Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 8, 2005, UST Inc. (the Company) entered into an agreement with Richard H. Verheij, the Company's former Executive Vice President and General Counsel, to set forth the mutual agreement of the Company and Mr. Verheij as to the rights and obligations of the parties in connection with Mr. Verheij's termination of employment with the Company, all as contemplated by Mr. Verheij's prior employment agreement with the Company (the Employment Agreement). The new agreement is referred to as the Subsequent Agreement. As reflected in the Subsequent Agreement, Mr. Verheij's employment with the Company has been terminated, effective as of January 10, 2005, by mutual consent of Mr. Verheij and the Company. In addition to the Subsequent Agreement, Mr. Verheij has executed a general release, a copy of which is attached to the Subsequent Agreement, that releases the Company and its affiliates from all liabilities and claims that Mr. Verheij may have against the Company and its affiliates arising prior to January 10, 2005.

As reflected in the Subsequent Agreement and subject to Mr. Verheij's compliance with the terms thereof, Mr. Verheij will receive, over a three-year period commencing approximately six months from the date of termination of employment, payments from the Company in the aggregate amount of $4,254,537. Such payments shall be made in regular bi-weekly installments over the three-year period. Mr. Verheij will also continue to (i) receive coverage under the Company's welfare benefit plans (including life insurance, long-term disability and health insurance) and (ii) participate in, and accrue benefits under, the Company's non-qualified retirement plans over a three-year period.

Mr. Verheij has agreed, in consideration of the foregoing, not to compete with the Company for a period of five years from the date of termination of employment by engaging or participating in any business or industry that is in direct or indirect competition with the principal business of the Company. Mr. Verheij has also agreed not to solicit, during such five-year period, any agent, client, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel or adversely change its relationship with the Company.

Under the Subsequent Agreement, Mr. Verheij will continue to be bound by the employee secrecy agreement, confidentiality and conflict of interest restrictions provided in the Employment Agreement. The Employment Agreement is otherwise terminated.

The Company does not expect the foregoing to have a material impact on the Company's results of operations in any particular reporting period, or to change the Company's previously announced range of anticipated earnings results for 2005.

The Subsequent Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
