ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

On January 17, 2006, Apache Corporation announced that it had agreed to purchase Pioneer Natural Resources' oil and gas operations in Argentina for a total purchase price of $675 million, subject to the exercise of third party preferential purchase rights. The full text of the press release announcing the transaction is listed under Item 9.01 as Item 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

On the same date, Apache also announced that it had completed two transactions with Amerada Hess that were first announced in October 2005. In one transaction Apache completed the sale of its 55 percent interest in the deepwater section of Egypt's West Mediterranean Concession to Amerada Hess Corporation for $413 million.

Apache also completed its purchase of Amerada Hess's interests in eight fields located in the Permian Basin of West Texas and New Mexico for $269 million. The number of properties involved in this transaction was reduced as a result of third parties exercising their preferential rights to purchase additional interests in some of the fields. The full text of the press release announcing the transaction is listed under Item 9.01 as Item 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference.
