NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollar amounts in thousands except per share amounts)

1. Overview

Description of business

Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc. (the “Company”), through its wholly-owned subsidiary Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc., is a leading global manufacturer of body sealing, fluid handling, and noise, vibration, and harshness control (“NVH”) components, systems, subsystems, and modules, primarily for use in passenger vehicles and light trucks for global original equipment manufacturers (“OEMs”) and replacement markets. The Company conducts substantially all of its activities through its subsidiaries.

Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) for interim financial information and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K as of December 31, 2005, as filed with the SEC. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. These financial statements include all adjustments (consisting of normal, recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and results of operations of the Company. The operating results for the interim periods ended June 30, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results for the full year.

2004 Acquisition

The Company acquired the Automotive segment of Cooper Tire & Rubber Company (“Cooper Tire”) on December 23, 2004 for a cash purchase price of $1,165,000, subject to adjustment based on the amount of cash and cash equivalents less debt obligations and the difference between targeted working capital and working capital at the closing date (hereafter, the “2004 Acquisition”). Final settlement of the working capital adjustment resulted in a payment of $54,000 in April 2005. Additionally, the Company incurred approximately $24,000 of direct acquisition costs. The acquisition was funded through $318,000 of equity contributions, $200,000 of senior notes (the “Senior Notes”), $350,000 of senior subordinated notes (the “Senior Subordinated Notes”), and $350,000 of term loan facilities and a $125,000 of revolving credit facility (the “Senior Credit Facilities”).

Acquisition of FHS

On February 6, 2006, the Company completed the acquisition of the automotive fluid handling systems business of ITT Industries, Inc. (“FHS”). FHS, based in Auburn Hills, Michigan, was a leading manufacturer of steel and plastic tubing for fuel and brake lines and quick-connects, and operated 15 facilities in seven countries. FHS was acquired for $205,000, subject to an adjustment based on the difference between targeted working capital and working capital at the closing date. Such adjustment is under review by the respective parties and is expected to be settled in the third quarter of 2006. Additionally, the Company incurred approximately $5,060 of direct acquisition costs, principally for investment banking, legal, and other professional services, for a total acquisition value under purchase accounting of $210,060.

The condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company reflect the acquisition under the purchase method of accounting, in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, “Business Combinations” (“SFAS 141”).

The acquisition of FHS was funded pursuant to an amendment to the Company's Senior Credit Facilities which established a Term Loan D facility, with a notional amount of $215,000. The Term Loan D facility was structured in two tranches, with $190,000 borrowed in US dollars and €20,725 borrowed in Euros, to take into consideration the value of the European assets acquired in the transaction. The Company incurred approximately $4,800 of issuance costs associated with these borrowings, primarily for loan arrangement and syndication services, which are included in Other Assets on the condensed consolidated balance sheet. The amendment to the Senior Credit Facilities provides for interest on Term Loan D borrowings at a rate equal to an applicable margin plus a base rate established by reference to various market-based rates and amends the interest rate margins previously applicable to Term Loan B and Term Loan C borrowings to mirror those applicable to Term Loan D borrowings, which were market levels at the time the facility closed. The amendment also includes modifications to certain covenants under the Senior Credit Facilities, although the covenant threshold levels remain unchanged.

The acquisition of FHS was accounted for as a purchase business combination and accordingly, the assets purchased and liabilities assumed were included in the Company’s condensed consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2006. The operating results of FHS were included in the condensed consolidated financial statements from the date of acquisition. The following summarizes the preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the estimated fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition. This allocation may change materially in the future as additional information becomes available, such as settlement of the working capital adjustment and final third party valuations of certain assets and liabilities.

Cash and cash equivalents	$ 17
Accounts receivable, net	59,383
Inventories, net	25,694
Prepaid expenses	309
Property, plant, and equipment, net	101,409
Goodwill	46,733
Intangibles, net	26,600
Other assets	16,683
Total assets acquired	276,828
Accounts payable	26,053
Payroll liabilities	9,840
Accrued liabilities	8,773
Deferred income taxes	8,136
Other long-term liabilities	13,966
Total liabilities assumed	66,768
Net assets acquired	$ 210,060

Petty cash, accounts receivable, other current assets, accounts payable, and other current liabilities were stated at historical carrying values given the short-term nature of these assets and liabilities. Inventories were recorded at fair value. Finished goods and work-in-process inventories were valued based on expected selling price less costs to complete, selling and disposal costs, and a normal profit. Raw material inventory was recorded at carrying value as such value approximates the replacement cost. Pension obligations have been recorded in the allocation of purchase price at the projected benefit obligation less plan assets at fair market value, based on computations made by independent actuaries. Deferred income taxes have been provided in the condensed consolidated balance sheet based on the Company's estimates of the tax versus book basis of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, adjusted to estimated fair values. Property, plant, and equipment and identifiable intangible assets have been recorded at estimated fair value based on valuations prepared by independent appraisers. Restructuring reserves have been recorded based on estimated severance and other exit costs related to terminated FHS employees. As described in Note 3, management continues to review and finalize additional restructuring activities related to the acquisition of FHS. Additional reserves or costs related to these activities are anticipated as these plans are finalized.

Identifiable intangible assets consist primarily of developed technology and customer contracts and relationships. Developed technology was valued based on the royalty savings method which allocates value based on what the Company would be willing to pay as a royalty to a third-party owner of the technology or trademark in order to exploit the economic benefits. The technology that has been valued under this approach are innovative and technological advancements within our businesses. A total value of $8,600 has been allocated to developed technology and trademarks and will be amortized on a straight-line basis over six to 12 years.

Customer contracts and relationships were valued using the income approach after considering a fair return on fixed assets, working capital, technology, and assembled workforce. A preliminary value of $9,000 has been assigned to customer contracts and will be amortized on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related contracts, estimated to average approximately nine years. A preliminary value of $9,000 has been assigned to customer relationships and will be amortized on a straight-line basis over 15 to 20 years.

Management believes that the carrying values of all other assets acquired and liabilities assumed approximate their fair values.

The resulting goodwill after all identifiable intangible assets have been valued was $46,733, some of which is tax deductible. Factors that contributed to a purchase price that resulted in recognition of goodwill included FHS's leading market positions, comprehensive product lines, and geographically diverse global manufacturing and sales bases.

The following unaudited pro forma financial data summarizes the results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2006, respectively, as if the acquisition of FHS had occurred as of January 1, 2005 and 2006, respectively. Pro forma adjustments include the removal of the results of operations of certain facilities retained by ITT Industries, Inc., liquidation of inventory fair value write-up as it had occurred during the reporting periods, depreciation and amortization to reflect the fair value of property, plant, and equipment and identified finite-lived intangible assets, the elimination of the amortization of unrecognized pension benefit losses, interest expense to reflect the Company's new capital structure, and certain corresponding adjustments to income tax expense. These unaudited pro forma amounts are not necessarily indicative of the results that would have been attained if the acquisition had occurred at January 1, 2005 or 2006 or that may be attained in the future and do not include other effects of the acquisition of FHS.

Stock-based compensation

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted SFAS No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment, using the prospective method. The prospective method requires compensation cost to be recognized beginning on the effective date based on the requirements of SFAS 123(R) for all share-based payments granted after the effective date. The Company has not granted such share-based payments during the six months ended June 30, 2006. All awards granted prior to the effective date will be accounted for in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion (“APB”) No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees.

Reclassifications

Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Recent accounting pronouncements

In July 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation (“FIN”) 48, “Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109.” This interpretation clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity’s financial statements in accordance with SFAS No. 109, “Accounting for Income Taxes.” It prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return. This interpretation also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company will be required to adopt this interpretation in the first quarter of fiscal year 2007 and is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this interpretation will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In June 2005, the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) issued Issue No. 05-5, “Accounting for Early Retirement or Post-employment Programs with Specific Features (Such As Terms Specified in Altersteilzeit Early Retirement Arrangements)” (“EITF 05-5”). EITF 05-5 is effective for fiscal years beginning after Dec. 15, 2005. The Company has various programs that fall under the Altersteilzeit (“ATZ”) program and the implementation of this EITF did not have a material impact on the Company’s financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

2. Goodwill and Intangibles

Edgar Filing: Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc. - Form 424B3

In connection with the acquisition of FHS, the Company recorded goodwill totaling $46,733 during the six months ended June 30, 2006. Other changes to goodwill primarily consisted of tax related purchase accounting adjustments in connection with the 2004 Acquisition. The changes in the carrying amount of goodwill for the six months ended June 30, 2006 are summarized as follows:

	Sealing	Fluid	NVH	Total
Balance at December 31, 2005	$ 76,523	$ 234,442	$ 87,330	$ 398,295

3. Restructuring

2005 Actions

During the first quarter of 2005, the Company initiated a restructuring initiative in Australia. This initiative was completed in the third quarter of 2005 at a total separation cost of approximately $326, of which $274 was recognized during the six months ended 2005. A total of 26 employees were affected, of which 21 were terminated as of June 30, 2005. The following table summarizes the activity for this and other initiatives during the second quarter of 2005:

	Employee Separation Costs	Other Exit Costs	Asset Impairments	Total
Balance at January 1, 2005	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —
Expense incurred	274	4	122	400

Utilization of reserve	—	—	(122)	(122)
Balance at June 30, 2005	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —

In connection with the 2004 Acquisition, the Company implemented a restructuring strategy whereby two manufacturing facilities in the United States will be closed and certain businesses will be exited. The closures will be completed in 2006 and 2007 at an estimated total cost of $11,700, excluding costs recorded through purchase accounting. The Company had an accrual of $8,460 at January 1, 2006 for employee severance costs and other exit costs related to these closures. During the six months ended June 30, 2006, the Company recorded severance, asset impairment, and other exit costs of $403, $10, and $1,627, respectively, related to these previously announced actions. Approximately 700 employees will be terminated as part of these initiatives, of which 385 were terminated as of June 30, 2006.

During the six months ended June 30, 2006, the Company also recorded severance, asset impairment, and other exit costs of $2,300, $819, and $78, respectively, associated with workforce reduction in Europe. A total of 109 employees were terminated as of June 30, 2006 as part of this reduction.

The following table summarizes the activity for these initiatives during the six months ended June 30, 2006:

	Employee Separation Costs	Other Exit Costs	Asset Impairments	Total
Balance at January 1, 2006	$ 7,365	$ 1,095	$ —	$ 8,460

2006 Actions

In connection with the acquisition of FHS, the Company started the implementation of a restructuring strategy to address the redundant positions created by the consolidation of the businesses. The Company recorded reserves in purchase accounting totaling $2,807 through June 30, 2006 for employee severance costs for known actions. The Company is finalizing its restructuring strategy and will record any necessary adjustments to the recorded amounts as it finalizes its purchase price. The following table summarizes the activity for this initiative during the six months ended June 30, 2006:

	Employee Separation Costs	Other Exit Costs	Asset Impairments	Total
Purchase price allocation	$ 2,807	$ —	$ —	$ 2,807

Cash payments	(454)	—	—	(454)
Balance at June 30, 2006	$ 2,353	$ —	$ —	$ 2,353

In May 2006, the Company implemented a restructuring strategy whereby a manufacturing facility located in Canada will be closed and the related production will be transferred to other facilities in North America. The closure is expected to be completed in the third quarter of 2006 at an estimated total cost of $2,100. During the six months ended June 30, 2006, the Company recorded severance costs of $711 related to this initiative. Approximately 65 employees will be terminated, of which 50 were terminated as of June 30, 2006. The following table summarizes the activity for this initiative during the six months ended June 30, 2006:

	Employee Separation Costs	Other Exit Costs	Asset Impairments	Total
Expense incurred	$ 711	$ —	$ —	$ 711

4. Inventories

Inventories are comprised of the following:

	December 31, 2005	June 30, 2006
Finished goods	$ 35,510	$ 34,851
Work in process	19,880	32,232
Raw materials and supplies	51,230	53,887
	$ 106,620	$ 120,970

In connection with the acquisition of FHS, a $2,136 fair value write-up was recorded to inventory at the date of the acquisition. Such inventory was liquidated as of March 31, 2006 and recorded as an increase to cost of products sold.

5. Debt

Outstanding debt consisted of the following at December 31, 2005 and June 30, 2006:

	December 31, 2005	June 30, 2006
Senior Notes	$ 200,000	$ 200,000
Senior Subordinated Notes	350,000	350,000

Total debt	902,449	1,115,425
Less: debt payable within one year	(11,602)	(15,396)
Total long-term debt	$ 890,847	$ 1,100,029

The Term Loan A facility is a Canadian dollar denominated obligation with $52,305 outstanding in Canadian dollars as of June 30, 2006. The Term Loan D facility consists of two tranches, with $189,050 outstanding in US dollars and €20,621 outstanding in Euros as of June 30, 2006. In addition, the Company had $13,922 of standby letters of credit outstanding under the Revolving Credit Facility as of June 30, 2006, leaving $111,078 of availability.

6. Pension and Postretirement Benefits other than Pensions

In connection with the acquisition of FHS, the Company assumed assets and liabilities of certain defined benefit pension plans of FHS. The Company has not finalized its valuation of such plans. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, the Company recorded pension expenses of $1,103 and $1,631, respectively, related to these plans based on a preliminary valuation.

The following tables disclose the amount of net periodic benefit costs for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2006 for the Company's defined benefit pension plans and other postretirement benefit plans, excluding the aforementioned plans acquired in connection with the acquisition of FHS:

7. Income Taxes

Under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 28, Interim Financial Reporting, the Company is required to compute its effective tax rate each quarter based upon its estimated annual effective tax rate. The effective tax rates for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005 were 13% and 12%, respectively, as compared to 9% and 14%, respectively, for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006. The income tax rates for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 varied from the United States statutory income tax rate primarily due to lower income tax rates in certain foreign jurisdictions, and the benefit of tax credits offset by the effect of losses in certain foreign jurisdictions for which valuation allowances are recorded.

8. Comprehensive Income (Loss)

On an annual basis, disclosure of comprehensive income (loss) is incorporated into the statement of stockholders' equity, which is not presented on a quarterly basis. The components of comprehensive income (loss), net of related tax, are as follows:

Edgar Filing: Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc. - Form 424B3

Other income (expense)	$ (3,275)	$ 5,138	$ (5,937)	$ 4,181

Included in foreign currency gains in the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 are unrealized gains of $5,187 and $5,065, respectively, related to Term Loan B, a U.S. dollar-denominated obligation of our Canadian subsidiary, as compared to unrealized losses of $1,528 and $2,487, respectively, in the three and six months ended June 30, 2005.

10. Related Party Transactions

In connection with the acquisition of FHS, the Company paid $1,000 of transaction advisory fees to each of its two primary stockholders in February 2006.

Sales to NISCO, a 50% owned joint venture, totaled $4,730 and $7,941 in the three months ended June 30, 2005 and 2006, respectively, and $9,631 and $16,459 in the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

11. Business Segments

The Company evaluates segment performance based on segment profit before tax. The following table details information on the Company's business segments:

During the six months ended June 30, 2006, restructuring costs included in segment profit for Sealing, Fluid, and NVH totaled $4,317, $994, and $637, respectively, compared to $124, $276, and $0 for each segment during the same period in 2005.

12. Guarantor and Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries

In connection with the 2004 Acquisition, Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. (the “Issuer”), a wholly-owned subsidiary, issued the Senior Notes and Senior Subordinated Notes with a total principal amount of $550,000. Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc. (the “Parent”) and all wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries of Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. (the “Guarantors”) unconditionally guarantee the notes. The following condensed consolidated financial data provides information regarding the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the Guarantors. Separate financial statements of the Guarantors are not presented because management has determined that those would not be material to the holders of the notes. The Guarantors account for their investments in the non-guarantor subsidiaries under the equity method. The principal elimination entries are to eliminate the investments in subsidiaries and intercompany balances and transactions (dollars in millions).

13. Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

During the second quarter of 2006, the Company entered into interest rate swap contracts to manage the cash flow fluctuations of variable rate debt due to changes in market interest rates. Interest rate swap contracts which fix the interest payments of certain variable rate debt instruments or fix the market rate component of anticipated fixed rate debt instruments are accounted for as cash flow hedges.

The Company formally documents its hedge relationships, including the identification of the hedging instruments and the hedged items, as well as its risk management objectives and strategies for undertaking the cash flow hedges. The Company also formally assesses, both at inception and at least quarterly thereafter, whether a cash flow hedge is highly effective in offsetting changes in the cash flows of the hedged item. The changes in the cash flows of the interest rate swap contracts are expected to exactly offset the changes in cash flows attributed to the fluctuations in the variable rate debt.

As of June 30, 2006, interest rate swap contracts representing $279,264 of notional amount were outstanding with maturity dates of December, 2010 through December, 2011. These contracts modify the variable rate characteristics of the Company's variable rate debt instruments, which are generally set at three-month LIBOR rates or Canadian Dollar Bankers Acceptance Rates. These contracts convert variable rate obligations into fixed rate obligations with a weighted average interest rate of 5.7%. The fair market value of all outstanding interest rate swap contracts is subject to changes in value due to changes in interest rates. As of June 30, 2006, the fair market value of these contracts was approximately $0.

As of June 30, 2006, no net gains (losses) related to the interest rate swap contracts were recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) or reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) into earnings.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

This Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations ("MD&A") presents information related to the condensed consolidated results of operations of the Company, including the impact of restructuring costs on the Company's results, a discussion of the results of each of the Company's segments, and information concerning both the liquidity and capital resources of the Company. The following discussion and analysis, which should be read in conjunction with our condensed consolidated financial statements and the notes included elsewhere in this report, contains certain forward-looking statements relating to anticipated future financial conditions and operating results of the Company and its current business plans. In the future, the financial condition and operating results of the Company could differ materially from those discussed herein and its current business plans could be altered in response to market conditions and other factors beyond the Company's control. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences or changes include those discussed elsewhere in this report (see "Forward-Looking Statements") and in our most recently filed Annual Report on Form 10-K (see Item 1A. Risk Factors).

Business Environment and Outlook

Our business is greatly affected by the automotive build rates in North America and Europe. New vehicle demand is driven by macro-economic and other factors such as interest rates, manufacturer and dealer sales incentives, fuel prices, consumer confidence, and employment and income growth trends. According to CSM Worldwide, light vehicle production in North America is expected to be 15.8 million units in 2006, which is essentially flat with 2005. European production levels in 2006 are expected to be 20.3 million units as compared to 19.9 million units in 2005. Light vehicle production in South America is expected to increase to 3.0 million vehicles in 2006 from 2.8 million vehicles in 2005.

In the second quarter of 2006, our business was favorably impacted by the acquisition of FHS, cost savings and restructuring initiatives and favorable foreign currency translation. The positive impacts were partially offset by reduced OEM production volumes on certain platforms in North America and Europe, pricing pressure from our customers as well as increases in certain raw material prices, especially synthetic rubber and other petroleum-related materials. According to CSM Worldwide, actual North America and Europe light vehicle production volumes were 4.1 million and 5.4 million units, respectively, for the second quarter of 2006, which were essentially flat with the second quarter of 2005.

According to CSM Worldwide, North America and Europe light vehicle production in the third quarter of 2006 is estimated at 3.6 million and 4.5 million units, respectively, as compared to 3.7 million and 4.5 million units, respectively, for the third quarter of 2005. We expect that our performance in 2006 will be impacted by changes in light vehicle production volumes, customer pricing pressures, and the cost of raw materials.

Three Months Ended June 30, 2006 Compared with Three months Ended June 30, 2005

Sales: Consolidated sales increased $103.3 million, or 21.1%, in the second quarter of 2006. This increase resulted from the acquisition of FHS and favorable foreign exchange ($11.3 million), offset by customer price concessions and lower unit sales volumes.

Gross Profit: Gross profit increased $21.9 million to $101.1 million (approximately 17.1% of sales) in the second quarter of 2006 as compared to $79.3 million (approximately 16.2% of sales) in the second quarter of 2005. This increase resulted primarily from the acquisition of FHS combined with the favorable impact of various cost saving initiatives, partially offset by customer price concessions and increased material costs.

Selling, Administration, and Engineering: Selling, administration, and engineering expenses were higher in the second quarter of 2006 by $7.3 million, or 16.6%, due primarily to the inclusion of FHS and inflationary wage increases partially offset by cost savings and restructuring initiatives.

Amortization of Intangibles: Amortization increased in the second quarter of 2006 due to the amortization of intangible assets recorded as a result of the acquisition of FHS.

Interest Expense, net: The increase in net interest expense of $5.2 million in the second quarter of 2006 resulted primarily from higher interest expense related to increased indebtedness used to finance the acquisition of FHS and higher interest rates.

Other Income (Expense): Other income increased $8.4 million in the second quarter of 2006 due primarily to foreign exchange gains, including a gain of $5.2 million related to Term Loan B, a U.S. dollar-denominated obligation of our Canadian subsidiary, as compared to a foreign exchange loss of $1.5 million in the second quarter of 2005.

Provision for Income Tax Expense (Benefit): Our effective tax rate decreased to 8.8% in the second quarter of 2006 from 12.5% in the second quarter of 2005 due primarily to changes in the distribution of income between U.S. and foreign sources.

Six Months Ended June 30, 2006 Compared with Six months Ended June 30, 2005

Sales: Consolidated sales increased $173.6 million, or 18.1%, in the six months ended June 30, 2006. This increase resulted primarily from the acquisition of FHS and favorable foreign exchange ($11.5 million), offset by customer price concessions.

Gross Profit: Gross profit increased $40.2 million to $187.8 million (approximately 16.6% of sales) in the six months ended June 30, 2006 as compared to $147.6 million (approximately 15.4% of sales) in the six months ended June 30, 2005. This increase resulted primarily from the acquisition of FHS and the favorable impact of various cost saving initiatives, partially offset by customer price concessions and increased material costs.

Selling, Administration, and Engineering: Selling, administration, and engineering expenses were higher in the six months ended June 30, 2006 by $12.3 million, or 14.1%, due primarily to the inclusion of FHS and inflationary wage increases, partially offset by cost savings and restructuring initiatives.

Amortization of Intangibles: Amortization increased in the six months ended June 30, 2006 due to the amortization of intangible assets recorded as a result of the acquisition of FHS.

Interest Expense, net: The increase in net interest expense of $9.3 million in the six months ended June 30, 2006 resulted primarily from higher interest expense related to increased indebtedness used to finance the acquisition of FHS and higher interest rates.

Other Income (Expense): Other income increased $10.1 million in the six months ended June 30, 2006 due primarily to foreign exchange gains, including a gain of $5.1 million related to Term Loan B, a U.S. dollar-denominated obligation of our Canadian subsidiary, as compared to a foreign exchange loss of $2.5 million in the six months ended June 30, 2005.

Provision for Income Tax Expense (Benefit): Our effective tax rate increased to 14.4% in the six months ended June 30, 2006 from 12.2% in the six months ended June 30, 2005, due primarily to the expiration of the U.S. IRC Section 41 research credit on December 31, 2005, offset by changes in the distribution of income between U.S. and foreign sources.

Sealing: Sales decreased $4.6 million, or 1.9%, primarily due to customer price concessions and lower unit sales volumes, partially offset by favorable foreign exchange ($7.6 million). Segment profit increased by $9.0 million primarily due to favorable impact of various cost savings initiatives, partially offset by increased restructuring costs ($2.2 million), lower unit sales volumes, and increased material costs.

Fluid: Sales increased $116.4 million, or 69.9%, primarily due to acquisition of FHS and higher unit sales volumes, partially offset by customer price concessions. Segment profit increased by $1.3 million primarily due to additional profit from the acquisition of FHS, higher unit sales volumes, and favorable impact of various cost savings initiatives, partially offset by unfavorable foreign exchange ($0.8 million), increased restructuring costs ($0.9 million), and interest costs on indebtedness used to finance the acquisition of FHS.

NVH: Sales decreased $8.3 million, or 10.2%, due to lower unit sales volumes and customer price concessions offset by favorable foreign exchange ($3.2 million). Segment profit was $0.4 million in the second quarter of 2006 as compared to a loss of $2.6 million in the second quarter of 2005, primarily due to favorable impact of various cost savings initiatives and favorable foreign exchange ($0.7 million), partially offset by increased restructuring costs ($0.4 million), lower unit sales volumes, and customer price concessions.

Sealing: Sales decreased $6.4 million, or 1.4%, primarily due to lower unit sales volumes and customer price concessions, partially offset by favorable foreign exchange ($9.3 million). Segment profit increased by $14.0 million, primarily due to favorable impact of various cost savings initiatives, unfavorable adjustments recorded in 2005 related to the 2004 Acquisition ($4.7 million), and favorable foreign exchange ($1.2 million), partially offset by increased restructuring costs ($4.2 million) and customer price concessions.

Fluid: Sales increased $196.3 million, or 60.0%, primarily due to acquisition of FHS and higher unit sales volumes, partially offset by customer price concessions and unfavorable foreign exchange ($2.6 million). Segment profit increased by $4.2 million primarily due to additional profit from the acquisition of FHS, higher unit sales volumes, favorable impact of various cost savings initiatives, and unfavorable adjustments recorded in 2005 related to the 2004 Acquisition ($1.1 million), partially offset by increased restructuring costs ($0.7 million) and increased interest costs on indebtedness used to finance the acquisition of FHS.

NVH: Sales decreased $16.1 million, or 10.0%, due to lower unit sales volumes and customer price concessions partially offset by favorable foreign exchange ($4.8 million). Segment loss decreased by $3.5 million, primarily due to favorable impact of various cost savings initiatives and unfavorable adjustments recorded in 2005 related to the 2004 Acquisition ($2.8 million), partially offset by increased restructuring costs ($0.6 million), lower unit sales volumes, and customer price concessions.

Restructuring

We continually evaluate alternatives in an effort to align our business with the changing needs of our customers and lower the operating cost of our Company. This may include the realignment of our existing manufacturing capacity, facility closures, or similar actions. See the Notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements for discussion of restructuring activities during the three and six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2006.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Operating Activities: Cash provided by operations in the six months ended June 30, 2006 was $63.5 million as compared to $60.5 million in the six months ended June 30, 2005. Increased net income and non-cash adjustments for the six months ended June 30, 2006 were generally offset by increases in operating assets and liabilities. Changes in operating assets and liabilities resulted in the use of $32.7 million in cash for the first six months of 2006 compared to $2.3 million used in the first six months of 2005. This change was due primarily to the impact of the FHS acquisition and higher accounts receivable, partially offset by decreased inventory and increased accounts payable. We anticipate that cash flows from operations for the next twelve months will be positive and will exceed our projected capital expenditures and working capital needs even if business levels are lower than presently forecast.

Investing Activities: Cash used in investing activities was $247.9 million during the six months ended June 30, 2006, which primarily consisted of acquisition cost of $210.0 million related to the acquisition of FHS and capital spending of $36.6 million. This compared to $81.8 million in the six months ended June 30, 2005, which primarily consisted of capital spending of $20.3 million, payment of the working capital adjustment related to the 2004 Acquisition of $54.3 million, and payment of transaction advisory fees to one of the Company's primary stockholders of $8.0 million. We anticipate that we will spend approximately $95 million on capital expenditures in the year ending December 31, 2006.

Financing Activities: Cash provided by financing activities in the six months ended June 30, 2006 was $204.0 million as compared to cash used in financing activities of $2.2 million in the six months ended June 30, 2005. The increase is primarily due to proceeds from issuance of acquisition-related debt of $214.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2006, partially offset by payment of $4.8 million debt issuance cost and $5.9 million principal payments on long-term debt.

Since the consummation of the 2004 Acquisition and the acquisition of FHS, we have been significantly leveraged. As of June 30, 2006, we had outstanding $1,115.4 million in aggregate indebtedness, with an additional $111.1 million of borrowing capacity available under our Revolving Credit Facility (after giving effect to $13.9 million of outstanding letters of credit). Our future liquidity requirements will likely be significant, primarily due to debt service obligations. Future debt service obligations will include required prepayments from annual excess cash flows, as defined, under our senior credit agreement, which would be due five days after filing of our Form 10-K or in connection with specific transactions, such as certain asset sales and the incurrence of debt not permitted under the senior credit agreement.

Our compliance with certain of the covenants contained in the indentures governing the notes and in our senior credit agreement is determined based on financial ratios that are derived using our reported EBITDA, as adjusted for unusual items and certain other contingencies described in those agreements. The breach of such covenants in our senior credit agreement could result in a default under that agreement and the lenders could elect to declare all amounts borrowed due and payable. Any such acceleration would also result in a default under our indentures. Additionally, under our debt agreements, our ability to engage in activities such as incurring additional indebtedness, making investments, and paying dividends is also partially tied to similar financial ratios. We refer to EBITDA as adjusted under the indentures as Indentures EBITDA and EBITDA as adjusted under the senior credit agreement as Consolidated EBITDA.

We believe that the inclusion of supplementary adjustments to EBITDA applied in presenting Indentures EBITDA are appropriate to provide additional information to investors to demonstrate compliance with our financing covenants. However, EBITDA and Indentures EBITDA are not recognized terms under GAAP and do not purport to be alternatives to net income as a measure of operating performance. Additionally, EBITDA and Indentures EBITDA are not intended to be measures of free cash flow for management's discretionary use, as they do not consider certain cash requirements such as interest payments, tax payments, and debt service requirements. Because not all companies use identical calculations, these presentations of EBITDA and Indentures EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

The adjustments to EBITDA in determining covenant compliance under the credit agreement are generally similar to those made under the indentures.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report includes what the Company believes are “forward-looking statements” as that term is defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include statements concerning our plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenue or performance, capital expenditures, customer demands and needs, financing needs, plans or intentions relating to acquisitions and restructurings, business trends, and other information that is not historical information. When used in this report, the words “estimates,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “projects,” “plans,” “intends,” “believes,” “forecasts,” or future or conditional verbs, such as “will,” “shall,” “may,” and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, management’s examination of historical operating trends and data are based upon our current expectations and various assumptions. Our expectations, beliefs, and projections are expressed in good faith and we believe there is a reasonable basis for them. However, we cannot assure you that these expectations, beliefs, and projections will be achieved.

Such risks, uncertainties, and other important factors include, among others: our substantial leverage; limitations on flexibility in operating our business contained in our debt agreements; our dependence on the automotive industry; availability and cost of raw materials; our dependence on certain major customers; competition in our industry; sovereign and other risks related to our conducting operations outside the United States; the uncertainty of our ability to achieve expected cost reduction savings; our exposure to product liability and warranty claims; labor conditions; our vulnerability to rising interest rates; our ability to meet our customers’ needs for new and improved products in a timely manner; our ability to attract and retain key personnel; the possibility that our owners’ interests will conflict with yours; our recent status as a stand-alone company; our legal rights to our intellectual property portfolio; our underfunded pension plans; environmental and other regulation; and the possibility that our acquisition strategy will not be successful. There may be other factors that may cause our actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements.

All forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf apply only as of the date of this report and are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements included in this report. We undertake no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk Interest Rate and Currency Exchange Risk

We are exposed to market risk associated with fluctuations in interest rates and currency exchange rates from our financial instruments. We actively monitor our exposure to risk from changes in foreign currency exchange rates, and utilize derivative financial instruments to manage our exposure to interest rate movements.

We use interest rate swap contracts to manage our exposure to interest rate movements. Our exposure to variable interest rates on outstanding variable rate debt instruments indexed to three-month LIBOR rates or Canadian Dollar Bankers Acceptance Rates is partially managed by the use of interest rate swap contracts to convert certain variable rate debt obligations to fixed rate, matching effective and maturity dates to debt instruments. All of our interest rate swap contracts are executed with banks that we believe are creditworthy and are denominated in currencies that match the underlying debt.

As of June 30, 2006, we had $557.8 million of variable rate debt. A 1% increase in the average interest rate would increase future interest expense by approximately $2.8 million per year, after considering the effects of the interest rate swap contracts we entered into in the second quarter of 2006. As of June 30, 2006, interest rate swap contracts representing $279.3 million of notional amount were outstanding with maturity dates of December, 2010 through December, 2011. These contracts are designated as cash flow hedges and modify the variable rate characteristics of our variable rate debt instruments. The fair market value of all outstanding interest rate swap contracts is subject to changes in value due to changes in interest rates. As of June 30, 2006, the fair market value of these contracts was approximately $0.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Based on their evaluation as of June 30, 2006, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined by Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act")) are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended June 30, 2006 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II — OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

The Company is periodically involved in claims, litigation and various legal matters that arise in the ordinary course of business. In addition, the Company conducts and monitors environmental investigations and remedial actions at certain locations. Each of these matters is subject to various uncertainties, and some of these matters may be resolved unfavorably with respect to the Company. A reserve estimate is established for each matter and updated as additional information becomes available. We do not believe that the ultimate resolution of any of these matters will have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows.
