Forward-Looking Statements

The statement, analyses, and other information contained herein relating to the proposed merger and anticipated synergies of TD Ameritrade, including cost savings and revenue opportunities, and the timing of the synergy realization; the expected accretive nature of the transaction and the timing of the accretion; the expected financial and operational performance of TD Ameritrade, including increased net income and pre-tax margin; industry rankings and competitive position; realization of Ameritrade's strategy; the service offerings of TD Ameritrade; the expected benefits to stockholders and customers; credit and interest rate risk; execution of integration plans; management and organizational structure; the dividend to be paid to Ameritrade stockholders; timing of the closing; future consolidation and growth; and other statements that are not historical facts, are all forward-looking statements. These statements reflect only our current expectations and are not guarantees of future performance or results. Various factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements. These factors include the possibility that the necessary stockholder and regulatory approvals are not obtained; that the transaction does not close when expected or at all, or that the companies may be required to modify aspects of the transaction to achieve regulatory approval; that financing will not be available to fund the dividend or, if available, will be at a higher interest rate than expected; prior to the closing of the proposed transaction, the businesses of the companies suffer due to uncertainty; that TD Ameritrade is unable to transition customers, successfully execute its integration strategies, or achieve planned synergies, or that the occurrence of these events takes longer than expected; that management is unable to accurately forecast the anticipated financial results of TD Ameritrade or the timing of when those results will be realized; that TD Ameritrade is unable to compete successfully in this highly competitive and rapidly changing marketplace; that the parties are unable to retain employees that are key to the operations of the combined business; and that TD Ameritrade is unable to identify and realize future consolidation and growth opportunities. These and other risks that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements are detailed from time to time in the documents filed by Ameritrade with the Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ), including Ameritrade s most recent Form 10-K and 10-Q.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed transaction, Ameritrade will be filing a proxy statement and relevant documents concerning the transaction with the SEC. SECURITY HOLDERS OF AMERITRADE ARE URGED TO READ THE PROXY STATEMENT AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE SEC WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Investors and security holders can obtain free copies of the proxy statement and other documents when they become available by contacting Investor Relations at www.amtd.com, or by mail at Ameritrade Investor Relations, 4211 S. 102 Street, Omaha, NE 68124, or by Telephone: 800-237-8692. In addition, documents filed with the SEC by Ameritrade are available free of charge at the SEC s web site at www.sec.gov.

Ameritrade Holding Corporation ( Ameritrade ), The Toronto-Dominion Bank ( TD ), and their respective directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the stockholders of Ameritrade in connection with the proposed transaction. Information regarding the special interests of these directors and executive officers in the proposed transaction will be included in the proxy statement of Ameritrade described above. Information regarding Ameritrade s directors and executive officers is also available in its proxy statement for its 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, which was filed with the SEC on January 24, 2005. This document is available free of charge at the SEC s web site at www.sec.gov and from Investor Relations at Ameritrade as described above. Information regarding TD s directors and executive officers is available in its Annual Report on Form 40-F for the year ended October 31, 2004, which was filed with the SEC on December 13, 2004, and in its notice of annual meeting and proxy circular for its 2005 annual meeting, which was filed with the SEC on February 17, 2005. These documents are available free of charge at the SEC s web site at www.sec.gov and by directing a request to The Toronto-Dominion Bank, c/o TD Bank Financial Group, 66 Wellington Street West, Toronto, ON M5K 1A2, Attention: Investor Relations (416) 308-9030.

The tender offer for outstanding shares of Ameritrade common stock described in the press release has not commenced. At the time the tender offer is commenced, TD and J. Joe Ricketts, if he participates in the tender offer, will file a tender offer statement on Schedule TO with the SEC, and Ameritrade will file a solicitation/recommendation statement on Schedule 14D-9. The tender offer statement (including an offer to

TD Waterhouse Canada announces purchase of Ameritrade Canada

On June 22, 2005 TD Waterhouse Canada announced its intention to purchase the Canadian operations of Ameritrade. In Canada, the merged entity will operate under the name TD Waterhouse. TD Waterhouse is a leader in the Canadian discount broker industry and also offers clients a comprehensive range of additional wealth management services.

The proposed acquisition is part of a larger transaction announced today in which Ameritrade will acquire the U.S. brokerage business of TD Waterhouse U.S.A. and is conditional on that transaction closing, as well as customary closing conditions. Both this acquisition and the larger transaction require regulatory approvals. The closing is expected to occur in about six months.

Our commitment to Ameritrade Canada clients

We are committed to ensuring that there will be no changes for now and that means:

You will continue to access your account through the same web address and same phone numbers and the same e-mail address

Commissions, fees and account numbers stay the same

All current products and services will continue to be available

The same service that you have come to expect
With the added resources of TD Waterhouse, we are confident that we can continue to meet your present and future needs. As we integrate our operations you will get:

Access to a network of Investor Centres

Access to a more comprehensive range of wealth management services

Access to integrated banking and investment services

We want to assure you that for now it will be business as usual and there are no changes to your account or the products and services you currently have access to. As we finalize the transaction we are committed to minimize any impact on Ameritrade Canada clients. Our goal will be to provide an enhanced level of products and services after the merger is approved. You will be kept informed of all developments through updates on the Canadian web sites of TD Waterhouse and Ameritrade. We will notify you personally, in writing and well in advance, about any merger-related changes to your accounts. You will continue to have uninterrupted access to your accounts.

19. Q. What is the name of the new company?

A. The new organization will be called TD Ameritrade

20. Q. Who will run TD Ameritrade once the deal is finalized?

A. Joe Moglia will be the CEO of the company, reporting to the Board of Directors of TD Ameritrade.

21. Q. Do you have details on the acquisition?

A. News of the proposed transaction has been publicly announced. We will post further updates on the details of the transaction at <http://www.tdwaterhouse.com> as they become available.

22. Q. When will the transaction close?

A. The transaction still requires the approval of Ameritrade shareholders and U.S. and Canadian regulators. We expect to receive all approvals in about six months.

23. Q. What is the timing to combine the operations of both companies?

A. We expect it will take about six months to close the transaction. After that, it will require a number of months to integrate the operations of the two companies. We will notify you in writing, well in advance if there are any changes that will impact you.

24. Is this transaction occurring because TD Waterhouse is in financial trouble?

Table of Contents

A. No. While TD Waterhouse is a profitable and growing company, we feel joining with Ameritrade will create a much more competitive entity, providing you with an even better mix of products, services and value in the financial services industry.

25. Q. How big will this make TD Ameritrade?

A. The new organization will have over 5.9 million accounts and $219 billion in assets.

Important News about
TD Waterhouse and Ameritrade

Dear Advisor:

Today, Ameritrade and TD Waterhouse announced plans to combine their businesses and create a new financial services company named TD Ameritrade. TD Ameritrade will represent a new force in financial services, giving you and your clients more power than ever before and even greater breadth of investment solutions to meet your clients needs.

Bringing you the next generation of financial services

Over the next several months, a group of senior executives from both companies will be tasked with shaping this new company. Built on a legacy of service and technology, we plan to bring together the very best of both TD Waterhouse and Ameritrade.

Reflecting the vision of both companies, TD Ameritrade plans to bring exceptional value to you and your clients with:

Continued access to industry leading advisor services technology

A robust suite of advisor tools

The outstanding service you have come to expect

The deal still requires the approval of Ameritrade shareholders and U.S. and Canadian regulators. We expect to receive all approvals in about six months. It will then take another several months to bring the strengths of both companies together. We'll keep you posted about our progress, and notify you in writing well in advance of any new developments.

You and your clients continue to be our focus

We're committed to ensuring that it will be business as usual for now. You'll continue to speak with your service team representatives and have full access to the same tools and services you do today.

Enclosed is a copy of the letter that has been sent to your clients regarding this announcement. If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to call Tom directly at 201-369-8499.

Sincerely,
