Item 11. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder Matters.Stock Holdings of Certain Owners and Management

The following table shows the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned as of April 30, 2010 by: (a) each of our named executive officers and current directors, (b) all of our current executive officers and directors as a group and (c) each person we know to be the beneficial owner of 5% or more of our outstanding shares of common stock. Unless otherwise specified, the address of each beneficial owner listed in the table is c/o HealthSport, Inc., 1620 Beacon Place, Oxnard, California 93033.

Percentage of class beneficially owned is based on 122,582,717 shares of common stock outstanding on April 30, 2010. In accordance with SEC rules, when we computed the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by a person and the percentage ownership of that person, we deemed as outstanding shares of common stock subject to options or warrants held by that person that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of April 30, 2010. We did not deem these shares outstanding, however, for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person.

Except as indicated by the footnotes below, we believe, based on the information furnished to us, that the persons and entities named in the table below have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock that they beneficially own, subject to applicable community property laws.

Change in Control Transaction

We entered into a stock purchase agreement dated November 6, 2009 with Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC (the Stock Purchase Agreement) that provided that we issue to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC 66,666,667 shares (the Shares) of our common stock in exchange for cash and a promissory note representing an aggregate value of $10,000,000 (the SMI Financing). At the time of closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement (the Closing), Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC paid the Company $2,000,000 in cash and issued a promissory note (the Promissory Note) to the Company in the amount of $8,000,000. On March 19, 2010 we amended the payment terms on the Promissory Note to provide for its payments in installments with all payments due by September 15, 2010.

Table of Contents

At the Closing, we issued an aggregate of 13,333,333 of the Shares directly to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC. The balance of 53,333,334 Shares have been issued in the name of Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC, but are being held in escrow pursuant to a pledge agreement (the Pledge Agreement). The remaining 53,333,334 Shares will be delivered to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC as Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC makes the scheduled installment payments pursuant to the Promissory Note at the rate of one share for each $0.15 of the Promissory Note that is repaid. The Pledge Agreement permits our board of directors to vote the pledged shares while such shares are being held in escrow pursuant to the Pledge Agreement. If there is a default in the repayment of the Promissory Note, we have the right, after applicable notice, to demand the return for cancellation of any Shares still subject to the Pledge Agreement. In addition, in the event of a default, those directors appointed by Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC must resign and Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC's right to appoint majority of our board of directors will terminate.

In connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, we experienced a change in control because Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC acquired approximately 55% of our outstanding common stock. If Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC defaults under the terms of the Promissory Note and a substantial number of the Shares are cancelled, we may experience a subsequent change in control because our stockholders other than Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC would once again own the majority of our outstanding shares.

Item 12. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence.Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions

Related party transactions are reviewed and approved by a disinterested majority of our board of directors, or as otherwise provided under Delaware law. We do not have any other special committee, policy or procedure related to the review, approval or ratification of related party transactions at this time.

In connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement for the SMI Financing, we agreed that for so long as any amounts remain outstanding under the Promissory Note issued in such financing, the Company shall obtain the approval of not less than five directors of a seven member board of directors (or not less than one plus the number of directors appointed by Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC if a different size board) prior to taking certain corporate actions, including: (a) changing the Company's principal line of business; (b) any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up; (c) any amendment or restatement to the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws; (d) increasing or decreasing the number of board members; (e) significant acquisitions, dispositions, licenses or transfers of assets outside the ordinary course of business; (f) issuing capital stock, except for shares issuable in accordance with the terms of outstanding employee benefit plans or warrants, options or other derivative securities; (g) declaring dividends or redeeming, purchasing or otherwise effecting any recapitalization or restructuring of outstanding shares of capital stock; (h) incurring significant indebtedness; (i) effecting any change in control transaction; (j) modifying any executive employment agreements; (k) amending any existing agreement between the Company and Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC; or (l) any amendment modification or waiver of the use of proceeds from the sale of the Shares from the agreed upon use of proceeds set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Since January 1, 2009, the beginning of our last fiscal year, we have entered into the following related party transactions:

In August 2009, our InnoZen, Inc. subsidiary entered into a manufacturing agreement (the Manufacturing Agreement) with Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC. Under the terms of the Manufacturing Agreement, the Company has granted Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC a non-exclusive license to manufacture certain of the Company's proprietary edible film-strip products. Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC was also granted a right of first negotiation for the manufacture of other products, the pricing and terms of which will be established on a product by product basis. Both parties have granted the other a right of first negotiation in the event either contemplates a change in control transaction. In consideration of the rights granted to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC by InnoZen, Inc., Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC was required to pay $150,000 to InnoZen, Inc. Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC also agreed to purchase an aggregate of 4,255,320 shares of the Company's common stock at a purchase price of $1 million or $0.235 per share. Payment of the purchase price was to be made on the basis of $150,000 on signing the Manufacturing Agreement, $150,000 on each of September 15, October 15 and November 15, 2009 and the remaining $400,000 is to be paid on or before December 31, 2009. Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC made payments totaling $450,000. The subscription portion of the Manufacturing Agreement has been cancelled due to the closing of the subsequent Stock Purchase Agreement between the Company and Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC. At the time of the entry into the Manufacturing Agreement, Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC was not a related party; however, the Manufacturing Agreement remains in effect and we continue to perform our obligations under its terms.

On November 6, 2009, we entered into the Stock Purchase Agreement with Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC. On December 1, 2009, we completed the SMI Financing in which we sold 66,666,667 of our common stock to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC, pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement. In connection with the completion of the SMI Financing and in accordance with the Stock Purchase Agreement, Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC paid to us $2,000,000 and issued the Promissory Note to us in the amount of $8,000,000. The Company issued and delivered 13,333,333 shares of our common stock to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC at the time of closing. The remaining shares were issued in the name of Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC and are being held in escrow pursuant to a Pledge Agreement. The Pledge Agreement provides for a partial release of shares as payments are made under the Promissory Note. In addition to the issuance of the 66,666,667 shares of common stock, the Stock Purchase Agreement provides for the issuance of additional shares of common stock, with or without additional consideration, in the event of conversion of outstanding convertible securities, the incursion in undisclosed liabilities, and certain other dilutive issuances.

On March 19, 2010, we entered into amendments to three agreements with Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC including (a) an amendment to stock purchase agreement (SPA Amendment), (b) an amendment to promissory note (Note Amendment) and (c) an amendment to stock pledge agreement (Pledge Agreement Amendment) and collectively with the SPA Amendment and Note Amendment, the Amendments). The Amendments amend the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Promissory Note and Stock Pledge Agreement (collectively, the SMI Financing Agreements) that we entered into with Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC in connection with the SMI Financing. The Amendments extend the payment terms under the promissory note to September 15, 2010 in exchange for Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC committing to provide interim financing to cover certain of our operating and capital expenses, and making a portion of its payment obligations recourse obligations, as discussed in more detail below.

The Note Amendment amends the schedule of the installment payments under the promissory note to be as follows:

$500,000 on or before November 15, 2009 (previously paid);

$2,050,000 on or before May 15, 2010;

$2,500,000 on or before July 15, 2010;

$2,950,000 on or before September 15, 2010; and all remaining principal and interest due on September 15, 2010.

In addition, if prior to payment of the May 15, 2010 installment we have insufficient funds to pay (a) our accounts payable as of March 19, 2010, (b) any obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business after March 19, 2010 or (c) any payments due related to the improvements to our Oxnard plant, Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC is obligated to advance us sufficient funds to make those payments. Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC's obligation to make advances for expense reimbursement under clause (a) and (b) above is limited to an aggregate of $1,000,000 and its obligation under clause (c) is limited to an aggregate of $700,000. Any such advance payments will be credited against the May 15, 2010 payment obligation under the promissory note.

Finally, the Promissory Note originally provided that the payment obligations were non-recourse and that we were limited to a foreclosure action pursuant to the pledge agreement and removal of Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC's director appointees from our board of directors as our exclusive remedies for Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC's breach of its obligations under the promissory note. Consequently, if Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC failed to make a payment under the Promissory Note, we could recover the common stock from the stock pledge agreement, but could not sue Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC to collect the payment due. The Note Amendment modifies Section 10 to provide that if Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC fails to make a scheduled payment under the promissory note and such failure continues for a period of two days then Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC is obligated to pay us an amount in cash so that the amount of money available in our corporate bank account equals $500,000. The obligation to pay up to $500,000 is a recourse obligation and we can bring an action to collect the payment due. Upon payment, Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC would be entitled to a release of shares from the stock pledge agreement at the rate of $0.15 per share. The purpose of this provision is to provide us with capital to continue operations while we seek additional needed capital.

The Pledge Agreement Amendment conforms the share release provisions to coincide with the new payment terms under the Promissory Note and amends the non-recourse debt provisions to conform to the limited recourse obligations under Section 10 of the Note.

The SPA Amendment confers upon Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC certain additional rights to negotiate and compromise our obligations to vendors and debt holders, subject to certain guidelines. The amount of any payments that Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC makes pursuant to this right will be credited to its payment obligations under the Promissory Note and shares of our common stock will be released from the Pledge Agreement at the rate of $0.15 per share.

The SPA Amendment also adds a provision to the Stock Purchase Agreement requiring Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC to provide consulting services to us in connection with the improvements to and cGMP certifications for our Oxnard plant. Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC will receive compensation for the consulting services in amounts that are pre-approved by our CEO and President and to be paid in cash or shares of our common stock valued at the rate of $0.15 per share. In the event that Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC's designees fail to constitute a majority of our board of directors for any reason, Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC shall have a right to payment of all unpaid consulting fees in cash and repayment of any expenses advanced for construction of the Oxnard facility under the promissory note (as described above). In the event of such a demand, we have agreed to promptly deliver a short term promissory note to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC evidencing our repayment obligation. Payments under the short-term note shall start no earlier than four months after Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC makes demand for payment. We have agreed to secure our payment obligation under the short term note with a lien on all of our assets subject to senior security interests. To the extent that we have previously released shares of common stock to Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC from the stock pledge agreement on the basis of expenses advanced for our Oxnard facility, Supplemental Manufacturing & Ingredients, LLC will reconvey any such released shares to us for cancellation.

The Amendment Agreements were all approved by a disinterested majority of our Board of Directors.
