Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On July 14, 2010, Navios Maritime Acquisition Corporation (the Company) dismissed its independent registered accounting firm, Rothstein, Kass & Company, P.C. (Rothstein). The decision to dismiss Rothstein was recommended and approved by the Company's Audit Committee and by the full Board of Directors (the Board).

The reports of Rothstein on the financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and 2009 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was the report qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In connection with its audit for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and 2009 and during the subsequent period that began on January 1, 2010 and ended on July 13, 2010, there were no disagreements with Rothstein on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if they had occurred and not been resolved to the satisfaction of Rothstein, would have caused Rothstein to make reference to such disagreements in their report on the financial statements for such year; and there were no reportable events as described in Item 16F(a)(1)(v) of Form 20-F. Rothstein was engaged by the Company on April 1, 2008 in connection with the formation of the Company.

The Company has provided Rothstein with a copy of the foregoing disclosures. Rothstein has furnished the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating its agreement with the disclosures above, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 15.1.

In addition, on July 14, 2010, the Company engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers Auditing Company S.A. (PwC) as its new independent registered public accounting firm. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and 2009 and through July 13, 2010, PwC was not engaged as the Company's principal accountants to audit its financial statements or as an independent accountant to audit a significant subsidiary and on whom the principal accountant was expected to express reliance in its report, nor were they consulted regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 16F(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Form 20-F.

This Report on Form 6-K is hereby incorporated by reference into the Navios Maritime Acquisition Corporation Registration Statement on Form F-3, File No. 333-151707.
