ITEM 2.02. RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

Press Release and Supplemental Information

On July 26, 2005, AmerUs Group Co. (Company) issued a press release reporting its financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2005, which the Company is furnishing under this Item 2.02 as Exhibit 99.1, and posted on its website the supplemental information, which the Company is furnishing under this Item 2.02 as Exhibit 99.2.

Second Quarter 2005 Earnings Call

On July 27, 2005, the Company reported the following, among other results, during its second quarter 2005 earnings call.

The Company s GAAP return on equity for the second quarter of 2005 was 8.6 percent and its operating return on equity was 11.9 percent.¹

The Company reported that its unleveraged internal rate of return on new annuity business was 11.2 percent through June 30, 2005, which was slightly lower than the Company s plan of 12 percent². The Company s unleveraged internal rate of return on new life business increased to 14 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2005.² In addition, the Company reported that protection segment margins increased to 5.5 percent of reserves in the second quarter of 2005 compared to 4.7 percent of reserves last year.

The Company stated that its risk-based capital level² for the second quarter was 342%.

The Company s average new money rate during the second quarter was 5.33%.

² Based on statutory financial measures in accordance with insurance regulations applicable to the Company s insurance subsidiaries.

This Report on Form 8-K and the exhibits hereto contain statements which constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements relating to trends in operations and financial results and the business and the products of the Company and its subsidiaries, as well as other statements including words such as "anticipate", "believe", "plan", "estimate", "expect", "intend" and other similar expressions.

Forward-looking statements are made based upon management's current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects on the Company. Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. Factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by these forward-looking statements include, among others, the following possibilities: (a) general economic conditions and other factors, including prevailing interest rate levels and stock and bond market performance, which may affect the Company's ability to sell its products, the market value of its investments and the lapse rate and profitability of policies; (b) the Company's ability to achieve anticipated levels of operational efficiencies and cost-saving initiatives and to meet cash requirements based upon projected liquidity sources; (c) customer response to new products, distribution channels and marketing initiatives; (d) mortality, morbidity, and other factors which may affect the profitability of the Company's insurance products; (e) the Company's ability to develop and maintain effective risk management policies and procedures and to maintain adequate reserves for future policy benefits and claims; (f) changes in the federal income tax and other federal laws, regulations, and interpretations, including federal regulatory measures that may significantly affect the insurance business including limitations on antitrust immunity, the applicability of securities laws to insurance products, minimum solvency requirements, and changes to tax advantages offered by life insurance and annuity products or programs with which they are used; (g) increasing competition in the sale of insurance and annuities and the recruitment of sales representatives; (h) regulatory changes, interpretations, initiatives or pronouncements, including those relating to regulation of insurance companies and the regulation and sale of their products and the programs in which they are used; (i) the Company's ratings and those of the Company's subsidiaries by independent rating organizations which the Company believes are particularly important to the sale of its products; (j) the performance of the Company's investment portfolios; (k) the impact of changes in standards of accounting; (l) the Company's ability to integrate the business and operations of acquired entities; (m) expected protection products and accumulation product margins; (n) the impact of anticipated investment transactions; and (o) litigation or regulatory investigations or examinations.

There can be no assurance that other factors not currently anticipated by the Company will not materially and adversely affect the Company's results of operations. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements made by the Company or on its behalf. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statement was made. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement.
