merger. This description is qualified in its entirety by, and made subject to, the text of the merger agreement.

Effective Time

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at a later time as specified in the certificate of merger. The effective time of the merger will take place on a date that is not later than the fifth business day after certain of the conditions contained in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived, or at such other time as our company and SunGard agree.

Conversion of Shares Pursuant to the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, each of our issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, will be converted into the right to receive $16.50 in cash, without interest. The merger agreement provides that in the event we change the outstanding shares of our common stock to a different number or class of shares by reason of any stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction then the merger consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such change or transaction.

Exchange of Share Certificates

Prior to the effective time of the merger, SunGard will select a bank or trust company to act as paying agent for the merger. At the effective time, SunGard will deposit, or cause to be deposited with the paying agent, for the benefit of the holders of our common stock and for exchange in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, cash in an amount sufficient to pay the merger consideration in exchange for our outstanding shares. As soon as reasonably practicable following the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will mail a letter of transmittal to each record holder of certificates representing shares of our common stock and instructions as to, among other things, the surrender of the share certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. Delivery of the share certificates will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the share certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the share certificates to the paying agent. You are urged not to surrender your share certificates until you receive a letter of transmittal and instructions.

Upon the surrender to the paying agent of your share certificates, together with a duly executed and properly completed letter of transmittal and any other required documents, and subject to any required withholding of taxes, you will be paid the merger consideration for each common share previously represented by your certificates, and the certificates will then be canceled.

No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon the surrender of your share certificates. If payment is to be made to a holder other than the registered holder of the certificates surrendered, it will be a condition of payment that the certificates so surrendered be properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting that exchange pay transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment to a person other than the registered holder of the certificates surrendered or establish to the satisfaction of the surviving entity that such tax has been paid or is not applicable. Until surrendered in accordance with the provisions stated above, each share certificate will, after the effective time of the merger, represent only the right to receive the merger consideration.

After the effective time of the merger, no transfers of certificates that previously represented shares of our common stock will be permitted or recorded on our share ledger. If, after the effective time, certificates are presented to the surviving entity or the paying agent for payment, they will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration, without interest. If your share certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed, you will be entitled to the merger consideration only by signing an affidavit to that effect and delivering a reasonable indemnity to protect SunGard and the Acquisition Sub against claims by another party related to your share certificates.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties given by our company, SunGard, and the Acquisition Sub, as to, among other things:

Other Covenants. The merger agreement contains mutual covenants between SunGard and our company, including covenants relating to:

- the preparing, filing, accuracy and completeness of this proxy statement;
- the convening of the Special Meeting and conducting the business at the meeting that is discussed in this proxy statement;
- using reasonable efforts to file, as soon as practicable after the date of the merger agreement, all notices, reports and other documents required to be filed by us and/or SunGard with any governmental body with respect to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to submit promptly any additional information requested by any such governmental body;
- using reasonable efforts to obtain each consent (if any) required to be obtained (pursuant to any applicable law or contract, or otherwise) by us or SunGard in connection with the merger and each of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and
- using reasonable efforts to lift any restraint, injunction or other legal bar to the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Conditions to the Merger

The obligation of SunGard, the Acquisition Sub and our company to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

- approval from holders of at least a majority of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote at the Special Meeting has been obtained;
- that SunGard, the Acquisition Sub and our company are not subject to any temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order preventing the consummation of the merger that has been issued by any court of competent jurisdiction and remains in effect, and that there is not any law enacted or deemed applicable to the merger that makes consummation of the merger illegal; provided that in the case of a restraining order, injunction or other order, each of the parties shall have used their commercially reasonable efforts to prevent the entry of any such restraining order, injunction or other order and to appeal as promptly as possible any restraining order, injunction or other order that may be entered.

The obligation of SunGard and the Acquisition Sub to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction of the following additional conditions any one or more of which may be waived in writing by SunGard:

- each of the representations and warranties made by us and contained in the merger agreement is true and correct, subject to the materiality qualifications provided for in the merger agreement;
- we will have performed and complied, in all material respects, with each material covenant and agreement contained in the merger agreement and required to be performed or complied with by it;
- since the date of the merger agreement, there shall not have occurred any material adverse effect and no event shall have occurred and no circumstance shall exist that, in combination with any other events or circumstances, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect;
- any waiting period under any applicable antitrust law or regulation or other law has expired or been terminated and any consent required under any applicable antitrust law or regulation or other law has been obtained;
- there is not pending any proceeding in which a governmental body is a party or otherwise involved, and neither us nor SunGard has received a communication from any governmental body in which such governmental body indicates the intention of commencing any proceeding or taking any other action: (i) challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (ii) relating to the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and seeking to obtain from us or SunGard, any damages or other relief that may be material to us or SunGard; (iii) seeking to prohibit or limit in any material respect SunGard's or Acquisition Sub's ability to vote, receive dividends with respect to or otherwise exercise ownership rights with respect to our common stock; (iv) that could materially and adversely affect the right of us or SunGard to own our assets or operate our business; or (v) seeking to compel us or any of our subsidiaries or SunGard or any of its subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate any material assets as a result of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- there is not pending any proceeding in which, in the reasonable judgment of SunGard, there is a reasonable likelihood of an outcome that would have a material adverse effect on our company or SunGard: (i) challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (ii) relating to the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and seeking to obtain from us or SunGard, any damages or other relief that may be material to us or SunGard; (iii) seeking to prohibit or limit in any material respect SunGard's or Acquisition Sub's ability to vote, receive dividends with respect to or otherwise exercise ownership rights with respect to our stock; or (iv) that would materially and adversely affect the right of us or SunGard to own the assets or operate the business of any of ours;
- the merger agreement shall not have been terminated in accordance with its terms;
- SunGard and Acquisition Sub are reasonably satisfied, in their sole discretion, that the stockholder rights agreement, dated as of April 13, 1999, between Systems & Computer Technology Corporation and ChaseMellon Shareholder Services L.L.C., as amended, and the preferred stock purchase rights issued under that agreement, are inapplicable to the merger;
- the dissenting shares do not represent more than 10% of the voting power of our outstanding common stock; and
- all of our outstanding 5% convertible subordinated debentures shall have been redeemed in full.

Our obligation to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction of the following additional conditions:

- each of SunGard's representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement are true and correct as required by the merger agreement, except where any failure does not have a material adverse effect on SunGard's or Acquisition Sub's ability to consummate the merger; and

Back to Contents

- all waiting periods (and any extensions thereof) under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Act of 1976, as amended, relating to the merger have expired or terminated early and any consent required under any applicable antitrust law or regulation or other law has been obtained, unless failure to obtain such consent would not materially and adversely affect us, our subsidiaries or SunGard nor reasonably be expected to result in the prohibition of the consummation of the merger.
- SunGard shall have complied with, in all material respects, SunGard's covenants contained in the merger agreement, except where its noncompliance does not have a material adverse effect on SunGard's or Acquisition Sub's ability to consummate the merger.

Solicitation of Proposals from Other Parties

In accordance with the merger agreement, we have agreed that neither we nor any of our subsidiaries will, that we will not permit or authorize any of our, or any of our subsidiaries' officers, directors or employees to, and that we will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause any investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of ours or any of our subsidiaries not to:

- solicit, initiate, facilitate or encourage, directly or indirectly, any inquiries relating to, or the submission of, any acquisition proposal;
- participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal, or in connection with any acquisition proposal, or furnish to any person any information or data with respect to or provide access to our properties or the properties of any of our subsidiaries, or take any other action to facilitate the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition proposal; or
- enter into any agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal or approve or resolve to approve any acquisition proposal.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the merger agreement, our board of directors is not prohibited from taking and disclosing to our stockholders a position with respect to a tender or exchange offer by a third party pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), provided that we may not, except as permitted by the merger agreement, withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, our board of directors' recommendation or approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend any acquisition proposal, or enter into any agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal. Upon execution of the exclusivity letter agreement with SunGard on October 28, 2003 (as described above under "Background of the Merger"), we immediately ceased any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any person previously conducted with respect to any of the foregoing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the effective time, we may furnish information concerning our businesses or our subsidiaries, properties or assets to any person or "group" (as defined in the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder) and may negotiate and participate in discussions and negotiations with such person or group concerning a superior proposal (as defined below), provided that such person or group shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement, the confidentiality provisions of which shall not be materially more favorable to such third party than those provided for in the confidentiality agreement we have executed with SunGard (provided that such confidentiality agreement must permit us to disclose to SunGard all of the information we are required to disclose to SunGard by the merger agreement) if:

- such person or group has submitted an acquisition proposal that our board of directors has determined in good faith is or would reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal, except where, prior to the date of the merger agreement, such person or group has had discussions with, or been provided information by, us relating to an acquisition proposal, in which case such person or group has submitted a superior proposal;
- in the good faith opinion of our board of directors, after consulting with our independent legal counsel, such action is required to discharge the board's fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law; and
- we have notified SunGard in writing of our intention to engage in such discussions or negotiations or to provide such confidential information not less than 24 hours prior to so doing.

We agreed to promptly (but in no case later than 24 hours after receipt thereof) notify SunGard in writing of the existence of any proposal, discussion, negotiation or inquiry received by us regarding any acquisition proposal, and we will immediately communicate to SunGard the terms of any proposal, discussion, negotiation or inquiry which we may receive regarding any acquisition proposal (and will promptly provide to SunGard copies of any written materials (including e-mails) received by us or our representatives in connection with such proposal, discussion, negotiation or inquiry) and the identity of the party making such proposal or inquiry or engaging in such discussion or negotiation. We agreed to promptly provide to SunGard any non-public information concerning us provided to any other person in connection with any acquisition proposal which was not previously provided to SunGard. We also agreed to keep SunGard informed on a prompt basis of the status and details of any such acquisition proposal and of any amendments or proposed amendments to any acquisition proposal and of the status of any discussions or negotiations relating to any acquisition proposal.

Except as set forth below, we agreed that neither our board of directors nor any committee thereof would (i) withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to SunGard or Acquisition Sub, our company Board Recommendation, (ii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal or (iii) enter into any agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the merger agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the effective time, our board of directors, after consulting with independent legal counsel, may withdraw or modify its board recommendation in a manner adverse to SunGard or Acquisition Sub, approve or recommend a superior proposal, or enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal, if the board determines in good faith, after consulting with our independent legal counsel, that such action is required to discharge the board's fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law, as long as in each case we have given SunGard written notice at least three business days in advance of such action that our board of directors have received a superior proposal which it intends to accept, specifying the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal and identifying the person making such superior proposal.

Under the merger agreement we may not enter into any agreement providing for any transaction contemplated by an acquisition proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement to the extent permitted in the merger agreement) for as long as the merger agreement remains in effect.

We agreed not to release or permit the release of any person from, or to waive or permit the waiver of any provision of, any confidentiality, "standstill" or similar agreement to which we are a party or under which we have any rights, and we agreed to use our best efforts to enforce or cause to be enforced each such agreement at the request of SunGard. We also agreed to promptly request each person that has executed a confidentiality agreement prior to the date of the merger agreement in connection with its consideration of a possible acquisition proposal or equity investment to return all confidential information heretofore furnished to such person by or on our behalf.

An "acquisition proposal" means any bona fide offer, proposal or other indication of interest regarding any of the following (other than the transactions provided for in the merger agreement): (i) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, recapitalization, business combination or other similar transaction involving us or any of our subsidiaries; (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of all or a significant portion of our assets, including, without limitation, any license, lease or other transfer or disposition of all or a significant portion of our software and intangible assets, in a single transaction or series of related transactions; (iii) any purchase of or tender offer or exchange offer for ten percent (10%) percent or more of the outstanding shares of our common stock, or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 in connection therewith; or (iv) any public announcement of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing or any agreement to engage in any of the foregoing.

A "superior proposal" means an acquisition proposal not solicited after October 28, 2003, on terms which our board of directors determines in good faith, taking into consideration such matters that it deems relevant (including, without limitation, the additional time necessary to consummate the acquisition proposal), to be more favorable to our stockholders than the merger (based on the written advice of an independent financial advisor retained by us that the value of the consideration provided for in such proposal is superior to the value of the consideration provided for in the merger), for which financing, to the extent required, is (based upon the written advice of an independent financial advisor retained by us) reasonably capable of being obtained; provided, however, that for purposes of this definition, "acquisition proposal" shall be deemed to refer only to a transaction involving a majority of our outstanding voting securities or all or substantially all of our assets.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated by us or SunGard prior to the effective time, whether before or after receiving stockholder approval, as follows:

- by mutual written consent of us and SunGard;
- if a court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental body shall have issued a final and nonappealable order, decree or ruling, or shall have taken any other action, having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger or making consummation of the merger illegal; provided, that in the case of a restraining order, injunction or other order, each of the parties shall have used their commercially reasonable efforts to prevent the entry of any such restraining order, injunction or other order and to appeal as promptly as possible any restraining order, injunction or other order that may be entered; or
- if the merger shall not have been consummated by April 30, 2004; provided, however, that: (i) either party shall not be permitted to terminate the merger agreement if the failure to consummate the merger is attributable to a failure on the part of such party to perform any covenant in the merger agreement required to be performed by such party; and (ii) we shall not be permitted to terminate the merger agreement unless we shall have paid any expense reimbursement and/or termination fee required under the merger agreement (discussed below).

In addition, we may terminate the merger agreement if:

- any of SunGard's representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement shall fail to be true and correct as required by the merger agreement where such failure is not cured within ten business days following SunGard's receipt of written notice of such failure from us, except where such failure does not have a material adverse effect on the ability of SunGard or Acquisition Sub to consummate the merger;
- SunGard shall not have complied with, in all material respects, SunGard's covenants contained in the merger agreement where such non-compliance is not cured within ten business days following SunGard's receipt of written notice of such non-compliance from us, except where such non-compliance does not have a material adverse effect on the ability of SunGard or Acquisition Sub to consummate the merger; or
- if we have proposed to enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal or have approved or recommended a superior proposal in accordance with the merger agreement, provided that we have complied with all of the provisions of the merger agreement related to superior proposals including the notice provisions therein, and that simultaneously with terminating the merger agreement we pay any expense reimbursement and/or termination fee required under the merger agreement (discussed below).

SunGard may also terminate the merger agreement if:

- a "triggering event" (see below) has occurred;
- any of our representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement shall fail to be true and correct, subject to the materiality qualifications contained in the merger agreement, where such failure is not

cured within ten business days following our receipt of written notice of such failure from SunGard; or

- we have not complied with, in all material respects, our material covenants contained in the merger agreement where such non-compliance is not cured within ten business days following our receipt of written notice of such non-compliance from SunGard.

A triggering event¹ has occurred if:

- our board of directors failed to recommend that our stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement, or has withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to SunGard or Acquisition Sub our company board recommendation;
- we failed to include in this proxy statement our company board recommendation or a statement to the effect that our board of directors have determined and believes that the merger is in the best interests of our stockholders;
- our board of directors fails to reaffirm our company board recommendation, or fails to reaffirm its determination that the merger is in the best interests of our stockholders, within five business days after SunGard requests in writing that such recommendation or determination be reaffirmed;
- our board of directors has approved, endorsed, recommended or taken a neutral position with respect to any acquisition proposal;
- we entered into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract relating to any acquisition proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement that is entered into in accordance with the merger agreement);
- a tender or exchange offer relating to our securities has been commenced and we shall not have sent to our stockholders, within ten business days after the commencement of such tender or exchange offer, a statement disclosing that we recommend rejection of such tender or exchange offer;
- an acquisition proposal is publicly announced, disclosed or commenced or submitted, made or publicly communicated to our board of directors and we fail to comply with the requirements of the merger agreement or otherwise fail to actively oppose such acquisition proposal;
- any person or group² (as defined in the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder) of persons directly or indirectly acquires or agrees to acquire, or discloses an intention to acquire, beneficial or record ownership of securities representing more than 10% of the outstanding securities of any class of our voting securities (we will also refer to this as a stock purchase triggering event³);
- we, our subsidiaries or our representatives, breached, in any material respect, or taken any action inconsistent in any material respect with any of the provisions regarding the solicitation of acquisition proposals contained in the merger agreement; or
- our board of directors has not submitted the merger agreement to our stockholders, whether or not our board of directors at any time changes, withdraws, or modifies our company board recommendation.

Termination Fee; Expense Reimbursement
Termination Fee

If the merger agreement is terminated:

- by us or SunGard because the merger was, or will not be, consummated by April 30, 2004 and within one year from the date of any such termination we enter into an agreement with respect to, approve, or recommend or consummate, an acquisition proposal or agree or resolve to do any of the foregoing;

Back to Contents

- by SunGard pursuant to the occurrence of a triggering event other than a stock purchase triggering event (as defined above);
- by SunGard pursuant to the occurrence of a stock purchase triggering event and within one year from the date of such termination we enter into an agreement with respect to, approve, or recommend or consummate an acquisition proposal or agree or resolve to do any of the foregoing;
- by SunGard because any of the representations and warranties made by us in the merger agreement is not true and correct (subject to the materiality qualifications provided for in the merger agreement) or we have not complied in all material respects with any material covenant made by us in the merger agreement, we have not been able to cure such inaccuracy or breach within the time allowed in the merger agreement, and within one year from the date of termination we enter into an agreement with respect to, approve, recommend or consummate an acquisition proposal or agree or resolve to do any of the foregoing; or
- by us because we have proposed to enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal or have approved or recommended a superior proposal in accordance with the merger agreement.

then our company will pay to SunGard, in cash, within two business days after the occurrence of the event causing the fee to be due, a nonrefundable fee in the amount equal to $22,500,000.

Expense Reimbursement

All fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger and the merger agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses, whether or not the merger is consummated; provided, however, that we and SunGard will share equally all fees and expenses, other than attorneys' fees, accounting fees, and financial advisory fees, incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of this proxy statement and any amendments or supplements thereto.

If the merger agreement is terminated by us or SunGard pursuant to certain sections of the merger agreement we will be required to make a nonrefundable cash payment to SunGard, in an amount equal to the aggregate amount of all reasonable fees and expenses (including all reasonable attorneys' fees, reasonable accountants' fees, reasonable financial advisory fees and all filing fees) that have been paid or that may become payable by or on behalf of SunGard in connection with the due diligence review of our company by SunGard, Acquisition Sub and their respective representatives, the preparation and negotiation of the merger agreement and otherwise in connection with the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, but which amount in no event shall exceed $1,000,000. Such expense reimbursement will be due within two business days after we have been advised of the amount.

Liquidated Damages

Payment of the termination fee and expense reimbursement, if any, as the case may be, will be SunGard's exclusive remedy for any termination of the merger agreement under the circumstances described above, and there shall be no further liability to us as a result of such termination, except in all cases in the event of fraud or an intentional or willful breach of the merger agreement by us or any of our representatives.

Treatment of Options

As soon as practicable we will offer holders of options under our 1990 Employee Stock Option Plan and our 1994 Long-Term Incentive Plan, that do not expire by their terms at or prior to the completion of the merger, the opportunity to receive, upon the completion of the merger and cancellation of their options, cash in an amount equal to the number of shares of our common stock underlying each of these option multiplied by the excess (if any) of the per share merger consideration over the exercise price per share. There are options to purchase 3,240,397 shares outstanding and issued pursuant to these plans.

Options outstanding under our 1994 Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan will be canceled and the holders of such options will receive cash in an amount equal to the number of shares of our common stock underlying each option multiplied by the excess (if any) of the per share merger consideration over the exercise price per share. There are options to purchase 390,000 shares outstanding and issued pursuant to our 1994 Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan.

Certain Employee Benefits

The merger agreement provides that all of our employees who continue employment with SunGard after the effective time (such employees shall be known as "continuing employees") will be eligible to continue to participate in health or welfare benefit plans provided by the surviving entity. The merger agreement also provides that SunGard can terminate any such health or welfare benefit plan at any time (including as of the effective time). If these health or welfare benefit plans are terminated, then the employees will be immediately eligible to participate in SunGard's health and welfare plans to substantially the same extent as similarly situated employees of SunGard. In addition, each continuing employee who participates in one of these plans will participate such that no pre-existing condition requirement, evidence of insurability provision, waiting period requirement or any similar provision will be applied to any such employee to the extent a comparable provision would not have applied under our employee benefit plans immediately prior to the effective time.

The merger agreement provides that SunGard may direct us to terminate any 401(k) plan we provide, effective as of the day immediately prior to and contingent upon us becoming a member of the same Controlled Group of Corporations (as such term is defined in Section 414(b) of the Internal Revenue Code) as SunGard. In that case, the continuing employees will be entitled to participate in another 401(k) plan sponsored, maintained or contributed to by SunGard or its subsidiaries and the service of each continuing employee for the purposes of eligibility and vesting will be credited to the same extent as it was credited under our plan immediately prior to the effective time.

In addition, SunGard has agreed to apply a severance policy to our employees substantially identical to our current severance policy for at least one year following the merger.

Indemnification

The directors and officers of our company have rights to indemnification existing in their favor. The merger agreement provides that, for the acts and omissions of the indemnified persons occurring prior to the effective time, these indemnification rights will survive the merger and will be observed by the SunGard to the fullest extent available under Delaware law for a period of six years from the effective time. The merger agreement also provides that SunGard will maintain in effect, for the benefit of such indemnified persons with respect to their acts and omissions occurring prior to the effective time, a "tail" policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance covering the period of time from the effective time until up to the sixth anniversary of the effective time, providing comparable coverage to the existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy maintained by us. The maximum aggregate premium to purchase this tail policy will be $1,500,000, and, in the event the aggregate premium for the policy exceeds $1,500,000, SunGard will be entitled to alter the amount of such coverage under the tail policy to such amount that can be obtained for an aggregate premium equal to $1,500,000.

The merger agreement provides that proper provisions will be made so that the successors and assigns of SunGard assume the indemnification and insurance obligations described above in the event SunGard or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person.

Amendment

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties in writing by action of their board of directors at any time before or after approval of our stockholders, but after stockholder approval is received, no amendment may be made which alters the amount or changes the form of the merger consideration or by law requires further approval of stockholders without, in either case, obtaining such further stockholder approval.

DISSENTING STOCKHOLDER APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, if you do not wish to accept the cash payment provided for in the merger agreement, you have the right to dissent from the merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of your shares of our common stock. Our stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must comply with the provisions of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law in order to perfect their rights. We will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures. A copy of Section 262 is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix C.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed by a stockholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the full text of which appears in Appendix C of this proxy statement.

Section 262 requires that stockholders be notified that appraisal rights will be available not less than 20 days before the Special Meeting to vote on the merger. A copy of Section 262 must be included with such notice. This proxy statement constitutes our notice to its stockholders of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the merger in compliance with the requirements of Section 262. If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 contained in Appendix C because failure to timely and properly comply with the requirements of Section 262 will result in the loss of your appraisal rights under Delaware law.

If you elect to demand appraisal of your shares, you must satisfy each of the following conditions:

- You must deliver to us a written demand for appraisal of your shares before the vote with respect to the merger is taken. This written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or voting against approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Voting against or failing to vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement by itself does not constitute a demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262.
- You must not vote in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement. A vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement, by proxy or in person, will constitute a waiver of your appraisal rights in respect of the shares so voted and will nullify any previously filed written demands for appraisal.

If you fail to comply with either of these conditions and the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive the cash payment for your shares of our common stock as provided for in the merger agreement, but you will have no appraisal rights with respect to your shares of our common stock.

All demands for appraisal should be addressed to Investor Relations at Systems & Computer Technology Corporation, Great Valley Corporate Center, 4 Country View Road, Malvern, Pennsylvania 19355, before the vote on the merger is taken at the Special Meeting, and should be executed by, or on behalf of, the record holder of the shares of our common stock. The demand must reasonably inform us of the identity of the stockholder and the intention of the stockholder to demand appraisal of his, her or its shares.

To be effective, a demand for appraisal by a holder of our common stock must be made by, or in the name of, such registered stockholder, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on his or her stock certificate(s) and cannot be made by the beneficial owner if he or she does not also hold the shares of record. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the registered owner submit the required demand in respect of those shares.

If shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of a demand for appraisal should be made in that capacity; and if the shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent.

for the record owner. A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares as a nominee for others, may exercise his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record owner.

If you hold your shares of our common stock in a brokerage account or in other nominee form and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your broker or the other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the nominee.

Within 10 days after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation must give written notice that the merger has become effective to each of our stockholders who has properly filed a written demand for appraisal and who did not vote in favor of the merger. At any time within 60 days after the effective time, any stockholder who has demanded an appraisal has the right to withdraw the demand and to accept the cash payment specified by the merger agreement for his or her shares of our common stock. Within 120 days after the effective time, either the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. The surviving corporation has no obligation to file such a petition in the event there are dissenting stockholders. Accordingly, the failure of a stockholder to file such a petition within the period specified could nullify the stockholder's previously written demand for appraisal.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Chancery Court with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares. After notice to dissenting stockholders, the Chancery Court is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition, and to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights provided thereby. The Chancery Court may require the stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with that direction, the Chancery Court may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

After determination of the stockholders entitled to appraisal of their shares of our common stock, the Chancery Court will appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest. When the value is determined, the Chancery Court will direct the payment of such value, with interest thereon accrued during the pendency of the proceeding, if the Chancery Court so determines, to the stockholders entitled to receive the same, upon surrender by such holders of the certificates representing those shares.

In determining fair value, the Chancery Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. You should be aware that the fair value of your shares as determined under Section 262 could be more, the same, or less than the value that you are entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding may be imposed upon the surviving corporation and the stockholders participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Chancery Court as the Chancery Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon the application of a stockholder, the Chancery Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. Any stockholder who had demanded appraisal rights will not, after the effective time, be entitled to vote shares subject to that demand for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares, other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the effective time; however, if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, or if the stockholder delivers a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal and an acceptance of the merger within 60 days after the effective time of the merger, then the right of that stockholder to appraisal will cease and that stockholder will be entitled to receive the cash payment for shares of his, her or its SCT common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Any withdrawal of a demand for appraisal made more than 60 days after the effective time of the merger may only be made with the written approval of the surviving corporation and must, to be effective, be made within 120 days after the effective time.

In view of the complexity of Section 262, our stockholders who may wish to dissent from the merger and pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors.

REGULATORY APPROVALS

The consummation of the merger is subject to the regulatory approvals that are described below. While we believe that we will be able to obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner and without the imposition of burdensome conditions, we cannot be certain that we will obtain these approvals within the period of time contemplated by the merger agreement or on conditions that would not be detrimental to the combined company or at all.

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (the "HSR Act") and the rules promulgated thereunder, our company and SunGard cannot complete the merger until we file the requisite notification and report form with the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC") and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, and specified waiting period requirements are satisfied. We submitted our notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on December 17, 2003, and the waiting period is currently scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m. on January 16, 2004, unless otherwise terminated or extended by the antitrust agencies.

At any time before or after completion of the merger, the FTC or the Antitrust Division could attempt to take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including initiating a burdensome investigation, seeking to enjoin the consummation of the merger under the merger agreement. Private parties may also bring actions under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances. Although we and SunGard believe that the merger and merger agreement comply with the antitrust laws, there can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger or merger agreement on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if made, that it will not be successful.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary of United States federal income tax consequences of the merger relevant to beneficial holders of our common stock whose shares are converted to cash in the merger. The discussion is for general information only and does not purport to consider all aspects of federal income taxation that might be relevant to beneficial holders of our common stock. The discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, existing, proposed and temporary regulations promulgated thereunder, rulings, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions, changes to which could materially affect the tax consequences described herein and could be made on a retroactive basis. The discussion applies only to beneficial holders of our common stock in whose hands shares are capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and may not apply to beneficial holders who acquired their shares pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or other compensation arrangements with us or hold their shares as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction or who are subject to special tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (such as dealers in securities, insurance companies, other financial institutions, regulated investment companies, tax-exempt entities, S corporations and taxpayers subject to the alternative minimum tax). In addition, this discussion does not discuss the federal income tax consequences to a beneficial holder of our common stock who, for United States federal income tax purposes, is a non-resident alien individual, a foreign corporation, a foreign partnership or a foreign estate or trust, nor does it consider the effect of any state, local or foreign tax laws.

The receipt of cash for our common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a beneficial holder who receives cash in exchange for shares pursuant to the merger will recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and the beneficial holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares surrendered for cash pursuant to the merger. Gain or loss will be determined separately for each block of shares (i.e., shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) surrendered for cash pursuant to the merger. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the beneficial holder's holding period for such shares is more than one year at the time of consummation of the merger.

Backup withholding at a 28% rate may apply to cash payments a beneficial holder of shares receives pursuant to the merger. Backup withholding generally will apply only if the beneficial holder fails to furnish a correct taxpayer identification number, or otherwise fails to comply with applicable backup withholding rules and certification requirements. Each beneficial holder should complete and sign the substitute Form W-9 that will be part of the letter of transmittal to be returned to the exchange agent in order to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding, unless an applicable exemption exists and is otherwise proved in a manner acceptable to the exchange agent. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowable as a refund or credit against a beneficial holder's United States federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

THIS U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX DISCUSSION IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND MAY NOT ADDRESS ALL TAX CONSIDERATIONS THAT MAY BE SIGNIFICANT TO A HOLDER OF OUR COMMON SHARES. BECAUSE INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES MAY DIFFER, WE URGE EACH STOCKHOLDER TO CONSULT HIS, HER OR ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO IT OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN LAWS AND CHANGES IN APPLICABLE TAX LAWS.

BACKGROUND

- (1) The respective boards of directors of Parent, Acquisition Sub and the Company have each determined that it is advisable and in the best interests of their respective stockholders for Parent to acquire the Company upon the terms and provisions of and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement.
- (2) In furtherance of the acquisition of the Company by Parent, the respective boards of directors of Parent, Acquisition Sub and the Company have each approved a merger (the "Merger") of Acquisition Sub with and into the Company, with the Company as the surviving corporation, upon the terms and provisions of and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement.
- (3) By resolutions duly adopted, the board of directors of the Company has, in light of and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, (i) determined that this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, are fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders; and (ii) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company approve and adopt this Agreement.
- (4) Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto.

INTENDING TO BE LEGALLY BOUND, in consideration of the mutual agreements contained herein and subject to the satisfaction of the terms and conditions set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1: MERGER TRANSACTION

1.2. Merger of Acquisition Sub into the Company. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"), at the Effective Time, Acquisition Sub shall be merged with and into the Company, the separate existence of Acquisition Sub shall cease and the Company will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger (the "Surviving Corporation").

1.3. Effect of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement and in the applicable provisions of the DGCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time, all property of the Company and Acquisition Sub shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all Obligations and duties of the Company and Acquisition Sub shall become Obligations and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

1.4. Closing; Effective Time. Unless this Agreement shall have been terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been abandoned pursuant to Section 8 hereof, the consummation of the Merger (the "Closing") shall take place at the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania offices of Blank Rome LLP, at

Back to Contents

10:00 a.m., local time, on a date to be designated by Parent (the "Closing Date"), which shall be no later than the fifth (5th) Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions set forth in Section 7 (other than delivery of items to be delivered at the Closing and other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, it being understood that the occurrence of the Closing shall remain subject to the delivery of such items and the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions at the Closing), unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, a certificate of merger satisfying the applicable requirements of the DGCL shall be duly executed by the Company and, concurrently with or as soon as practicable following the Closing, filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The Merger shall become effective upon the date and time of the filing of such certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such later time as is specified in the certificate of merger (the "Effective Time").

1.5. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws; Directors and Officers. Unless otherwise determined by Parent prior to the Effective Time:

(a) subject to Section 6.5(a), the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended and restated as of the Effective Time to conform to the certificate of incorporation of Acquisition Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time until thereafter changed or amended in accordance with the provisions thereof and applicable Law;

(b) subject to Section 6.5(a), the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended and restated as of the Effective Time to conform to the bylaws of Acquisition Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time until thereafter changed or amended in accordance with the provisions thereof and applicable Law;

(c) the directors of the Surviving Corporation immediately after the Effective Time shall be the respective individuals who are directors of Acquisition Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be; and

(d) the officers of the Surviving Corporation immediately after the Effective Time shall be the respective individuals who are officers of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be.

SECTION 2: CONVERSION OF SHARES; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

2.1. Conversion of Shares.

(a) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of Parent, Acquisition Sub, the Company or any stockholder of the Company:

(i) any shares of Company Common Stock, including any Right associated therewith, then held by the Company or any wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company (or held in the Company's treasury) shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor;

(ii) any shares of Company Common Stock, if any, including any Right associated therewith, then held by Parent, Acquisition Sub or any other wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor;

(iii) except as provided in clauses (i) and (ii) above and subject to Sections 2.1(b), 2.1(c) and 2.3, each share of Company Common Stock (including each Right associated therewith), then outstanding shall be converted into the right to receive Sixteen Dollars and Fifty Cents ($16.50) in cash (the "Merger Consideration"), without interest; and

(iv) each of the shares of the common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of Acquisition Sub then outstanding shall be converted into one share of Company Common Stock.

(b) If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock are changed into a different number or class of shares by reason of any stock split, division or subdivision of shares, stock dividend, reverse stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction, then the Merger Consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such change or transaction.

(c) If, any shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time are unvested or are subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other condition under any applicable restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement with the Company or under which the Company has any rights, then the Merger Consideration payable with respect thereto will also be unvested and subject to the same repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other condition. The Company shall take all action that may be necessary to ensure that, from and after the Effective Time, Parent is entitled to exercise any such repurchase option or other right set forth in any such restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, immediately prior to the Effective Time, each share of restricted Company Common Stock awarded under the Company's Employees' Restricted Stock Purchase Plan which remains restricted under the terms of that plan will be replaced with an unrestricted share of Company Common Stock (which unrestricted share will be freely transferable and not subject to repurchase or forfeiture).

2.2. Surrender of Certificates; Stock Transfer Books.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall designate a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company to act as agent (the "Paying Agent") for the holders of shares of Company Common Stock to receive the funds to which holders of such shares shall become entitled pursuant to Section 2.1. Such funds shall be invested by the Paying Agent as directed by the Parent or the Surviving Corporation. Earnings from such investments shall be the sole and exclusive property of Parent and the Surviving Corporation, and no part of such earnings shall accrue to the benefit of holders of shares of Company Common Stock.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be mailed to each Person who was, at the Effective Time, a holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock entitled to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.1, a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates evidencing such shares (the "Certificates") shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates pursuant to such letter of transmittal. Upon surrender to the Paying Agent of a Certificate, together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be reasonably required pursuant to such instructions, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration for each share of Company Common Stock formerly evidenced by such Certificate, and such Certificate shall then be canceled. No interest shall accrue or be paid on the Merger Consideration payable upon the surrender of any Certificate for the benefit of the holder of such Certificate. If the payment of the Merger Consideration is to be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Certificate formerly evidencing shares of Company Common Stock is registered on the stock transfer books of the Company, it shall be a condition of payment that the Certificate so surrendered be endorsed properly or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment shall have paid all transfer and other similar Taxes required by reason of the payment of the Merger Consideration to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or shall have established to the reasonable satisfaction of Acquisition Sub that such Taxes either have been paid or are not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2(b), each Certificate shall be deemed, from and after the Effective Time, to represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration for each share of Company Common Stock formerly evidenced by such Certificate. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, Parent may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the payment of the Merger Consideration for each share of Company Common Stock formerly evidenced by such Certificate, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate to provide an appropriate affidavit and to deliver a bond (in such sum as Parent may reasonably direct) as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Paying Agent, Parent or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Certificate.

Back to Contents

(c) At any time following the sixth (6th) month after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to require the Paying Agent to deliver to it any funds which had been made available to the Paying Agent and not disbursed to holders of shares of Company Common Stock (including all interest and other income received by the Paying Agent in respect of all funds made available to it), and, thereafter, such holders shall be entitled to look to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar Laws) only as general creditors thereof with respect to any Merger Consideration that may be payable upon due surrender of the Certificates held by them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the Surviving Corporation, Parent or the Paying Agent shall be liable to any holder of a share of Company Common Stock for any Merger Consideration delivered in respect of such share to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar Law.
