Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 17, 2008, Introgen Therapeutics, Inc. (Introgen) received a letter from the Nasdaq Hearings Panel (the Panel) indicating that shares of Introgen common stock will be transferred from the Nasdaq Global Market to the Nasdaq Capital Market. Introgen's shares of common stock will be transferred to the Nasdaq Capital Market effective at the open of the trading session on Wednesday, November 19, 2008 and will continue its listing on that market provided that Introgen can demonstrate compliance with all continued listing requirements of the Nasdaq Capital Market by March 3, 2009.

As previously announced, Introgen has not been in compliance with Marketplace Rule 4450(b)(1)(A), requiring a minimum $50 million market value of listed securities for continued inclusion on the Nasdaq Global Market, nor with the alternative listing requirement to have at least $10,000,000 of shareholders' equity as set forth in Marketplace Rule 4450(a). In addition, Introgen has announced that it has not been in compliance with the minimum bid price requirement of $1.00 as set forth in Marketplace Rule 4450(a)(5). On October 16, 2008, Introgen had a hearing before the Panel which has determined that the listing of shares of Introgen's common stock shall be transferred to the Nasdaq Capital Market as described above and that Introgen shall promptly notify the Panel of any significant events that may occur during the exception period prior to March 3, 2009. If we cannot demonstrate compliance with all of the continued listing requirements of the Nasdaq Capital Market, including the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement, by March 3, 2009, our shares of common stock will be subject to immediate delisting.

On November 18, 2008, Introgen issued a press release announcing the receipt of the letter from the Panel and the transfer of the listing of its shares of common stock to the Nasdaq Capital Market, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference.
