Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Section 2.02(b)(4) of Chapter 156D of the Massachusetts General Laws allows a corporation to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director of a corporation to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director notwithstanding any provision of law imposing such liability, except where the director breached his or her duty of loyalty, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or knowingly violated a law, authorized the payment of an improper distribution or obtained an improper personal benefit. The Company has included a similar provision in its Restated Articles of Organization and Amended and Restated Bylaws.

Section 8.51(a) of Chapter 156D of the Massachusetts General Laws provides that a corporation may indemnify its directors against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement reasonably incurred in connection with any litigation or other legal proceeding brought against any director by virtue of his or her position as a director of the corporation unless he or she is deemed to have not acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his or her action was in the best interests of the corporation or was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. As noted below, the Company has provided for director indemnification in its Restated Articles of Organization and Amended and Restated Bylaws.

Section 8.52 of Chapter 156D of the Massachusetts General Laws provides that a corporation must indemnify a director who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because he or she was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with the proceeding.

Section 8.56(a) of Chapter 156D of the Massachusetts General Laws provides that a corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to its officers to the same extent as its directors and, for officers that are not directors, to the extent provided by (i) the articles of organization, (ii) the bylaws, (iii) a vote of the board of directors or (iv) a contract. In all instances, the extent to which a corporation provides indemnification to its officers under Section 8.56 is optional. As noted below, the Company has provided for officer indemnification in its Restated Articles of Organization and Amended and Restated Bylaws.

The Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that, except as limited by law or otherwise provided in the Amended and Restated Bylaws, each director or officer of the Company, including any person serving at the Company's request as a director, officer or trustee of another organization in which the Company has any interest as a shareholder, creditor or otherwise (and including such person's respective heirs, executors and administrators), shall be indemnified by the Company against any liability or expense incurred in connection with a proceeding in which he or she is a party because he or she is a director or officer if: (1)(i) he or she conducted himself or herself in good faith, and (ii) he or she reasonably believed that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the corporation or was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; or (2) he or she engaged in conduct for which liability has been eliminated by Article 6 of the Restated Articles of Organization.

The Company will pay sums on account of indemnification in advance of a final disposition of a proceeding upon receipt of (a) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the relevant standard of conduct or that the proceeding involves conduct for which liability has been eliminated under the Restated Articles of Organization and (b) an undertaking by the director or officer to repay such sums if it is subsequently established that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. The determination of whether a director has met the relevant standard of conduct for indemnification under the Amended and Restated Bylaws shall be made by (a) a majority vote of the disinterested directors (if there are two or more), (b) special legal counsel or (c) a vote of the shareholders (excluding the vote of any shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who is not a disinterested director).

The Amended and Restated Bylaws do not limit the power of the Board of Directors to authorize the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any director or officer against any expense whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such director or officer against such expense under the Amended and Restated Bylaws. The Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of our annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Independent Bank Corp. pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Independent Bank Corp. has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Independent Bank Corp. in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
