PRESS RELEASE Amsterdam, 1 July 2008

ING Closes Acquisition of CitiStreet, Moves to Leading Position in US Defined Contribution Business

ING Group announced today that it has received final regulatory approvals and completed its acquisition of CitiStreet LLC, one of the US premier retirement plan and benefit service and administration organisations.

ING announced this transaction on 2 May 2008 as part of its move to expand its existing footprint in the US retirement savings marketplace and strategy to support the strong organic growth of the Group with suitable add-on acquisitions aligned with its core banking, investments, life insurance and retirement services growth businesses. With the successful closing of this transaction, ING is now the third-largest defined contribution business in the US based on approximately EUR 191 billion (USD 300 billion) of combined assets under management (AUM) and assets under administration (AUA); the second-largest based on approximately 9.8 million plan participants; and the largest based on approximately 60,000 plans (31 December 2007).

In aggregate, ING US Retirement Services and Annuities business, which now includes CitiStreet, has more than EUR 259 billion (USD 408 billion) in combined AUM and AUA and more than 16 million participants (31 March 2008). Under the terms of the agreement, ING acquired 100 percent of CitiStreet for a total consideration of approximately EUR 570 million (USD 900 million).² The acquisition was financed entirely from existing internal resources and will be booked in the third quarter 2008.
