Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 5, 2009, Globe Specialty Metals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), pursuant to that certain Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement), dated as of November 5, 2009, by and between the Company and Dow Corning Corporation, a Michigan corporation (DCC), sold to DCC (i) all of its equity interests in Globe Metais Industria e Comercio Ltda., a Brazilian limited liability company (GMIC) for $75 million and (ii) a 49% equity interest in WVA Manufacturing, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Alloy JV), the entity containing the Company's smelter plant and related manufacturing operations located in Alloy, West Virginia, for $100 million. The purchase price is subject to customary post-closing adjustment for changes in working capital. The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties the parties thereto made to and solely for the benefit of each other, and such representations and warranties should not be relied upon by any other person. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for the purposes of the Purchase Agreement and are subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by and between the Company and DCC in connection with negotiating the Purchase Agreement. Accordingly, security holders should not rely on the representations and warranties as accurate or complete or characterizations of the actual state of facts as of any specified date since such representations and warranties are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules and are subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable to security holders and were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company and DCC rather than establishing matters as facts. In addition, the Company and DCC have agreed that GMIC will sell to the Company certain quantities of silicon metal produced by GMIC during the remainder of 2009 and 2010 to fulfill certain commitments of product to customers of GMIC who will be retained by the Company.

In connection with the transactions, the Company reduced its indebtedness by approximately $20 million, consisting of a $6 million pre-payment under its credit facility with Societe Generale and the transfer of the $14 million export finance term note with HSBC (together with an equal amount of cash on hand at GMIC) as part of the sale of GMIC to DCC.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company entered into that certain Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of Alloy JV (the LLC Agreement), dated as of November 5, 2009, by and among Alloy JV, the Company, GSM Alloys I, Inc., a Delaware limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (GSM Alloys I), GSM Alloys II, Inc., a Delaware limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (GSM Alloys II), Dow Corning Enterprises, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of DCC (DCC Enterprises), and DCC. The LLC Agreement, among other things, provides for the governance of Alloy JV. Following the Transaction, GSM Alloys I and GSM Alloys II (together, the Series A Members), hold 51% of the equity interests of Alloy JV, while DCC Enterprises holds the remaining 49%. Alloy JV, pursuant to the LLC Agreement, will be managed by a Board of Representatives consisting of five members, three of which are appointed by the Series A Members and two of which are appointed by DCC Enterprises. The LLC Agreement also contains customary minority protection rights, tag-along rights and restrictions on transfer. The foregoing description of the LLC Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the LLC Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with establishment of Alloy JV, the Company entered into an Output and Supply Agreement (the Supply Agreement), dated as of November 5, 2009, by and among Alloy JV, DCC, Globe Metallurgical Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (GMI), and the Company. The Supply Agreement, among other things, provides for the sale of the silicon metal produced by Alloy JV to GMI and DCC. The production capacity of Alloy JV will be allocated 51% to GMI and 49% to DCC. The foregoing description of the Supply Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. In connection with the entry into the Supply Agreement, GMI and DCC amended their existing supply agreement to reduce the amount of silicon metal to be sold to DCC thereunder in 2010 to 20,000 metric tons.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

The information contained in Item 1.01 of this Current Report is incorporated herein by reference.
