ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

General

The Compensation Committee actively monitors and evaluates compensation programs for our named executive officers. The Company's current named executive officers include the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer, Chief Merchandising and Marketing Officer, General Counsel and Chief Accounting Officer. The Compensation Committee believes that A.C. Moore's executive compensation programs are designed to drive performance of the Company's business plans, include incentives to enhance shareholder value and reflect compensation practices consistent with the competitive market.

Compensation Philosophy

A.C. Moore's compensation program is based on the principles and objectives set forth below.

We structure our compensation program to target the median of the market in which we compete for executive talent.

We develop compensation programs that emphasize pay-for-performance yet do not encourage executives to take imprudent risk.

We seek to retain and motivate a talented management team to maximize shareholder value.

We strive to ensure the compensation programs maintain an appropriate balance between base salary, annual and long-term stock-based incentive compensation.

We motivate our executives to achieve financial and operational goals by providing them with opportunities to earn annual incentive payments, at market amounts, based on above-market performance.

We strive to align the earnings prospects and interests of executives with those of our shareholders.

We believe our executives should have meaningful levels of ownership of A.C. Moore common stock.

Recent Developments and Compensation Actions in 2010

A.C. Moore's former Chief Executive Officer who joined the Company in June 2006, Rick A. Lepley, retired in March 2010. Mr. Jeffries, our then Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, was appointed Acting Chief Executive Officer in March 2010. He was appointed Chief Executive Officer in June 2010. The retirement of Mr. Lepley and appointment of Mr. Jeffries as Chief Executive Officer resulted in various organizational structure changes, including but not limited to, shifts in executive responsibility for different functions within A.C. Moore. In February 2011, A.C. Moore announced that our Board of Directors is exploring strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value including, but not limited to, a potential sale of the Company, corporate financing or capital raise. The Company has received third party expressions of interest but there can be no assurance that a transaction will result from this process. In March 2011, the Company reported a net loss for fiscal 2010.

Below is a summary of certain actions resulting from the Company's organizational changes, exploration of strategic alternatives and overall performance.

In March 2010, A.C. Moore entered into an agreement and release with Mr. Lepley in connection with his retirement. Also in March 2010, in connection with his appointment as Acting Chief Executive Officer, A.C. Moore entered into a special cash award agreement with Mr. Jeffries providing for a cash bonus of $75,000 payable on September 30, 2010, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions.

In March 2010, the Compensation Committee approved the 2010 annual incentive plan that provided the named executive officers with a cash incentive opportunity upon the Company's achievement of certain financial goals. These goals are discussed in more detail below under 2010 Annual Incentive Plan. As A.C. Moore did not achieve the 2010 annual incentive plan goals, no named executive officer received an annual incentive bonus for performance in fiscal 2010.

In April 2010, the Compensation Committee retained Towers Watson, an independent outside compensation consultant, to assist in reviewing executive officer compensation and updating the Company's peer group of companies for benchmarking purposes.

On August 19, 2010, A.C. Moore entered into an amended and restated employment letter with Mr. Jeffries in connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer in June 2010.

On August 26, 2010, Mr. Stern was appointed Chief Administrative Officer in addition to continuing to serve as Chief Financial Officer.

On August 26, 2010, Mr. Schriver was appointed Chief Accounting Officer. On December 6, 2010, A.C. Moore entered into an amended and restated employment letter with Mr. Schriver.

On December 14, 2010, the Board approved retention awards for Messrs. Jeffries, Stern and Abelman and Ms. Rhoades to ensure that they are aligned with shareholders' interests by limiting retention risk. The retention award for Mr. Jeffries is an equity grant; the retention award for each of Messrs. Stern and Abelman and Ms. Rhoades is comprised of a mix of equity and cash payable on December 31, 2011, unless earlier vested pursuant to the terms of the award agreements.

Consistent with A.C. Moore's announcement in August 2009, A.C. Moore has not entered into any agreements or material amendments to agreements, including but not limited to Mr. Jeffries' amended and restated agreement, that provide for excise tax gross-up provisions with respect to payments contingent upon a change in control.

Table of Contents

The material terms of employment agreements, awards or other agreements between A.C. Moore and the named executive officers are summarized in this Compensation Discussion and Analysis section or under Agreements with Named Executive Officers below.

Establishing Executive Compensation and Compensation Committee Process

Role of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee determines A.C. Moore's overall compensation philosophy. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board the elements of our named executive officers' compensation. The Compensation Committee reviews and makes determinations for the Chief Executive Officer's and recommendations to the Board. The Compensation Committee and the other independent members of the Board discuss the Chief Executive Officer's compensation during an executive session, without the Chief Executive Officer present, based on their assessment of his individual performance and the financial and operating performance of A.C. Moore.

In addition, the Board of Directors, upon the Compensation Committee's recommendation, approves the compensation and employment arrangements of A.C. Moore's principal executive and financial officers. The Board has delegated to the Compensation Committee the authority to approve the compensation for all other executive officers.

Generally, the Compensation Committee reviews the annual incentive plan and long-term incentive programs for management annually at its first meeting of the year. Following the end of each fiscal year, the Compensation Committee reviews performance relative to goals set at the beginning of such year as part of determining any bonus to be approved and paid for that year. Base salaries for named executive officers are generally reviewed in May of each year.

The Compensation Committee meets at least five times per year, typically with two meetings during the first fiscal quarter and then one meeting during each of the following fiscal quarters. Additional meetings are held periodically throughout the year as needed to consider specific compensation matters or to gain relevant information and context for determining overall executive compensation.

Role of Management

Compensation for the named executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer is based on recommendations to the Compensation Committee by the Chief Executive Officer and other members of management, as appropriate. The Compensation Committee considers these recommendations based on individual responsibility, experience and overall performance.

Table of ContentsUse of Independent Outside Compensation Consultants

In April 2010, the Compensation Committee retained Towers Watson, an independent outside compensation consultant, to assist it in a review of compensation arrangements for the named executive officers at that time (Messrs. Jeffries, Stern and Abelman and Ms. Rhoades) and to provide insight on best practices and trends in executive compensation. In addition, Towers Watson assisted the Compensation Committee and management in reviewing and updating A.C. Moore's peer group of companies for benchmarking purposes. Towers Watson then provided the Compensation Committee with market data for comparable positions within this peer group of companies. Towers Watson also reviewed and made recommendations on the compensation and employment terms for Mr. Jeffries in connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer in June 2010.

In 2009, Hay Group, an independent outside compensation consultant, assisted the Compensation Committee and the Board in connection with the amendment to the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan which, following approval by shareholders in August 2009, increased the number of shares available for issuance under the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan. In 2007, the Compensation Committee also approved the retention of Hay Group to assist in evaluating and developing an executive compensation program for A.C. Moore, including, but not limited to, the Annual Incentive Plan and 2007 Stock Incentive Plan. Hay Group worked with the Compensation Committee and management in 2007 to provide guidance concerning best practices and trends in executive compensation, analyze A.C. Moore's programs based on retail market data. In 2008, Hay Group provided retail market data to management and the Committee relating to salary and long-term incentive grant levels.

Benchmarking and Competitive Data

A.C. Moore believes that to attract and retain qualified management, pay levels (including base salary and annual and long-term incentive compensation) should be targeted at the 50th percentile or median of pay levels of comparable positions at comparable companies in the market. Actual compensation may vary from these targets based on several factors, including individual performance, experience, roles and responsibilities and A.C. Moore performance. The Compensation Committee believes the terms of compensation for the current executive officers and arrangements with such executive officers are consistent with the practices of other similarly situated retailers.

Retail market data is used, in part, to set compensation for the executive officers, but it is not the sole point of reference. Total compensation of executive officers is determined after reviewing the executive's and Company performance, long-term potential, responsibilities and experience within the context of the market data. In addition to these factors, A.C. Moore also considers internal pay equity within the executive group. In this regard, we rely on information generated by our Human Resources department as well as information prepared from time to time by outside consultants.

As discussed above, in 2010, with the assistance of Towers Watson, the Committee and management updated A.C. Moore's peer group of companies. The peer group was developed based on companies with comparable annual revenue or classification as specialty retailers that might compete with A.C. Moore for either customers or executive talent. The peer group as updated in 2010 consisted of the following companies:

America's Car Mart Inc.	Destination Maternity Corporation	Marinemax Inc.
Bebe Stores, Inc.	Gander Mountain Co.	Monroe Muffler Brake Inc.
Big 5 Sporting Goods Corp.	Golfsmith International Holdings Inc.	Perfumania Holdings, Inc.
Books-A-Million Inc.	Hancock Fabrics Inc.	Select Comfort Corporation
Buckle Inc.	Hastings Entertainment Inc.	Shoe Carnival Inc.
Build-a-Bear Workshop Inc.	Haverty Furniture Companies Inc.	Sport Chalet Inc.
Casual Male Retail Group, Inc.	Hibbett Sports, Inc.

		Trans World Entertainment Corporation
Cato Corp.	Hot Topic Inc.	Ulta Salon Cosmetics & Fragrance, Inc.
Christopher & Banks Corporation	Jos. A. Banks Clothiers Inc.	Vitamin Shoppe, Inc.
Citi Trends	Kirkland's Inc.	West Marine, Inc.
Conns Inc.	Lumber Liquidators Holdings, Inc.	Wet Seal Inc.
		Zumiez, Inc.

Table of Contents

Based on a review of survey data for the companies in the peer group as compared to compensation for the then current named executive officers, the compensation for each of Mr. Stern and Mr. Abelman was within the competitive range versus the market median. The compensation for each of Mr. Jeffries and Ms. Rhoades was below the competitive range versus the market median.

Components of Compensation

In line with our philosophy, A.C. Moore provides a compensation program with both fixed and variable components. Fixed compensation, which consists of base salary, is designed to attract and retain executive talent. Variable compensation, which consists of annual and long-term incentive programs, delivers potential awards to executives which are designed to motivate performance.

The Committee believes that the balance of payment forms serve to substantially reduce the possibility that the compensation process could provide incentive to undertake imprudent risk. Performance is tied to attainment of specific objectives that the Committee believes will optimize achievement of A.C. Moore's overall business and financial plan but without promoting undue risk.

A.C. Moore and the named executive officers have also entered into agreements that contain compensation, severance and change-in-control provisions. A.C. Moore believes these agreements reflect market practice at the time they were signed or amended. In addition to the agreements with Mr. Jeffries and Mr. Schriver referenced above under Recent Developments and Compensation Actions in 2010, on March 16, 2010, A.C. Moore entered into Amendment One to Mr. Abelman's agreement. On March 29, 2011, A.C. Moore entered into Amendment Two to Mr. Abelman's agreement and Amendment Three to Ms. Rhoades' agreement. These agreements are discussed below under Agreements with Named Executive Officers.

Base Salary. Base salaries are a significant element of compensation and provide executives with a base level of income. In determining base pay, the Compensation Committee considers multiple factors, including the executive's responsibilities, individual performance against pre-determined objectives, base salary competitiveness as compared to the external market, internal equity and A.C. Moore's financial and operating performance. The Compensation Committee does not use a specific formula for evaluating named executive officers. Named executive officers are assessed primarily by the Chief Executive Officer based upon how they contributed to A.C. Moore's business in their areas of responsibility.

Table of Contents

In fiscal 2010, the named executive officers received base salary increases as described below:

Mr. Jeffries' base salary increased from $307,700 to $475,000 in connection with his appointment in June 2010 as Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Stern's base salary increased from $275,000 to $330,000 in connection with his appointment in August 2010 as Chief Administrative Officer in addition to continuing to serve as Chief Financial Officer. The monthly stipend of $5,000, less applicable tax and withholdings, to offset travel and housing expenses approved in March 2010 for Mr. Abelman was eliminated in August 2010 and converted to a corresponding increase in his base salary. As a result, Mr. Abelman's annual base salary was increased from $300,000 to $360,000.

Ms. Rhoades' base salary was increased from $195,000 to $210,000 in April 2010.

Mr. Schriver's base salary was increased from $190,500 to $205,500 in connection with his appointment in August 2010 as Chief Accounting Officer.

Annual Incentives. Annual cash bonuses under the Annual Incentive Plan, which was previously approved by shareholders in 2007, are intended to reward performance during the year, and therefore, can be highly variable from year to year. The performance goals are based on A.C. Moore's budget and operating plan approved by the Board. The plan has a minimum level of achievement below which no bonuses may be paid as well as a maximum level that limits annual bonus payouts. Award levels generally reflect the median of the competitive market with the opportunity to earn more or less depending on actual performance of A.C. Moore or individual performance.

The Compensation Committee may make negative adjustments to reduce a potential award in whole or in part based on assessment of individual performance by an executive against established objectives. The Compensation Committee and the Board also have the authority to award discretionary cash bonuses in addition to annual incentive awards, if in their judgment, there has been exceptional performance by an executive officer which has contributed to the overall operating results of A.C. Moore. The Board believes that the potential for such awards will help to motivate the executive officers and minimize retention risk.

In March 2010, the Compensation Committee and the Board approved the annual incentive plan for performance in 2010. The Board and the Compensation Committee established net cash provided by operating activities (referred to as net operating cash) as the key metric for the 2010 annual incentive plan based on the importance of this measure to A.C. Moore's financial and operating plan. The 2010 annual incentive plan did not provide for any bonus payout upon achievement of the net operating cash amount contained in the Company's 2010 financial plan as approved by the Board. Target level for payout under the 2010 annual incentive plan required performance that exceeded the 2010 financial plan for net operating cash. If the Company achieved an additional $3.3 million of net operating cash in excess of the amount set forth in the 2010 financial plan, the named executive officers were entitled to receive payouts as follows: Mr. Jeffries, Mr. Stern and Mr. Abelman - 50 percent of base salary; Ms. Rhoades - 40 percent of base salary; and Mr. Schriver - 30 percent of base salary. For maximum payout under the 2010 annual incentive plan, the Company was required to achieve an additional $3.3 million of net operating cash plus pre-tax income. At maximum, provided these net operating cash and pre-tax income goals were met, the cash incentive amount that each named executive officer was entitled to receive doubled. However, as the Company did not achieve for fiscal 2010 the metrics required for payout, no named executive officer received a cash annual incentive bonus.

Long-Term Equity Incentives. Long-term incentive equity awards are granted to executives under the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, previously approved by shareholders. The Chief Executive Officer and other members of management, as appropriate, recommend to the Compensation Committee the actual grants for approval based on performance potential and market data. The named executive officers and other members of management participate in this process in order to provide insight into performance of individuals over whom they have supervision and adjust the size of the grant accordingly. The Compensation Committee or the Board approves these grants. When approving the the grants, the Compensation Committee takes into consideration individual and A.C. Moore performance, both within the context of market practices. As with other elements of compensation, A.C. Moore targets the median of the market with regard to the size of long-term equity grants.

A.C. Moore believes the Stock Incentive Plan, approved by A.C. Moore's shareholders in June 2007, provides flexibility in granting awards through a variety of equity vehicles. The Stock Incentive Plan permits grants of appreciation only vehicles (such as stock options or stock appreciation rights (SARs)), full value vehicles (such as restricted stock or restricted stock units) and performance-based awards (such as performance shares or performance vested restricted stock). A.C. Moore intends that the types of equity awards granted, vesting schedules and the mix of equity vehicles used under the Stock Incentive Plan will directly support the objectives of A.C. Moore's compensation program. In addition, in reaching the decision as to what types of equity will be awarded under the Stock Incentive Plan, the Compensation Committee evaluates, among other considerations, industry long-term incentive practices and changes to the required accounting and tax treatment of equity awards. Awards may also be granted at the time of a special event, such as upon employment, or at the Compensation Committee's discretion.

Prior to 2007, A.C. Moore relied on stock options as its primary long-term equity vehicle through grants under the 1997 and 2002 Plans. Option exercise prices are at the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant. Since 2007, long-term incentive equity grants to the named executive officers have generally consisted of a mix of performance accelerated restricted stock (PARS) and stock-settled SARs. The PARS either vest in installments over time or upon the Company's achievement of certain financial performance targets based on the Company's financial plan. The SARs generally vest in equal annual installments have a base price at the fair market value of our common stock at the date of grant.

In March 2010, the named executive officers received a grant of PARS and stock-settled SARs as the 2010 long-term incentive opportunity. The PARS vest in three equal annual installments or upon the Company's achievement of certain financial performance targets. The SARs vest in three equal annual installments, have a base price equal to the NASDAQ closing price per share on the grant date and have a seven-year term. Mr. Jeffries also received a grant of SARs in connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer. The SARs granted to Mr. Jeffries have a base price of $1.96 (the NASDAQ closing price per share on August 19, 2010, the grant date), vest in full in one installment on August 19, 2013 and have a seven-year term.

In December 2010, Messrs. Jeffries, Stern and Abelman and Ms. Rhoades received equity grants for the purpose of retention, as described below under December 2010 Retention Award. On February 9, 2011, Mr. Schriver received a grant of 6,000 PARS and 18,000 stock-settled SARs in conjunction with equity grants to other employees as the 2011 long-term incentive opportunity. The PARS granted to Mr. Schriver vest in three equal annual installments or upon the Company's achievement of certain financial performance targets. The SARs granted to Mr. Schriver vest in three equal annual installments, have a base price equal to $2.46 (the NASDAQ closing price per share on the grant date) and have a seven-year term. In light of the December 2010 retention grants, Messrs. Jeffries, Stern and Abelman and Ms. Rhoades did not receive equity grants in February 2011 in conjunction with grants to other employees.

December 2010 Retention Award

As indicated above, on December 14, 2010, the Board approved retention awards for the Company's senior officers to ensure that they are aligned with shareholders' interests by limiting retention risk.

Mr. Jeffries was granted 125,000 shares of PARS which vest in three equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant or upon the Company's achievement of certain financial performance targets.

Mr. Abelman, Mr. Stern and Ms. Rhoades will each receive a cash award on December 31, 2011 equal to 55% of base salary, contingent on continuous full-time employment with the Company and continuing to meet performance expectations (as set forth in a cash award agreement). The amount of the award for each of these officers is:

Mr. Abelman $198,000; Mr. Stern $181,500; and Ms. Rhoades $115,500. The award vests automatically and is payable earlier than December 31, 2011 upon a change in control (as defined in the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan).

Each of Mr. Abelman and Mr. Stern were granted 50,000 PARS and 75,000 stock-settled SARs. Ms. Rhoades was granted 25,000 PARS and 50,000 SARs. The PARS vest in three equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant or upon the Company's achievement of certain financial performance targets. The SARs vest in three equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant, have an exercise price of $2.07 (the NASDAQ closing price on December 14, 2010, the date of grant) and have a seven-year term. All equity grants were made under the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan which provides for automatic vesting and exercisability upon a change in control.

March 2008 Retention Award

On March 31, 2008, the Board entered into special cash retention award agreements with certain employees which vested over a period of 22 months, contingent upon continuous employment with A.C. Moore and meeting performance expectations. The total award was equal to 100 percent of the employee's then current base salary, with 25 percent of the amount vesting on each of September 30, 2008 and June 30, 2009 and the balance of the award vesting on January 31, 2010. The special retention award agreement also provided for automatic vesting on a change in control (as defined in the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan).

The total amounts of the 2008 special retention award during the 22-month period, subject to the vesting requirements set forth above, for the following current executive officers were: Mr. Jeffries $280,000; Ms. Rhoades $179,580; and Mr. Schriver $155,000. Rick A. Lepley, A.C. Moore's former Chief Executive Officer, was entitled to receive $550,000. Each of these current and former officers was paid the last portion of this award on January 31, 2010, consistent with the award agreements entered into in March 2008.

Review of Accounting and Tax Impact of Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee takes into account the estimated accounting and tax impact of the executive compensation program and discusses such matters periodically during the year. In general, the policy of A.C. Moore and the Compensation Committee is to optimize the tax deductibility of executive compensation so long as deductibility is consistent with the objectives of executive compensation. The Compensation Committee has been advised that, based on current interpretations, awards under the 1997 Employee, Director and Consultant Stock Option Plan (referred to as the 1997 Plan), the 2002 Stock Option Plan (referred to as the 2002 Plan), the Stock Incentive Plan and the Annual Incentive Plan, should satisfy the requirements for performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (referred to as the Code). The Compensation Committee has also been advised that restricted stock awards which vest based on continued employment with A.C. Moore do not qualify as performance-based compensation, and so may not be tax-deductible under Code Section 162(m), unless the number of the restricted stock awards to be granted is based on the satisfaction of performance criteria.

Retirement Plan and Other Benefits

The Chief Executive Officer and other named executive officers are eligible to participate in the same retirement and health, insurance and other benefits plans offered to other employees of A.C. Moore. There are no retirement, health and insurance or other benefit plans provided to named executive officers in which other A.C. Moore associates are not eligible to participate.

A.C. Moore sponsors a 401(k) retirement plan for salaried and hourly employees. The 401(k) plan is a tax-qualified, defined contribution plan under which fixed contributions are made to the account of each participating employee each year. Under the 401(k) plan, a matching contribution is made in the amount of 25% of the first 6% of eligible compensation to a maximum of $1,500 so long as an employee has reached 21 years of age and has three months of service. Participating employees may direct the investment of A.C. Moore matching and individual contributions into one or more of the investment options offered by the 401(k) plan. A.C. Moore believes that its employee benefit plans, including the 401(k) plan and health and life insurance plans, are of the type commonly offered by other employers. In light of economic conditions and overall Company performance, A.C. Moore determined to suspend the 401(k) plan matching contribution for the fiscal years ended January 2, 2010 and January 1, 2011. This decision will be reevaluated at the end of fiscal 2011.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

Consistent with its executive compensation philosophy and the principle of aligning executive and shareholder interests, A.C. Moore believes officers should retain minimum ownership levels of A.C. Moore's Common Stock. Upon recommendation of an independent outside compensation consultant, the following stock ownership guidelines were established by the Board in April 2007.

Executive	Ownership Multiple of Base Salary

Chief Executive Officer	Three (3) times

All Other Officers at the Vice President level and above	One (1) times

The Chief Executive Officer was expected to comply with these ownership requirements by the end of a five-year period beginning in 2007. A five-year compliance period for all other officers at the Vice President level and above began in 2008. Shares that are counted for purposes of satisfying ownership requirements are shares directly and indirectly owned, grants and awards under equity incentive plans (such as vested and unvested restricted stock), and shares held in the officer's account under A.C. Moore's 401(k) plan. Stock options and SARs do not count towards satisfaction of the ownership requirements.

Equity Incentive Plans

Old Plans

A.C. Moore's stock option plans consist of the 2002 Plan and the 1997 Plan (referred to together as the "Old Plans"). The purpose of the Old Plans was to encourage ownership of A.C. Moore's Common Stock by employees and directors of A.C. Moore (and by certain consultants in the case of the 1997 Plan) in order to attract such persons, induce them to work for the benefit of A.C. Moore and provide additional incentive for them to promote the success of A.C. Moore. Options granted under each plan were either incentive stock options intended to qualify under Section 422 of the Code, or options not intended to so qualify, except that incentive stock options could only be granted to employees. The maximum total number of shares of A.C. Moore's Common Stock for which awards could be granted under the 2002 Plan and 1997 Plan is 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 shares, respectively, subject to adjustment in a manner determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board to reflect changes in A.C. Moore's Common Stock. Payment of the exercise price for options granted under the Old Plans may be made in cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination of both. All options granted pursuant to the Plans are exercisable in accordance with a vesting schedule and prior to an expiration date, each of which were set at the time of the issuance of the option.

All directors, officers and key employees (and certain consultants in the case of the 1997 Plan) were eligible to receive options under the Old Plans. The Old Plans are administered by the Compensation Committee or, at the option of the Board, the Board may administer the Old Plans. The Compensation Committee approved the optionees and determined the nature of the option granted, the number of shares subject to each option, the option vesting schedule and other terms and conditions of each option. The Compensation Committee could modify or amend each Plan, provided that without the consent of the participant, such action could not affect a participant's rights under previously granted options. With the consent of a participant, the Compensation Committee may amend outstanding options in a manner not inconsistent with the applicable Plan.

The Stock Incentive Plan described below effectively replaced the Old Plans and no further grants or awards are made under the Old Plans. All grants and awards are made under the shareholder-approved Stock Incentive Plan. The Old Plans will continue in effect until their respective expiration dates for the limited purpose of administering such plans.

Stock Incentive Plan

On June 7, 2007, A.C. Moore's shareholders approved the Stock Incentive Plan. The purpose of the Stock Incentive Plan is to provide incentives to attract, retain, motivate and reward non-employee directors, executive officers and other key employees of A.C. Moore by providing opportunities to receive shares of Common Stock or to receive monetary payments based on the value of such shares. The Stock Incentive Plan is intended to assist in further aligning the interests of participants in the Stock Incentive Plan with those of A.C. Moore's shareholders. On August 20, 2009, A.C. Moore's shareholders approved an amendment to the Stock Incentive Plan to increase the authorized number of shares and adopt provisions designed to reflect corporate governance best practices related to share counting, a fungible share limit, a seven-year limit on the term of any stock option of SAR granted and clarifying that a change in control under the Stock Incentive Plan will not be triggered unless the change in control has been consummated.

Table of Contents

The following types of awards or any combination of them may be granted under the Stock Incentive Plan: (i) stock options (both incentive stock options and non-qualified options) to receive shares of Common Stock; (ii) stock appreciation rights, which entitle the grantee to receive an amount in cash, shares of Common Stock, or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock, determined by reference to appreciation in Common Stock value; (iii) stock awards, which entitle the grantee to receive shares of Common Stock which may be subject to certain restrictions such as restrictions on transferability; (iv) performance awards, which entitle the grantee to receive, without payment, an award following the attainment of performance goals; and (v) stock units, which entitle the grantee to receive an amount in cash or, if the grantee and the Compensation Committee so agree, in shares of Common Stock or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock, with or without other payments by the grantee, as may be determined by the Compensation Committee (each as described above is referred to as an Award and collectively, the Awards). In addition, other forms of awards valued in whole or in part by reference to A.C. Moore's Common Stock may be granted either alone or in addition to the foregoing Awards. Each Award is subject to such terms and conditions consistent with the Stock Incentive Plan, as determined by the Compensation Committee and as set forth in an Award agreement.

All non-employee directors, executive officers and other key employees of A.C. Moore or any of its affiliates who are significantly responsible for the success and future growth and profitability of A.C. Moore, as determined by the Compensation Committee, are eligible to be participants in the Stock Incentive Plan. The Stock Incentive Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee. Under the Stock Incentive Plan, the Compensation Committee has the power to interpret the Stock Incentive Plan and to adopt such rules and regulations as it considers necessary for purposes of administering the Stock Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee is authorized to grant Awards to the participants in the Stock Incentive Plan and to determine the number and types of such Awards and the terms, conditions and limitations applicable to each such Award. The Compensation Committee may delegate its powers and authority under the Stock Incentive Plan to designated officers or employees of A.C. Moore. In addition, the independent members of the full Board may exercise any of the powers and authority of the Compensation Committee under the Stock Incentive Plan.

The aggregate number of shares of Common Stock that may be subject to Awards to be granted under the Stock Incentive Plan is 5,100,000 shares, subject to adjustments for stock splits, recapitalizations and other specified events. This share reserve will be increased by a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the number of shares of Common Stock that are issuable pursuant to option grants (referred to as the Existing Options) outstanding under the Old Plans as of the effective date of the Stock Incentive Plan that but for the suspension of the Old Plans would otherwise have reverted to the share reserve of the Old Plans, as applicable, as a result of the expiration, termination, cancellation or forfeiture of such Existing Options.

Annual Incentive Plan

A.C. Moore's success depends, in large measure, on its ability to attract and reward talented employees with outstanding abilities and experience. To achieve this objective, the Board adopted the Annual Incentive Plan as a tool to attract and provide additional motivation to key employees to use their best efforts in performing their respective duties and obligations at A.C. Moore.

All present and future employees, including executive officers, of A.C. Moore will be eligible to receive awards under the Annual Incentive Plan. Participants in the Annual Incentive Plan will be selected, from time to time, by the Compensation Committee among such employees. The Annual Incentive Plan generally is administered by the Compensation Committee comprised of not less than two members who each qualifies as an outside director within the meaning of Code Section 162(m) and the regulations thereunder. The Compensation Committee has general authority to impose any limitation or condition upon an award the Compensation Committee deems appropriate to achieve the objectives of the award and the Annual Incentive Plan.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee has the power and complete discretion to determine which employees will receive an award and the nature of the award, (ii) the amount of each award, (iii) the time or times when an award will be granted, (iv) whether a disability exists, (v) the terms and conditions applicable to awards, and (vi) any additional requirements relating to awards that the Compensation Committee deems appropriate.

The Compensation Committee will be entitled to make non-uniform and selective determinations and to establish non-uniform and selective performance criteria, performance goals and the weightings thereof.

Agreements with Named Executive Officers

We have entered into agreements, which include change of control provisions, with our current executive officers. In fiscal 2010, we entered into an amended and restated employment letter with each of Mr. Jeffries and Mr. Schriver, and an amendment to the agreement with Mr. Abelman. In March 2010, we entered into an agreement and release with Mr. Lepley in connection with his retirement and a special award agreement with Mr. Jeffries. Subsequent to year-end fiscal 2010, in March 2011 we entered into amendments to the agreements with Mr. Abelman and Ms. Rhoades.

The agreements with the named executive officers provide enhanced payments and benefits in the event of a change of control. The basic rationale for this change of control protection is to diminish the potential distraction due to personal uncertainties and risks that inevitably arise when a change of control is threatened or pending. The termination benefits payable in connection with a change of control generally require a double trigger, which means that after a change of control (the first trigger) a covered executive's employment is either involuntarily terminated without cause or the executive resigns for good reason (as both terms are defined in the relevant agreement), either of which would constitute the second trigger. A double trigger was selected to increase the likelihood that an executive would remain with A.C. Moore after a change of control. The definition of change in control contained in each named executive officer's agreement is consistent with the definition of change in control contained in the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended.

The agreements have a single trigger approach with regard to equity grants held on the date of a change in control, which means that all grants held on such date immediately vest and become exercisable, as applicable, upon a change in control. In addition, the Stock Incentive Plan contains a single trigger approach with regard to vesting of awards. The Annual Incentive Plan permits the Board, in its discretion, to accelerate vesting and payouts in the event of a change in control. In addition, as described above, the December 2010 special cash award agreements with Messrs. Stern and Abelman and Ms. Rhoades provide for automatic vesting and payment upon a change in control. The material terms of these agreements are described below.

Agreement with Joseph A. Jeffries, Chief Executive Officer

On November 28, 2007, A.C. Moore entered into an employment letter with Joseph A. Jeffries to serve as A.C. Moore's Executive Vice President of Operations. On August 6, 2008, A.C. Moore and Mr. Jeffries entered into the first amendment to his employment letter. Pursuant to the amendment, Mr. Jeffries' title was changed from Executive Vice President of Operations to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. In addition, the amendment provided for an automatic one-year term from the date of a change of control (as defined in the amendment), during which Mr. Jeffries was guaranteed a base salary equal to 12 times his highest monthly base salary during the 12-months preceding the change of control, as well as an annual cash bonus at least equal to the amount received for the last full calendar year. If A.C. Moore terminated his employment other than for cause, death or disability or Mr. Jeffries terminates for good reason, Mr. Jeffries was entitled to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to the aggregate of base salary through the date of termination, pro rata bonus and twelve months of base salary. Mr. Jeffries was also entitled to receive insurance benefits during this period. For termination due to death or disability, he or his estate is entitled to receive a cash lump sum payment equal to the aggregate of his base salary through the date of death or disability and his pro rata bonus. If A.C. Moore terminated for cause or Mr. Jeffries terminated without good reason following a change of control, he was entitled to base salary through the date of termination. The amendment provided that Mr. Jeffries' options, SARs and restricted stock vest immediately upon a change of control. If Mr. Jeffries' employment is terminated without cause following a change in control, he will have until the earlier of the original option or SAR term or 18 months after the termination date to exercise the options or SARs.

On August 10, 2009, A.C. Moore entered into an amended and restated employment letter with Mr. Jeffries. Under the August 10, 2009 agreement, if A.C. Moore terminated Mr. Jeffries' employment without cause prior to a change in control, he was entitled to receive base salary and insurance benefits through the sixth-month anniversary of the termination date plus pro rata bonus (as defined in the agreement). In the event Mr. Jeffries remained unemployed after six months from his termination date, he was entitled to receive an additional month of severance and insurance benefits for each month he remained unemployed, up to a maximum of six additional months.

On August 19, 2010, A.C. Moore entered into an amended and restated employment letter with Mr. Jeffries in connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer on June 17, 2010. The changes contained in the August 19, 2010 agreement are described below. Pursuant to this agreement, on August 19, 2010, Mr. Jeffries was granted 150,000 stock-settled stock appreciation rights. The restated agreement also provides for payments to be made to Mr. Jeffries upon certain termination events. Upon termination without cause, Mr. Jeffries receives: (i) 18 months of salary at his then current rate, paid in 18 equal monthly installments; (ii) the sum of the actual incentive bonus paid to him in the prior two fiscal years multiplied by .75, paid in 18 equal monthly installments; and (iii) health insurance benefits for 18 months following termination. Upon termination without cause or resignation for good reason during the 18-month period following a change in control, Mr. Jeffries receives the same payments and benefits described above, plus pro rata annual incentive bonus, calculated as if target were achieved during the year of termination. The August 19, 2010 agreement also extended Mr. Jeffries' non-competition and non-solicitation obligations from 12 months (as set forth in his original agreement) to 18 months following termination of employment. During this 18-month period, Mr. Jeffries may not compete with, solicit employees from or interfere with business relationships of A.C. Moore. The non-competition provision prohibits Mr. Jeffries from engaging in any business competing with A.C. Moore's business as such business exists or is in process on the date of the termination of Mr. Jeffries' employment, within any geographical area in which A.C. Moore engages or actively plans to engage in such business. Mr. Jeffries is also subject to restrictive covenants relating to confidentiality.

Special Award Agreement with Mr. Jeffries

On March 29, 2010, in connection with Mr. Jeffries' appointment as Acting Chief Executive Officer effective March 31, 2010, A.C. Moore entered into a special award agreement with Mr. Jeffries pursuant to which he received a cash lump sum payment of $75,000 on September 30, 2010. His right to receive the award was contingent on continuous full-time employment with A.C. Moore and continuing to meet performance expectations under A.C. Moore's internal review process, each through September 30, 2010. The award agreement provided for automatic vesting of the award on a change in control (as defined in the Stock Incentive Plan).

Agreement with David Stern, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

On May 13, 2009, A.C. Moore entered into an employment letter with David Stern to serve as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Pursuant to his employment letter, on June 8, 2009, his start date, Mr. Stern received a cash sign-on lump sum retention bonus of $75,000. Mr. Stern also received various relocation benefits, including without limitation, reimbursement for real estate commission and closing costs and temporary housing and travel expenses for the 120-day period following his start date. Mr. Stern earns one-twenty fourth of the sign-on bonus and relocation benefit amounts for each month that he remains employed by the Company. If A.C. Moore terminates his employment for cause (as defined in the employment letter), Mr. Stern must repay the unearned portions of the sign-on bonus and the relocation benefits. If Mr. Stern terminates his employment for good reason (as defined in the agreement), he will be deemed to have earned 100 percent of the sign-on bonus and the relocation benefits.

If A.C. Moore terminates his employment without cause, Mr. Stern is entitled to receive base salary and insurance benefits through the sixth-month anniversary of the termination date plus pro rata bonus (as defined in the agreement). In the event Mr. Stern remains unemployed after six months from his termination date, he will receive an additional month of severance and insurance benefits for each month he remains unemployed, up to a maximum of six additional months. Mr. Stern is required to actively seek employment after the termination date in order to receive the additional monthly severance.

The agreement provides for an automatic one-year term from the date of a change of control (as defined in the letter agreement), during which Mr. Stern is guaranteed a base salary equal to 12 times his highest monthly base salary during the 12 months preceding the change of control, as well as an annual cash bonus at least equal to the amount received for the last full calendar year. If A.C. Moore terminates his employment other than for cause, death or disability or Mr. Stern terminates for good reason, Mr. Stern is entitled to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to the aggregate of base salary through the date of termination, pro rata bonus and twelve months of base salary.

Mr. Stern will also receive insurance benefits during this period. For termination due to death or disability, he or his estate will receive a cash lump sum payment equal to the aggregate of his base salary through the date of death or disability and his pro rata bonus. If A.C. Moore terminates his employment for cause or Mr. Stern terminates without good reason following a change of control, he is entitled to base salary through the date of termination. The agreement provides that Mr. Stern's options, stock appreciation rights and restricted stock vest immediately upon a change of control. If Mr. Stern's employment is terminated without cause following a change in control, he will have until the earlier of the original option or stock appreciation right term or 18 months after the termination date to exercise the options or stock appreciation rights.

Mr. Stern's agreement contains restrictive covenants relating to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation that are substantively the same as those described above for Mr. Jeffries, except that the non-competition and non-solicitation prohibition is for 12 months following the termination of his employment.

Special Award Agreement with Mr. Stern

On November 24, 2009, A.C. Moore entered into a special award agreement with Mr. Stern pursuant to which A.C. Moore paid him a cash retention award in the amount of $125,000. Mr. Stern earned one-twelfth of the award for each month (or portion of the month) after receipt that he remained employed by A.C. Moore. If A.C. Moore terminated Mr. Stern's employment for cause or he terminated his employment without good reason (each as defined in the agreement dated May 13, 2009), he was obligated to repay the unearned portions of the award. If A.C. Moore terminated Mr. Stern's employment without cause or he terminated his employment for good reason, Mr. Stern would have been deemed to have earned one-hundred percent of the award.

Agreement with David Abelman, Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing and Merchandising Officer

On May 7, 2009, A.C. Moore entered into an employment letter with David Abelman to serve as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing and Merchandising Officer. His start date with the Company was May 7, 2009. On the start date, Mr. Abelman received a cash sign-on lump sum retention bonus of $200,000. Mr. Abelman also received various relocation benefits, including without limitation, reimbursement for real estate commission and closing costs and temporary housing and travel expenses for the 120-day period following his start date. Mr. Abelman earns one-twenty fourth of this sign-on bonus and relocation benefits for each month that he remains employed by the Company. If A.C. Moore terminates his employment for cause (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Abelman must repay the unearned portions of the sign-on bonus and relocation benefits. If Mr. Abelman terminates his employment for good reason (as defined in the agreement), he will be deemed to have earned 100 percent of the sign-on bonus and relocation benefits.

The termination and change of control provisions in Mr. Abelman's agreement are identical to those in Mr. Stern's agreements.

Mr. Abelman's agreement contains restrictive covenants relating to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation that are the same as those described above for Mr. Stern.

On March 16, 2010, A.C. Moore entered into Amendment One to Mr. Abelman's agreement. The amendment extended the time during which A.C. Moore would reimburse Mr. Abelman for relocation costs from September 2010 to March 2011. In addition, this amendment provided that through the earlier of March 16, 2011 or such date on which Mr. Abelman's family relocates, A.C. Moore paid him $5,000 per month, less applicable tax and withholdings, to offset housing and travel expenses. On August 26, 2010, the monthly stipend was eliminated and converted to an increase in Mr. Abelman's base salary of $5,000 per month. As a result, Mr. Abelman's annual base salary was increased from $300,000 to $360,000. On March 29, 2011, A.C. Moore and Mr. Abelman entered into Amendment Two to his agreement, which provided that A.C. Moore's obligation to pay Mr. Abelman relocation benefits under his original agreement was satisfied in full.

Agreement with Amy Rhoades, Senior Vice President and General Counsel

On July 24, 2006, A.C. Moore entered into an employment agreement with Amy Rhoades to serve as Vice President and General Counsel. She was appointed Senior Vice President and General Counsel on November 10, 2009.

Ms. Rhoades' agreement was amended on November 15, 2006 and November 19, 2007. Ms. Rhoades' agreement has an initial term of one year to be extended automatically for successive one year terms, unless either party provides written notice of termination at least 60 days prior to the end of the term.

If A.C. Moore terminates her employment without cause (as defined in the agreement) or Ms. Rhoades terminates for good reason (as defined in the agreement) or there is a non-renewal of the employment agreement, Ms. Rhoades is entitled to receive base salary, pro rata bonus and vested and earned but unpaid amounts under A.C. Moore's incentive plans through the twelfth-month anniversary of the termination date. If A.C. Moore terminates her employment for cause or Ms. Rhoades terminates without good reason, Ms. Rhoades is entitled to receive base salary through the termination date. If termination occurs due to death or disability, Ms. Rhoades or her estate will be entitled to receive the sum of her base salary through the termination date, her pro rata annual bonus and vested and earned but unpaid amounts under incentive plans and other programs. On March 29, 2011, Ms. Rhoades' agreement was amended to provide that in the event of termination without cause, resignation for good reason or non-renewal prior to a change in control, she will also receive reimbursement for health insurance benefits concurrent with severance payments. The change of control provisions in Ms. Rhoades' agreement are identical to those contained in the agreements of Messrs. Stern and Abelman.

Ms. Rhoades' agreement contains restrictive covenants relating to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation that are substantively the same as those described above for Messrs. Stern and Mr. Abelman.

Agreement with Rodney Schriver, Vice President, Chief Accounting Officer and Controller

On December 6, 2010, A.C. Moore entered into an employment letter with Rodney Schriver, Vice President, Chief Accounting Officer, Controller and Treasurer. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Schriver receives a base salary of $205,500 per year and is eligible to participate in A.C. Moore's annual and long-term incentive plans. On October 5, 2011, Mr. Schriver will be entitled to receive a special cash retention award equal to 45 percent of his base salary, or $92,497.50, less tax and withholdings. If A.C. Moore terminates his employment without cause (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Schriver is entitled to receive base salary through the sixth-month anniversary of the termination date. In the event Mr. Schriver remains unemployed after six months from his termination date, he will receive an additional month of base salary for each month he remains unemployed, up to a maximum of six additional months. Mr. Schriver is required to actively seek employment after the termination date in order to receive the additional monthly severance. If he is terminated without cause in the six-month period following a change of control (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Schriver will receive a cash lump sum payment equal to six months' base salary at his then current rate.

Mr. Schriver's agreement contains restrictive covenants relating to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation that are substantively the same as those described above for Messrs. Stern and Mr. Abelman and Ms. Abelman.

Agreement with Rick A. Lepley, Former President and Chief Executive Officer

On June 1, 2006, A.C. Moore entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Lepley to serve as A.C. Moore's Chief Executive Officer effective as of June 1, 2006. The employment agreement was amended on November 15, 2006 and November 19, 2007. Mr. Lepley's employment agreement had an initial term of three years to be extended automatically for successive one year terms, unless either party provided written notice of termination at least six months prior to the end of the term. In December 2008, A.C. Moore and Mr. Lepley entered into an amendment to Mr. Lepley's agreement pursuant to which Mr. Lepley's employment as Chief Executive Officer was extended through December 31, 2010.

Mr. Lepley received an annual base salary of $550,000, which was increased to $575,000 in 2008. Pursuant to the December 2008 amendment, Mr. Lepley was granted 150,000 SARs. The December 2008 amendment also provided that if Mr. Lepley's employment was terminated without cause or for good reason (as defined in his employment agreement), if termination occurred from January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009, he would have been entitled to his then current base salary from the date of termination for the remaining months of the employment term through December 31, 2010 plus his pro rata bonus (as defined in the employment agreement) and, if termination occurred during any other time during the employment term, his base salary through the twelfth month anniversary of termination plus his pro rata bonus.

Table of Contents

Upon a change of control (as defined in his agreement), Mr. Lepley would have received an automatic two-year employment term from the date of the change of control, during which his base salary, annual bonus and other benefits are guaranteed to be at least at the level which he received in the 12 months prior to the change of control. If during this two-year term A.C. Moore terminated Mr. Lepley's employment other than for cause, death or disability or Mr. Lepley terminated for good reason, Mr. Lepley would have been entitled to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to the aggregate of his base salary through the date of termination, two times the pro rata portion of his annual bonus and two times the amount of his base salary. For termination due to death or disability following a change of control, he or his estate would have received a cash lump sum payment equal to the aggregate of his base salary through the date of death or disability and a pro rata bonus determined in the same manner as if there were no change of control. If A.C. Moore terminated for cause or Mr. Lepley terminated without good reason following a change of control, he would have been entitled to base salary through the date of termination. In addition, all options, SARs and restricted stock held by Mr. Lepley on the date of a change of control would have immediately vested and remained exercisable for different periods of time depending upon continued employment. If Mr. Lepley's employment was terminated without cause following the change of control, he would have had until the earlier of the end of the original option or SAR term and 18 months after the termination date to exercise the options and SARs. Upon a termination without cause following a change of control, all SARs and restricted stock to which Mr. Lepley would be entitled to receive would immediately be deemed granted and vested and Mr. Lepley would have had 18 months after the termination date to exercise these SARs.

If any payments to Mr. Lepley upon a change in control as described above would constitute an excess payment under Code Section 280G and be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 on such excess payments, Mr. Lepley was entitled to a tax gross-up payment of such amount that would leave him in the same tax position as if no such excise tax (including related penalties or interest) was applicable. However, in connection with a review of its executive compensation practices, in August 2009, A.C. Moore determined that, effective immediately, it will not enter into any agreements with any new executives or material amendments to existing agreements providing for excise tax gross-up provisions with respect to payments contingent upon a change in control.

Agreement and Release with Rick A. Lepley

On March 29, 2010, A.C. Moore and Mr. Lepley entered into an agreement and release (the separation agreement). Mr. Lepley's retirement as an officer and member of the Board was effective March 31, 2010. The separation agreement provides for payments by A.C. Moore to Mr. Lepley of $645,890, an amount equal to one year's compensation at his current rate plus pro rata bonus. Half of this payment was made in October 2010, with the remainder in six subsequent equal monthly installments. A.C. Moore also paid Mr. Lepley a consulting fee of $53,824 in 12 equal monthly installments. In addition, Mr. Lepley received reimbursement for health insurance benefits for 12 months following the effective date, payment of $12,000 for relocation and moving costs, and payment of $10,000 in legal fees for review of the agreement. The separation agreement amends Mr. Lepley's SARs agreement, dated December 3, 2008, to provide that all unvested SARs under the SARs agreement vested as of March 31, 2010, with the exercise period expiring on February 20, 2012. Mr. Lepley was originally granted 150,000 SARs pursuant to the SARs agreement, 50,000 of which vested on December 3, 2009.

Table of Contents

The separation agreement includes restrictive covenants relating to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation. Mr. Lepley may not compete with, solicit employees from or interfere with the business relationships of A.C. Moore for a period of 12 months following the effective date. The parties also agreed to mutual non-disparagement obligations. The separation agreement provides for Mr. Lepley's general release of A.C. Moore from claims.

Process and Procedures for Determining Director Compensation

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for determining director compensation, and may rely upon input from independent outside consultants engaged by the Board or the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, from time to time. The full Board, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, approves director compensation.

Prior to January 2008, the Compensation Committee was responsible for determining director compensation. In February 2007, the Compensation Committee asked Hay Group, the independent outside compensation consultant retained to assist the Compensation Committee in its analysis of A.C. Moore's executive compensation programs, to perform an analysis of A.C. Moore's non-employee director compensation and make recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding any changes to director compensation, including the implementation of director stock ownership guidelines. Hay Group presented data on director compensation at comparable companies in A.C. Moore's market to the Compensation Committee.

Table of Contents

In April 2010, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee retained Towers Watson, to assist it in updating its review of non-employee director compensation. Towers Watson also assisted in reviewing and updating A.C. Moore's peer group of companies used for benchmarking purposes, as discussed above under Compensation Discussion and Analysis. Based on peer group and broader industry data, A.C. Moore's director compensation program was determined to be close to the median of the relevant market. As a result of this review, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee determined that the director compensation program described below, which was originally implemented in June 2007 following shareholder approval of the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan, would remain in place.

Director Compensation

Fees. In April 2007, the Board approved the following compensation structure for non-employee directors:

- an annual cash retainer of $35,000;
- an additional annual cash retainer of $50,000 for the Chairman of the Board;
- an additional annual cash retainer of $15,000 for the chair of the Audit Committee and $10,000 for each other member of the Audit Committee;
- an additional annual cash retainer of $10,000 for the chair of the Compensation Committee and $5,000 for each other member of the Compensation Committee;
- an additional annual cash retainer of $7,500 for the chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and $5,000 for each other member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee;
- and
- an annual grant of restricted stock with a market value of approximately $50,000 on the date of grant.

Stock Ownership Guidelines for Directors. In April 2007, the Board approved the implementation of stock ownership guidelines for the non-employee directors. Requiring minimum levels of stock ownership by non-employee directors is consistent with the Board's objective of aligning director and shareholder interests.

Directors Subject to Guidelines	Ownership Multiple of Annual Cash Retainer
All Non-Employee Directors	Three (3) times
Non-employee directors are expected to comply with these ownership requirements by the end of a five-year period beginning in 2007. Shares that are counted for purposes of satisfying ownership requirements are shares directly or indirectly owned and grants and awards under equity incentive plans (such as vested and unvested restricted stock). Stock options and stock appreciation rights do not count towards satisfaction of the ownership requirements.
Stock Grant to Non-Employee Directors. Consistent with the compensation structure set forth above, on June 29, 2010, the non-employee directors were granted restricted stock with a market value of approximately $50,000 on the date of grant, or 22,422 shares. The shares vest equally over three years from the date of grant.

Moore and for the audit of A.C. Moore's internal control over financial reporting as required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, quarterly reviews, issuance of consents, and assistance with review of documents filed with the SEC.

The Audit Committee has considered and determined that the services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers are compatible with PricewaterhouseCoopers maintaining its independence.

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy that requires advance approval of all audit, audit related, tax services and other services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm. The policy provides for pre-approval by the Audit Committee of specifically defined audit and non-audit services. Unless the specific service has been previously pre-approved with respect to that year, the Audit Committee must approve the permitted service before the independent registered public accounting firm is engaged to perform it. The Audit Committee pre-approved all of the audit and non-audit services provided to A.C. Moore by PricewaterhouseCoopers in fiscal 2010 and fiscal 2009.
