To the best of Origen's knowledge, there are no material proceedings to which any executive officer or director is a party, or has a material interest, adverse to Origen. To the best of Origen's knowledge, there have been no events under any bankruptcy act, no criminal proceedings and no judgments or injunctions that are material to the evaluation of the ability or integrity of any executive officer or director during the past five years.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act requires all of Origen's directors and executive officers and all persons who own more than 10% of Origen's common stock to file with the SEC reports of ownership and changes in ownership of Origen's common stock. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish Origen with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on its review of the copies of Forms 3 and 4 furnished to Origen, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no such forms were required to be filed by such persons, Origen believes that all its directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of its common stock have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them, except that Mr. Galaspie did not timely file one report with respect to one transaction.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Origen's Board of Directors has established a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to all Origen directors, officers, and employees including the principal executive officer, the principal financial and accounting officer and the controller of Origen (and persons performing similar functions). Among other matters, the code of business conduct is designed to deter wrongdoing and to:

promote the honest and ethical conduct of all Origen personnel and employees;

promote the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;

promote full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in periodic reports required to be filed by Origen;

promote compliance with all applicable rules and regulations that apply to Origen and its employees; and facilitate prompt and appropriate internal reporting and accountability for violations of the code.

You may find a copy of this code under the Investors' section of Origen's website at www.origenfinancial.com. Waivers to the code for executive officers or directors may be granted only by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors. In the event any such waivers are granted, we expect to promptly announce the waiver on the investor relations section of our website and to otherwise make such disclosure as is required by law and any applicable stock exchange regulations.

Audit Committee Matters

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter that was approved by the Board in January 2004. The Audit Committee, among other functions, (1) oversees the accounting and financial reporting processes and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements on behalf of Origen's Board of Directors and reports the results of its activities to the Board, (2) has the sole authority to appoint, retain, terminate and determine the compensation of Origen's independent accountants, (3) reviews with Origen's independent accountants the scope and results of the audit engagement, (4) reviews the integrity, adequacy and effectiveness of Origen's internal controls and financial disclosure process, including the direct supervision of Origen's Internal Audit Department, (5) approves professional services provided by Origen's independent accountants, and (6) reviews the independence of Origen's independent accountants. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Sher (Chairman), Rogel and Halpern, all of whom are independent as that term is defined in the rules of the SEC and applicable Nasdaq Stock Market rules. Origen's Board has also determined that each of Messrs. Sher, Rogel and Halpern qualifies as an audit committee financial expert, as defined by applicable SEC regulations.

Item 11. Executive CompensationCompensation Discussion and Analysis

Origen's executive compensation program has been developed by and is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The objective of such compensation program is to attract, retain and motivate qualified executives and to align the financial interests of such executives with those of Origen and its shareholders. The program is designed to achieve a targeted level of overall compensation for each executive and is structured around a number of elements, including base salary, cash bonus and equity compensation, each designed to serve a specific purpose, with the overall goal of providing a balanced approach towards the achievement of both near-term and long-term financial and operational goals.

While the Compensation Committee is currently considering retaining the services of a professional compensation consultant, to-date the Compensation Committee has not retained such services. Committee members have gathered and analyzed compensation data from similar companies in similar industries and have formulated the anticipated cost of and the expected degree of difficulty in replacing Origen's executives with individuals of comparable experience and skill. Given that Origen's operations are currently focused in the manufactured housing sector through its loan origination and loan servicing activities, and given that there are very few companies solely devoted to this sector, comparative compensation data is difficult to obtain. However, the skills needed by our executives are much the same as those needed by executives serving in other lending and loan servicing companies, particularly those involved in the financing and servicing of loans on residences. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee has drawn on observations of compensation data from companies involved in mortgage banking. Observations of such data indicate a compensation composition ranging from 30% to 60% salary, 30% to 45% targeted bonus opportunity and equity compensation of 10% to 50% of overall compensation. Within these ranges, the Compensation Committee has selected individual allocations and overall compensation targets that are believed to be consistent with the goals of our compensation program and that reflect the skill and experience of the individual executives. Following is a summary and description of the key elements of the executive compensation program.

Base Salaries. It is desirable to provide our executives with a level of assured cash compensation consistent with their professional status, experience and abilities. For the top level of executive management, currently considered to be the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the President and Head of Operations, and the Executive Vice President of Portfolio Management, base salaries are intended to represent less than 50% of total compensation. The remaining executives (hereinafter referred to as "senior management"), are generally expected to have 50% to 75% of total compensation comprised of base salaries.

Bonuses. Cash bonuses are awarded based upon corporate and personal performance objectives. The primary purpose of the cash bonus element of our compensation program is to reward executives for the achievement of such performance objectives on an annual basis. At the executive management and senior management levels, corporate financial performance is the primary objective, with adjustments made for personal performance in the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Currently, the Compensation Committee has chosen not to include changes in Origen's stock price as a performance objective. Origen's stock is very thinly traded and includes a significant amount of insider ownership. Key corporate financial objectives include net income, as determined by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, measurements of loan performance, such as delinquency statistics, foreclosure/repossession rates and recoveries, and various metrics associated with our asset-backed securitization program. For executive management, bonuses are expected to comprise between 25% to 50% of total compensation, and senior management bonuses are expected to comprise between 15% to 35% of total compensation. While corporate financial performance is the primary consideration in determining executive management and senior management bonuses, we have in the past used other considerations, including personal objectives relevant to each individual's area of responsibility, and we may determine to utilize such considerations, as well any additional goals and/or objectives deemed appropriate, in the future.

Equity Compensation. The primary form of equity compensation awarded to-date has been in the form of grants of restricted stock. A modest amount of stock options were awarded coincidental with our formation in October 2003, but the Compensation Committee has chosen not to make subsequent stock option awards. Equity compensation, similar to bonuses, is also intended to reward executives for the achievement of performance objectives, but such objectives are longer term in nature. A significant purpose for equity compensation is to retain valuable executives and senior managers and provide incentives for contributing to the overall success of Origen in order to benefit individually from any improvement in the price of the stock over the long term. Since the grants of restricted stock vest over periods ranging from three to five years, this method of compensation serves this longer-term purpose.

Although the named executive officers' salaries are set by the terms of each named executive officer's employment agreement (discussed below under Material Information Relating to the Summary Compensation Table and Grants of Plan Based Awards - Employment Agreements), the Compensation Committee reviews the compensation program on an annual basis and modifies it as necessary. The Chief Executive Officer makes compensation recommendations to the Compensation Committee, which the Compensation Committee considers in making compensation decisions. In addition, the Chief Executive Officer reviews the compensation program periodically and recommends changes to the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee believes that the Chief Executive Officer's role in the compensation program is appropriate and critical because of the Chief Executive Officer's interaction and evaluation of the performance of those individuals subject to the compensation program.

Origen does not require its executives to own a certain number of shares of Origen's stock.

Set forth below is information regarding compensation earned by or paid or awarded to the following named executive officers of Origen during the year ended December 31, 2006: (i) Ronald A. Klein, our Chief Executive Officer; (ii) W. Anderson Geater, Jr., our Chief Financial Officer; (iii) J. Peter Scherer, our President and Head of Operations; (iv) Mark W. Material Information Relating to the Summary Compensation Table and Grants of Plan Based Awards*General*

The stock awards granted to the above named executive officers on June 15, 2006 and July 14, 2006 vest in equal amounts on May 8, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011. The stock awards granted to the above named executive officers on December 28, 2006 vest in equal amounts on October 8, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011. All dividends and other distributions on the shares are paid in cash to the applicable holder of the stock at rates determined by the Board of Directors from time to time.

Stock awards may be granted to the named executive officers upon approval by the Compensation Committee or, in certain instances, the full Board of Directors. With the exception of the Chief Executive Officer as described above, the named executive officers do not have a role in determining the terms of the stock awards, including the amount to be awarded.

The stock awards are granted on an annual basis, generally in the second quarter, but subsequent awards may be made throughout the remainder of the fiscal year as determined by the Compensation Committee or the Board of Directors.

Origen's executive compensation program, including the mix of the base salary element, the bonus element and the equity compensation element, and the proportion of each to total compensation, varies based on the individual named executive officer. In the aggregate, the salaries and bonuses earned by the named executive officers in 2006 equaled 64% of their aggregate total compensation. The following table shows each named executive officer's salary and bonus in proportion to his total compensation:

Employment Agreements

Origen and Origen Financial, L.L.C. have entered into employment agreements with each of the named executive officers, pursuant to which Origen Financial, L.L.C. pays the executives' salaries. Each of Origen's executives is also an officer of Origen Financial, L.L.C.

Ronald A. Klein, Chief Executive Officer

On July 14, 2006, Origen and Origen Financial, L.L.C. entered into an employment agreement with Ronald A. Klein, Origen's Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Klein's employment agreement is for an initial three-year term ending July 14, 2009 and is automatically renewable for successive one-year terms thereafter unless either party timely terminates the agreement. The employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $495,000 in the first year, $520,000 in the second year, and $545,000 in the third year. If the agreement is automatically renewed beyond the initial three-year term, Mr. Klein's base salary will increase by 5% during each successive one-year term. In addition to his base salary, Mr. Klein is entitled to annual incentive compensation of up to 100% of his then current base salary if he satisfies certain individual and company performance criteria established from time to time by Origen's Board of Directors.

In connection with the execution of the employment agreement, Origen issued Mr. Klein 175,000 restricted shares of its common stock, as discussed under the heading "Grants of Plan Based Awards" above. The shares vest in five equal annual installments of 35,000 shares on each of May 8, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

The non-competition provision of the employment agreement generally precludes Mr. Klein from engaging, directly or indirectly in the United States or Canada in the manufactured housing finance business or any ancillary business of Origen during the term of his employment with Origen and for a period of twelve months following the period he is employed by Origen, subject to certain conditions and exceptions. Mr. Klein will also be prohibited from soliciting the employment of any of Origen's other employees and diverting any business from Origen for a period of up to two years after termination of the employment agreement.

Under the employment agreement, Mr. Klein will be entitled to a severance payment equal to (a) two years' salary and target bonus if the employment agreement is terminated by Origen without cause (as defined below) or by Mr. Klein for good reason (as defined below), or if Mr. Klein dies or becomes disabled, or (b) one year's salary if Origen does not renew the term of the contract at the end of its initial term or any subsequent renewal term.

For purposes of Mr. Klein's employment agreement, "good reason", as it relates to the executive's severance payments upon his termination of the agreement for good reason described in the preceding paragraph, means (i) a substantial adverse change, not consented to by the executive, in the nature or scope of his responsibilities, authorities or duties, (ii) a substantial involuntary reduction in the executive's base salary except for an across-the-board salary reduction similarly affecting all or substantially all employees, or (iii) the relocation of the executive's principal place of employment to another location of Origen outside a sixty mile radius from the location of the executive's principal place of employment as of the date of the agreement.

For purposes of Mr. Klein's employment agreement, cause means: (i) a material breach of any provision of the employment agreement by the executive (after opportunity to cure for 20 days upon receipt of notice of breach), (ii) the executive's failure or refusal, in any material manner, to perform all lawful services required of him pursuant to his agreement (after opportunity to cure for 20 days upon receipt of notice of breach), (iii) the executive's commission of fraud, embezzlement or theft, or a crime constituting moral turpitude that renders his continued employment harmful to Origen, (iv) the executive's misappropriation of company assets or property, including, without limitation, obtaining reimbursement through fraudulent vouchers or expense reports, or (v) the executive's conviction or the entry of a plea of guilty or no contest by the executive with respect to any felony or other crime that adversely affects Origen's reputation or business.

Upon a change in control of Origen, Mr. Klein may be entitled to a change in control payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of (a) his then current base salary, and (b) fifty percent of his then-current target bonus. The change in control payment will be payable if (i) Mr. Klein is still employed by Origen on the first anniversary of the change in control, (ii) during such one-year period Mr. Klein's employment is terminated without cause by Origen, Mr. Klein resigns with good reason (as defined below) or Mr. Klein dies or becomes disabled, or (iii) Origen terminates Mr. Klein's employment in anticipation of a change in control during a specified period before the closing of the change in control transaction. If, in addition to the change in control payment under the employment agreement, Mr. Klein is entitled to a payment from Origen upon a change in control or similar event under Origen's Retention Plan or any other plan or agreement, Origen will be obligated to pay only the greater of the change of control payment described in the employment agreement and such other plan or agreement.

For purposes of Mr. Klein's employment agreement, good reason, as it relates to the executive's severance payments upon his termination of the agreement for good reason after a change of control only, as described in the preceding paragraph, means (i) a substantial involuntary reduction in the executive's base salary except for an across-the-board salary reduction similarly affecting all or substantially all employees, or (ii) the relocation of the executive's principal place of employment to another location of Origen outside a sixty mile radius from the location of the executive's principal place of employment as of the date of the agreement.

For purposes of Mr. Klein's employment agreement, a change control includes the following: (i) an event or series of events by which any person together with all affiliates and associates of such person, shall become the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the combined voting power of Origen's then outstanding securities having the right to vote in an election of the Board of Directors, other than as a result of an acquisition of securities directly from Origen, (ii) (1) any consolidation or merger of Origen in which the stockholders of Origen immediately prior to the consolidation or merger would not, immediately after the consolidation or merger, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, shares representing in the aggregate more than 50% of the voting shares of the corporation issuing cash or securities in the consolidation or merger or (2) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer to an unrelated party, in one transaction or a series of transactions contemplated or arranged by any party as a single plan, of all or substantially all of Origen's assets; (iii) the approval of Origen's stockholders of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of Origen; or (iv) where the persons who, as of the employment agreement date, constitute Origen's Board of Directors (the incumbent directors) cease for any reason, including, without limitation, as a result of a tender offer, proxy contest, merger or similar transaction, to constitute at least a majority of the Board of Directors, provided that any person becoming a director of Origen subsequent to such date shall be considered an incumbent director if such person's election was approved by or such person was nominated for election by either (1) a vote of at least two-thirds of the incumbent directors or (2) a vote of at least a majority of the incumbent directors who are members of a nominating committee of the Board of Directors comprised, in the majority, of incumbent directors; provided further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, any director designated by a person or entity that has entered into an agreement with Origen to effect a transaction described in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) above, shall not be deemed to be an incumbent director.

If any severance payments or change in control payments to Mr. Klein under the agreement collectively constitute a parachute payment under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, thereby requiring the payment of excise taxes, then Origen will gross up such payments to cover all applicable excise taxes. W. Anderson Geater, Jr., Chief Financial Officer, J. Peter Scherer, President and Head of Operations and Mark Landschulz, Executive Vice President, Portfolio Management

On December 28, 2006, Origen and its primary operating subsidiary Origen Financial L.L.C. entered into employment agreements with each of W. Anderson Geater, Jr., Origen's Chief Financial Officer; J. Peter Scherer, Origen's President and Head of Operations; and Mark Landschulz, Origen's Executive Vice President, Portfolio Management. The effective date of each employment agreement is October 8, 2006, which is the date the previous employment agreement of each executive expired.

Each executive's employment agreement is for an initial three-year term ending October 8, 2009 and is automatically renewable for successive one-year terms thereafter unless either party timely terminates the agreement. Mr. Geater's employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $262,500 in the first year, $275,000 in the second year, and $300,000 in the third year. Each of Mr. Scherer's and Mr. Landschulz's employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $250,000 in the first year, $275,000 in the second year, and $300,000 in the third year. If an executive's employment agreement is automatically renewed beyond the initial three-year term, his base salary will increase by 5% during each successive one-year term. In addition to his base salary, each executive is entitled to annual incentive compensation of up to 100% of his then current base salary if he satisfies certain individual and company performance criteria established from time to time by Origen's Board of Directors.

In connection with the execution of the employment agreement, Origen issued Mr. Geater 30,000 restricted shares of common stock and issued each of Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz 25,000 restricted shares of common stock, as discussed under the heading Grants of Plan Based Awards above. Each executive's shares vest in five equal annual installments of 6,000 shares (in Mr. Geater's case) or 5,000 shares (in Mr. Scherer's and Mr. Landschulz's cases) on each of October 8, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Under their respective employment agreements, each of Mr. Geater, Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz will be entitled to the following severance compensation:

- (A) if the employment agreement is terminated by Origen without cause or by the executive for good reason, (i) Origen will pay the executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary, (ii) Origen will continue to provide health care coverage and other benefits for which the executive continues to be eligible under Origen's benefits plans for the applicable severance period (as defined below), provided that Origen's obligation to provide the benefits described in this clause (ii) will terminate to the extent that a subsequent employer provides similar coverage, and (iii) the vesting of all of the executive's unvested options and shares of restricted stock will be accelerated;
- (B) if the executive dies or becomes disabled, (i) Origen will pay the executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary, (ii) Origen will continue to provide health care coverage and other benefits for the same period and on the same terms as described in clause (A)(ii) above, and (iii) the vesting of all of the executive's unvested options and shares of restricted stock will be accelerated; and
- (C) if the executive's employment is terminated because Origen does not renew the term of the employment agreement at the end of its initial term or any subsequent renewal term, (i) Origen will pay the executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary, and (ii) the vesting of all of the executive's unvested options and shares of restricted stock will be accelerated.

The severance period means 24 months with respect to Mr. Geater and 18 months with respect to each of Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz.

If payable, the severance payment will be in addition to any non-compete payment or change of control payment described below to which the executive is entitled.

The non-competition provision of each executive's employment agreement generally precludes the executive from engaging, directly or indirectly in the United States or Canada in the manufactured housing finance business or any ancillary business of Origen during the term of his employment with Origen and for a period of 18 months following the period he is employed by Origen, subject to certain conditions and exceptions. Each executive will also be prohibited from soliciting the employment of any of Origen's other employees and diverting any business from Origen for a period of up to 18 months after termination of the employment agreement. In consideration of each executive's covenant not to compete, Origen will pay the executive a non-compete payment, but only if the employment agreement is terminated by Origen without cause or by the executive for good reason. The amount payable to Mr. Geater is $849,615 and the amount payable to each of Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz is $560,000. No portion of such amount will be payable to an executive after any breach of his covenant not to compete. Fifty percent of each executive's non-compete payment will be payable in equal monthly installments during the period between six months after his termination date and the end of his non-compete period. The remaining 50% of such amount will be payable at the end of the non-compete period. If the executive dies during the non-compete period, Origen will pay all remaining non-compete payments to his estate. If payable, the non-compete payment will be in addition to any severance payment described above or change of control payment described below to which the executive is entitled.

Upon a change in control of Origen, each executive may be entitled to a change in control payment equal to 2.0 times the sum of (a) his then current base salary, and (b) fifty percent of his then-current target bonus. Each executive's change in control payment generally will be payable within five days after the first anniversary of the change of control event notwithstanding the foregoing: (i) no change of control payment will be payable if the executive is terminated for cause or resigns without good reason before the first anniversary of the change in control event, (ii) if during the six-month period following the change of control event his employment is terminated without cause by Origen or he resigns with good reason; (iii) if during the one-year period following the change of control event he dies or becomes disabled, and (iv) if Origen terminates his employment in anticipation of a change in control during a specified period before the closing of the change in control transaction. In addition to the change in control payment under their respective employment agreements, if any executive is entitled to a payment Origen must make the change of control payment six months after the executive's termination date from Origen upon a change in control or similar event under the Origen Financial, Inc. Retention Plan or any other plan or agreement. Origen will be obligated to pay only the greater of the change of control payment described in the executive's employment agreement and such other plan or agreement. If payable, the change of control payment will be in addition to any severance payment or non-compete payment described above to which the executive is entitled.

If any severance payments or change in control payments to an executive under his employment agreement collectively constitute a parachute payment under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, thereby requiring the payment of excise taxes, then Origen will gross up such payments to cover all applicable excise taxes.

For purposes of the employment agreements of each of Mr. Geater, Mr. Scherer and Mr. Landschulz, "cause", "good reason" as it relates to the executive's severance payments upon his termination of the agreement for good reason generally, and "good reason", as it relates to the executive's severance payments upon his termination of the agreement for good reason after a change of control, have the same meaning as those applicable to Mr. Klein, as described above.

Benton E. Sergi, Senior Vice President of Operations

On March 31, 2007 Mr. Sergi completed the final year of a three-year employment agreement. Discussions are currently in progress with Mr. Sergi regarding the renewal of his contract. In the meantime, under the provisions of the agreement, the term of the agreement has been automatically extended to March 31, 2008. Mr. Sergi's annual salary through March 31, 2007 was $205,000 and his annual salary for the year ending March 31, 2008 is $215,250. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Sergi is eligible for a performance bonus of up to 50% of his base salary. Under the agreement, Mr. Sergi is entitled to the following severance compensation:

- (A) if the employment agreement is terminated by Origen without cause, Origen will pay the executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary over the severance period; and
- (B) if the executive dies or becomes disabled, Origen will pay the executive an amount equal to his then-current base salary over the severance period.

Table of Contents

The severance period means 12 months with respect to Mr. Sergi.

For purposes of Mr. Sergi's employment agreement, cause means: (i) a material breach of any provision of the employment agreement by the executive (after opportunity to cure for 20 days upon receipt of notice of breach), (ii) any action (or failure to act) by the executive that involves malfeasance, fraud or moral turpitude, or which, if generally known, would or might have a material adverse effect on Origen or its reputation.

The non-competition provision of Mr. Sergi's employment agreement generally precludes the executive from engaging, directly or indirectly in the United States or Canada in the manufactured housing finance business or any ancillary business of Origen during the term of his employment with Origen and for a period of 12 months following the period he is employed by Origen, subject to certain conditions and exceptions. The executive will also be prohibited from soliciting the employment of any of Origen's other employees and diverting any business from Origen for a period of up to 12 months after termination of the employment agreement.

Table of Contents

All amounts detailed above under the heading, Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Earnings, are included in the Summary Compensation Table under the heading, Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Earnings.

Origen's non-qualified deferred compensation plan provides supplemental compensation to certain executive officers and employees on a deferred basis. It also provides Origen with key man insurance coverage for each of the named executive officers as well as certain other officers and employees. The plan was initiated by one of Origen's predecessors in year 2002, in an environment where no equity capital was available to compensate key members of management. The plan was intended to attract and maintain qualified individuals in key positions. The plan is not performance based and the investments are not directed by either the employee or Origen. The vesting amounts, vesting schedule and employee payment schedules are all fixed upon the employee's entrance into the plan. The deferred compensation under the plan vests over a ten-year period, with the first 30% vesting on the third anniversary of the employee's participation in the plan, and the remainder vesting at a rate of 10% per year, until the tenth anniversary of the employee's participation in the plan. The deferred compensation is paid to the employee, in a lump sum, following the tenth anniversary of the participant's enrollment in the plan. If a participant's employment is terminated for any reason after the third anniversary, but before the tenth anniversary, of his or her enrollment in the plan, Origen will pay the participant his or her vested portion of the deferred compensation, in a lump sum, following the tenth anniversary of his or her enrollment in the plan. If a participant dies before he or she has been enrolled in the plan for ten years, Origen has no obligation to pay any amount to the participant or the participant's beneficiaries. Origen closed the plan to any new participants after year 2005.

Origen's predecessor adopted a split-dollar life insurance plan that, through individual life insurance policies, provides death benefits to a participant's beneficiaries and coordinates with the deferred compensation plan described above. Under the split-dollar plan, Origen is the sole owner of each life insurance policy and pays all premiums due under the policies. Upon a participant's death, a portion of the death benefit is paid to Origen. It is intended that the policies under the split-dollar plan provide key man insurance benefits to Origen, and the cash build-up in the policies is intended to fund the payment of benefits under the deferred compensation plan described above. Participation in the split-dollar plan terminates upon the earlier of a participant's death or the tenth anniversary of a participant's enrollment in the deferred compensation plan. In addition, the split-dollar plan will be terminated, as to all participants, upon the total cessation of Origen's business, if Origen files for bankruptcy, if it is put into receivership or if it is dissolved. Upon the plan's termination, participants have the right to acquire the life insurance policy from Origen for the then current cash surrender value of the policy.

Disclosure Regarding Termination and Change In Control Provisions

The following table describes and quantifies potential payments to named executive officers under existing contracts and agreements that provide for payments in the event of any termination of employment or change of control event (each, a triggering event). Termination of employment includes severance, constructive termination and resignation. Currently there are no contracts or agreements in place that provide for any form of retirement benefits, and accordingly, retirement is excluded from the definition of a termination of employment for purposes of this table. For illustrative purposes, a triggering event is assumed to have occurred on the last business day of 2006. See the section entitled Material Information Relating to the Summary Compensation Table and Grants of Plan Based Awards

Employment Agreements for additional information regarding the named executive officers' rights upon a triggering event. Also see Employment Agreements for a narrative description of the triggering events and compensation payable to each of Messrs. Klein, Geater, Scherer and Landschulz upon the occurrence of a triggering event. The following table also quantifies such payments.

In June 2006, Origen adopted the Origen Financial, Inc. Retention Plan, which was implemented in order to provide plan participants with reasonable and fair protection from the risks presented by the possibility of a change of control. Participants in the plan may receive payments upon a change of control of Origen. To date, none of the named executive officers nor any other employee, director or other person has been designated to participate in the Retention Plan. The level of participation in the plan will be at the discretion of the Compensation Committee.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Gary A. Shiffman, one of the Origen's directors, is the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Sun Communities, Inc., which owns approximately 19% of Origen's outstanding common stock. Mr. Shiffman beneficially owns approximately 19% of Origen's outstanding stock, which amount includes his deemed beneficial ownership of the stock owned by Sun Communities, Inc. Mr. Shiffman and his affiliates beneficially own approximately 11% of the outstanding common stock of Sun Communities, Inc. He is the President of Sun Home Services, Inc. (Sun Home), of which Sun Communities, Inc. is the sole beneficial owner.

Origen Servicing, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Origen Financial L.L.C., serviced approximately $20.7 million in manufactured housing loans for Sun Home as of December 31, 2006. Servicing fees paid by Sun Home to Origen Servicing, Inc. were approximately $0.3 million during the year ended December 31, 2006.

Origen has agreed to fund loans that meet Sun Home's underwriting guidelines and then transfer those loans to Sun Home pursuant to a commitment fee arrangement. Origen recognizes no gain or loss on the transfer of these loans. Origen funded approximately $8.0 million in loans and transferred approximately $7.9 million in loans under this agreement during the year ended December 31, 2006. Origen recognized fee income under this agreement of approximately $160,000 during the year ended December 31, 2006.

Sun Home has purchased certain repossessed houses owned by Origen and located in manufactured housing communities owned by Sun Communities, Inc., subject to Sun Home's prior approval. Under this agreement, Origen sold to Sun Home approximately $1.2 million of repossessed houses during the year ended December 31, 2006. This program allows Origen to further enhance recoveries on repossessed houses and allows Sun Home to retain houses for resale in its communities.

During the year ended December 31, 2006, Origen Financial L.L.C. repurchased approximately $4.2 million in loans from Sun Homes. The purchase price, which included a premium of approximately $20,000, approximated fair value.

Origen leases its executive offices in Southfield, Michigan from an entity in which Mr. Shiffman and certain of his affiliates beneficially own approximately a 21% interest. Ronald A. Klein, a director and the Chief Executive Officer of Origen, owns less than a 1% interest in the landlord entity. William M. Davidson, the sole member of Woodward Holding, LLC, which owns approximately 7% of Origen's common stock, beneficially owns an approximate 14% interest in the landlord entity. Origen recorded rental expense for these offices of approximately $465,000 for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Table of Contents

Policies and Procedures for Approval of Related Party Transactions

Under Origen's written Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, none of its directors, officers or employees may enter into any transaction or arrangement with Origen that creates a conflict of interest without prior disclosure to and review by Origen's Compliance Committee (which consists of the Chairman of the Audit Committee, the Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee and a representative of Origen's outside legal counsel. The Compliance Committee must attempt to find ways to reduce or eliminate the conflict and monitor conflicts to ensure that Origen's interests are protected. In practice, the Compliance Committee typically refers such matters to the Board for its consideration and approval. In determining whether to approve such a transaction or arrangement, the Board takes into account, among other factors, whether the transaction was on terms no less favorable to Origen than terms generally available to third parties and the extent of the director's, officer's or employee's involvement in such transaction or arrangement.

The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics was adopted and approved in January 2004. All related party transactions entered into that are disclosed above were approved by the Board, except for the loan repurchases from Sun Homes. The terms of the repurchases were disclosed to the Board before the repurchases and the Board determined that the repurchases were on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable arms-length transactions with unrelated parties.
