ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

GENERAL

eResource Capital Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries ("RCG", "We" or the "Company") is a network of travel and entertainment and technology services companies brought together under one operating company to benefit from synergistic relationships and the infusion of intellectual and capital resources. The Company is engaged in the operation of aviation travel services, home technology and technology solutions businesses and a call center operation. RCG is a Delaware corporation incorporated in 1982. The Company's fiscal year ends on June 30.

In fiscal 2001, the Company brought in new executive management and modified its business plan to focus on acquiring and enhancing travel and entertainment and technology services companies and, as a result, acquired companies in the telecommunications call center, home technology and technology solutions business segments. The Company also brought in new management to its aviation business and completed the acquisition of an aviation services company that, together, have expanded that business into a highly specialized travel organization that delivers a unique turnkey air service. This air travel services business generated $62 million and $27 million in revenue in fiscal years 2003 and 2002, respectively, and has contracts with two affiliates of the largest air inclusive tour operator in the world. As a result of this growth, the Company has increased its focus on the travel and entertainment sector and plans to continue to acquire substantial interests in, operate and enhance the value of expansion phase companies operating in the travel and entertainment sectors. The Company is in the early phases of our expanded strategy and continues to focus on existing operations as well as our efforts to implement this strategy.

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

At different times prior to fiscal 2000, the Company operated businesses in several industries including drug-screening, computer software and residential and commercial real estate development, all of which have been discontinued. During fiscal 2000, the Company, under the name flightserv.com, Inc. was engaged in the development of an Internet website to provide access to private aviation travel services. In March 2000, the Company launched its private aviation program, called Private Seats™. The Company was able to generate only minimal customer bookings through the Private Seats™ program and did not book any flights under this program after June 2000.

In October 2000, the Company changed its name to eResource Capital Group, Inc. to reflect the new business direction.

AVIATION TRAVEL SERVICES

The Company acquired Internet Aviation Services, Ltd. (IASL), a leisure and business travel services company which provided charter aviation services, in August 2000. IASL was integrated into our aviation travel services business through our flightserv subsidiary.

flightserv.com, Inc. (flightserv), headquartered in Atlanta, GA, is a nationally recognized airline and travel program management company providing tour operators, corporate travel departments, sports teams and casinos with cost effective and reliable charter air transportation on a scheduled and ad-hoc basis. flightserv acts as a program manager by providing turnkey charter services including aircraft and related services such as ground support and aircraft fueling, passenger service and support, and real-time flight tracking. flightserv also provides its clients with Internet-ready reservations services and aviation consulting. flightserv differentiates itself in the charter travel industry by focusing on full program management services, which combines the functions of aircraft brokerage, flight operations, airport operations, contract negotiation between clients and air service providers, airport subsidy negotiations and consumer marketing. flightserv does not own or operate any aircraft.

flightserv has an agreement with Vacation Express, a member of the MyTravel Group, ending in December 2004, to operate a passenger hub at Atlanta Hartsfield Airport. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, six commercial jet aircraft originate in six eastern and mid-western cities and serves six Caribbean destinations. Also, in July 2002, flightserv entered into a three-year agreement with Suntrips, Inc., a sister company of Vacation Express in the MyTravel Group, to operate scheduled weekly flights between three west coast cities and two Mexican destinations. The majority of the revenue of flightserv and the Company is generated pursuant to these contracts. During the three month period ended June 30, 2003, sales to Vacation Express, represented approximately 76% of the Company's consolidated revenue. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, sales to Vacation Express represented approximately 73% of consolidated revenue.

In fiscal 2002 and 2003, flightserv developed and implemented a trial scheduled charter flight operation d/b/a Interstate Jet. Initial service began between Allentown PA/Newburgh NY and Las Vegas NV/Los Angeles CA. The origination cities were chosen as a result of direct cash subsidies and marketing support from the respective airport authorities. While the first trials of these cities did not yield adequate passenger loads and yields to break even, flightserv plans to continue to work with airport authorities to develop and implement new scheduled air service to minimize reliance on fixed length tour operator contracts.

During fiscal year 2003, flightserv started two joint ventures, flightfuel, Inc. (flightfuel) and Platinum Air Charter, LLC (Platinum), with initial investments of $5,000 and $60,000, respectively. Both are 50% owned by flightserv. flightfuel began operations in January, 2003 and provides fuel management services to its clients. flightfuel has temporarily suspended further fuel sales, while it seeks to recover through litigation past due fuel amounts (approximately $360,000) from a former client. Platinum, a Dallas, Texas based company, began operations in July, 2003 and provides charter air program management services to its clients. Platinum specializes in charter flights that can utilize smaller non-commercial airports (FBO s). Platinum currently has contracts primarily with casinos and NCAA colleges.

HOME TECHNOLOGY

The Company operates its home technology business through Lifestyle Innovations, Inc. (Lifestyle), a separate publicly traded company of which the Company owns approximately 77% of the outstanding common stock. Lifestyle is a full service home technology integration company providing complete installation and equipment for structured wiring, home security, PC networking, home audio, home theater, central vacuum and accent lighting. Lifestyle creates relationships with high-end residential homebuilders (those that build residences with value equal to or greater than $250,000) and provides such homebuilders with a basic structured wiring and security package in exchange for an agreement to introduce the homeowner to a Lifestyle sales consultant and to offer the homeowner a visit to the local Lifestyle showroom. While in the showroom, the homeowner is introduced to the complete line of home security, entertainment, lighting, and home office options. Lifestyle has also secured relationships with product manufacturers, distributors and service providers (cable, Internet service provider, broadband and security) to ensure the highest quality and most attractive pricing for the homeowners' needs.

During fiscal 2001, Lifestyle expanded from its headquarters in Charlotte, NC to Raleigh, NC; Greenville, SC; Columbia, SC and Hilton Head, SC. In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2001, Lifestyle began development of a national franchising program, which was implemented in September 2001. In connection with the franchising program through June 2002, Lifestyle sold its Raleigh, Hilton Head, Greenville and Columbia locations to franchisees and has sold franchises in 14 total markets.

On April 3, 2001, the Company acquired Lifestyle in exchange of 1,153,525 shares of Common Stock pursuant to certain stock purchase agreements. Including direct acquisition costs, the total purchase price aggregated $7,695,586 and the transaction was recorded using the purchase method of accounting. The excess value of the purchase price over the fair value of Lifestyle's net assets on the acquisition date aggregating $8,069,669 was allocated to goodwill.

On July 10, 2001, the Company, through Lifestyle, acquired certain net assets, liabilities and the business of a home technology company located in Atlanta, GA for an aggregate purchase price of $1,255,000, which was paid by delivery of a cash payment ($275,000), Common Stock (139,365 shares) and a four-year term promissory note ($250,000). Including direct acquisition costs, the total purchase price for this business, which is operated as Lifestyle Technologies Atlanta, Inc. (LSTA) aggregated $1,260,000 and the transaction was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The excess value of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets on the acquisition date aggregated approximately $1,208,000, which was allocated to goodwill.

On September 5, 2002 the Company closed the sale (the LFSI Transaction) of its subsidiary LST, Inc. (LST) to Lifestyle Innovations, Inc. (LFSI). LFSI is a fully reporting company whose common stock is publicly traded on the over the counter market. The Company's consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with all publicly available information of LFSI. Pursuant to this transaction, LST became a wholly-owned subsidiary of LFSI and the Company received 16,000,000 shares of LFSI restricted common stock, which represented approximately 77% of the outstanding stock of LFSI at the closing date. LFSI agreed to complete a registration statement within 90 days of closing (the Triggering Date) to register the shares of LFSI common stock received by the Company in the LFSI Transaction. LFSI issued an option to the Company for 1,000,000 shares of LFSI common stock at 20% of the last bid price for the LFSI common stock on the Triggering Date. Such option was exercisable only if the registration statement was not filed by the Triggering Date. As a result of the acquisition of FutureSmart Systems, Inc. (FutureSmart) by LFSI, the Company and LFSI agreed to extend the deadline for the registration statement to May 31, 2003, or a later date consistent with any registration rights associated with the acquisition of FutureSmart or otherwise, or as the parties mutually agree. The registration statement has not been completed and therefore the LFSI common stock held by the Company remains restricted. The LFSI Transaction added approximately $320,000 of cash, $50,000 of which was received in fiscal 2002, and $65,000 of other assets to the existing assets of LST. Additionally, in September 2002 and subsequent to the closing of the LFSI Transaction, LFSI received approximately an additional $870,000 in equity funding from its private placements.

In connection with LFSI's acquisition of FutureSmart as discussed below, the Company agreed that for a period equal to the lesser of (i) March 3, 2005, and (ii) one (1) year from the registration of the shares of common stock of the FutureSmart shareholders, in the event that the Company proposes to transfer fifteen percent (15%) or more of the shares of LFSI's capital stock owned by the Company (other than registered offerings, sales to certain investors, and related party sales), then certain of the FutureSmart shareholders shall have the right to participate in such transfer of stock on the same terms and conditions, and the number of shares of LFSI stock that the Company may sell in the transaction shall be correspondingly reduced; provided, however, that the aggregate number of shares that the FutureSmart shareholders may sell in any proposed sale transaction may not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of shares to be sold by the Company.

On May 28, 2003 the Board of Directors of the Company approved a plan to dispose of FutureSmart. Accordingly, its operations since March 7, 2003 have been included in discontinued operations.

LFSI completed its acquisition of FutureSmart effective March 7, 2003 after which date the results of operations of FutureSmart are included in the consolidated financial statements. The purchase price of $876,910 consisted of the issuance of 1,000,000 shares of LFSI's $.10 par value preferred stock, a bridge loan by LFSI to FutureSmart of $224,830 and $552,080 in direct transaction costs.

The acquisition of FutureSmart was accounted for as a purchase in accordance with SFAS No. 141, and the Company has accordingly allocated the purchase price of FutureSmart based upon the fair values of the net assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The allocation of the purchase price resulted in the Company recording goodwill in the amount of $2,939,072.

Pursuant to the acquisition agreement, the shareholders of FutureSmart could receive Earn out Consideration of up to 1,200,000 LFSI common shares if FutureSmart achieves certain Performance Milestones.

FutureSmart is a manufacturer of structured wiring and home networking systems. FutureSmart develops and distributes home technology products designed to meet the current and future needs of homeowners for computer networking, audio/video distribution and home automation.

The Company records minority interest, which represents the minority shareholders' share of income or losses of LFSI, a consolidated subsidiary. The minority interest in the consolidated balance sheet reflects the original investment by these minority shareholders in this consolidated subsidiary, along with their proportional share of the losses of the subsidiary. Minority interest also reflects LFSI's subsequent sales of LFSI common stock, issuance of common stock warrants and preferred stock, and the Company's cost basis in LFSI stock sold.

TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS

Our technology solutions business is the result of our acquisitions of Avenel Alliance, Inc. (Avenel Alliance) in February 2001 and Logisoft Corp. (f/k/a Logisoft Computer Products Corp., Logisoft), and its wholly-owned subsidiary eStorefronts.net Corp. in June 2001. Avenel Alliance was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Avenel Ventures, Inc. (Avenel Ventures), which was also acquired by us in February 2001 and integrated into our corporate unit.

Our technology solutions business provides integrated products and services to assist customers in meeting their strategic technology initiatives. Our products and services include distribution of third-party published software titles to the educational market and corporate customers, full service Internet development, Internet site hosting and co-location and Internet business development services encompassing partner site management and marketing. In our Internet business development and marketing services business, we generally participate in the development and implementation of the business plan in exchange for revenue-sharing and/or equity-based arrangements.

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

On February 13, 2001, the Company acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Avenel Ventures, and its wholly-owned subsidiary Avenel Alliance, in exchange of 957,143 shares of Common Stock pursuant to a stock purchase agreement dated as of November 8, 2000. The total purchase price aggregated $6,834,000 and the transaction was recorded using the purchase method of accounting. The excess value of the purchase price over the fair value of Avenel Ventures' net assets on the acquisition date aggregating $5,610,000 was allocated to goodwill. This goodwill was allocated to the technology solutions business segment, except for, $1,000,000 that was allocated to the Company's Corporate segment in the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (FASB) No. 142.

On June 19, 2001, the Company acquired Logisoft in exchange of 785,714 shares of Common Stock pursuant to that certain agreement and plan of merger. The total purchase price aggregated $5,504,879 and the transaction was recorded using the purchase method of accounting. The excess value of the purchase price over the fair value of Logisoft's net assets on the acquisition date aggregating $4,146,000 was allocated to goodwill. The aggregate purchase price and goodwill were both adjusted in fiscal 2002 by $42,000 to reflect the issuance of earn-out shares to certain members of Logisoft's management.

On June 10, 2003 eStorefronts.net Corporation, 100% owned by Logisoft, a subsidiary of the Company, purchased a 75% interest in Premier Shoe Group, LLC (Premier) for $187,000. A one-year 10% note of $147,000 was signed at closing and $40,000 cash was paid. Premier operates a website named 123Shoes.com which sells brand name shoes. The results of Premier will be consolidated on Logisoft's financial statements and the portion of income or loss attributable to the minority interest as an increase or decrease to the minority interest recorded.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS CALL CENTER

We operate our telecommunications call center business through our subsidiary DM Marketing, Inc. (DMM). DMM operates a thirty-five seat telecommunications call center located in Pensacola, Florida which is equipped to provide telemarketing, help desk and other services to companies.

In December 2002, the Company's aviation travel services business assumed operational responsibility of the call center operations located in Pensacola FL. Investments have been made in new reservations software, related computer equipment, and additional employees to support increased call volumes associated with the Company's Interstate Jet programs. The Southeast Airlines Club 59 program has been discontinued due to reduced call volumes from Southeast and the reservations center is now focusing on the Interstate Jet programs.

In January 2003, DMM was operated and managed by flightserv and provided in-bound reservations call center services to Southeast Airlines and flightserv's Interstate Jet. From January through June 2003 DMM booked approximately 65,000 passenger segment reservations for Southeast Airlines and Interstate Jet.

RECENT BUSINESS DEVELOPMENTS

During the first quarter of fiscal year 2004, the Company received funding from private investors of $50,000 at $.25 per share and $938,000 at $1.12 per share. During August 2003, the Company converted certain debt and certain accounts payable totaling $879,779 to common stock at $1.12 per share.

On September 1, 2003, DMM, a subsidiary of the Company, closed the Pensacola, FL call center facility. DMM is currently negotiating with the landlord for alternative uses of the Pensacola location, or a negotiated lease buyout for the present lease which expires in June 2004. Future DMM programs will be managed by flightserv.com, Inc., either at its existing office in Atlanta, GA or new space depending on the size and profit projections of the specific program.

FACTORS AFFECTING FUTURE RESULTS AND FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The Company's business, results of operations and financial condition are subject to many risks, including those set forth below. The following discussion highlights some of these risks and others are discussed elsewhere herein or in other documents filed by the Company with the SEC. In addition, statements in this report relating to matters that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements based on management's belief and assumptions using currently available information. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot give any assurances that these expectations will prove to be correct. Such statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those set forth below.

WE MAY NEED TO RAISE ADDITIONAL FUNDS IN ORDER TO CONTINUE TO OPERATE AND GROW OUR BUSINESS.

The Company believes that its existing balances of cash and cash equivalents and investments will be sufficient to meet working capital and capital expenditure requirements of our continuing operations through the end of fiscal 2004. If we are unable to grow our business or improve our operating cash flows as expected, we suffer significant losses on our investments or are unable to realize adequate proceeds from those investments, including our holdings of LFSI stock, then we will need to secure alternative debt or equity financing to provide us with additional working capital. However, there can be no assurance that we will be able to complete such financing if required. If we raise funds through debt financing, then we will incur additional interest expense going forward. If we raise additional funds by issuing additional equity securities, then the percentage ownership of our current stockholders will be diluted. We cannot be certain that additional financing will be available when and to the extent required or that, if available, it will be on acceptable terms. In addition, our ability to complete future financings may be affected by the market price of our Common Stock. If adequate funds are not available on acceptable terms, then we will not be able to continue to fund our existing businesses or our planned expansion or take other steps necessary to enhance our business or continue our operations.

WE HAVE BEEN INCURRING OPERATING LOSSES AND THERE CAN BE NO ASSURANCE THAT WE WILL ACHIEVE OR SUSTAIN PROFITABILITY.

We incurred operating losses in our fiscal years ended June 30, 2003, 2002, 2001 and 2000. Certain of our other operating businesses have incurred and continue to incur operating losses. In particular, we have, and continue to, incur operating losses in connection with our efforts to grow our home technology business. We expect to continue to incur significant operating costs in connection with our efforts to expand our existing businesses and to grow through acquisitions. As a result of these costs and uncertain revenue growth, there can be no assurance that we will achieve or sustain profitability for any annual period.

THE PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCK HAS BEEN VOLATILE.

The stock market in general, and the market for travel, entertainment and technology services companies has recently experienced extreme volatility. Similarly, the per share trading price of our Common Stock during the year ended June 30, 2003, as reported by the American Stock Exchange, fluctuated from a high of $1.50 to a low of $0.26. Fluctuations in the price of our Common Stock may occur, among other reasons, in response to:

- operating results;
- regulatory changes;
- economic changes;
- market valuation of firms in related businesses; and
- general market conditions.

In addition, the volume of shares of our Common Stock bought and sold on any trading day has been subject to wide fluctuations which also contributes to fluctuations in the trading price of our Common Stock. The trading price of our Common Stock could continue to be subject to wide fluctuations in response to these or other factors, many of which are beyond our control. If the market price of our Common Stock decreases, stockholders may not be able to sell their shares of Common Stock at a profit.

WE MAY BE UNABLE TO MAINTAIN OUR LISTING ON THE AMERICAN STOCK EXCHANGE.

Our Common Stock is presently listed and trading on the American Stock Exchange (the Exchange). The Exchange has previously raised the question of whether the Company meets the qualifications for continued listing and may raise such questions in the future. The Company believes that it meets the standards for continued listing but such a determination is subjective and no assurance can be given that the Exchange will agree or that our Common Stock will be trading on the Exchange at the time that the stockholders are able to sell shares under applicable securities laws.

CERTAIN OF OUR BUSINESSES HAVE LIMITED OPERATING HISTORIES.

We acquired DMM, IASL, Avenel Ventures, and its subsidiary Avenel Alliance, and Lifestyle during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001. DMM was formed in October 1998 and IASL, Avenel Ventures and Lifestyle were each formed during calendar year 2000. Each of these companies has incurred losses since their inception and has a limited operating history. Furthermore, due to these losses, we have significantly curtailed the operations of Avenel Ventures and DMM. As a result, there is limited information upon which to base an evaluation of these components of our business and their prospects. You should evaluate the chances of financial and operating success of these businesses in view of the risks, uncertainties, expenses, delays and difficulties associated with starting new businesses.

WE HAVE BEEN UNSUCCESSFUL IN IMPLEMENTING OUR PRIOR BUSINESS PLANS, HAVE RECENTLY MODIFIED OUR BUSINESS PLAN AND MAY NOT BE ABLE TO SUCCESSFULLY IMPLEMENT OUR CURRENT BUSINESS PLAN.

During our fiscal year ended June 30, 2000, we incurred substantial expenses developing our Private Seats™ program. We were unable to generate sufficient customer use of our Private Seats™ program and had to discontinue the service shortly after it was launched. As a result, we made a decision to diversify through the acquisitions of DMM, IASL, Avenel Ventures, Lifestyle and Logisoft in fiscal 2001, expanding our business plan to attempt to acquire expansion-stage travel, entertainment and technology services companies. At the same time, we have had a change in our executive team. However, we have limited resources and there can be no assurance that we will be able to implement our expanded business plan or achieve profitability. In addition, if we are not successful in implementing our strategy or if we otherwise believe it to be in our best interest, then we may modify or change our business plans.

WE MAY BE UNABLE TO SUCCESSFULLY EXECUTE OUR ACQUISITION STRATEGY.

We anticipate that a portion of our future growth will be accomplished through acquisitions. The success of this plan depends upon our ability to:

identify suitable acquisition opportunities;

effectively integrate acquired personnel, operations, products and technologies into our organization;

retain and motivate the personnel of acquired businesses;

retain customers of acquired businesses; and obtain necessary financing on acceptable terms or use Common Stock as consideration for acquisitions.

In addition, turbulence in financial markets and the slowdown in the U.S. economy may result in a diminished pool of companies that meet our criteria for acquisition. Even if we are successful in acquiring companies, we may be unable to integrate them into our business model or achieve the expected synergies.

OUR ACQUISITION STRATEGY HAS AND WILL CONTINUE TO DILUTE OUR CURRENT STOCKHOLDERS' OWNERSHIP.

Our acquisition strategy contemplates that we will continue to issue shares of our Common Stock to make strategic acquisitions and attempt to grow our business. However, each of the acquisitions that we complete in the future, involving the issuance of Common Stock, will further dilute our current stockholders' ownership interest in the Company.

WE FACE COMPETITION FROM OTHER ACQUIRORS AND INVESTORS WHICH MAY PREVENT US FROM REALIZING STRATEGIC OPPORTUNITIES.

We plan to acquire or invest in existing companies to fulfill our business plan. In pursuing these opportunities, we face competition from other capital providers and operators of companies, including publicly-traded companies, venture capital companies and large corporations. Some of these competitors have greater financial, operational and human resources than we do. This competition may limit our opportunity to acquire interests in companies that we believe could help us fulfill our business plan and increase our value.

OUR SUBSIDIARIES FACE SIGNIFICANT COMPETITION.

Our success depends on our ability to grow our subsidiaries' businesses, all of which operate in highly competitive business segments. Many of our subsidiaries' competitors have substantially greater financial, operational and human resources than we do. As a result, our subsidiaries may be unable to compete successfully with such competitors.

OUR GROWTH PLACES STRAIN ON OUR MANAGERIAL, OPERATIONAL AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES.

Our growth has placed, and is expected to continue to place, a significant strain on our managerial, operational and financial resources. Further growth will increase this strain on our managerial, operational and financial resources, which may inhibit our ability to successfully implement our business plan.

WE DEPEND ON CERTAIN IMPORTANT EMPLOYEES, AND THE LOSS OF ANY OF THOSE EMPLOYEES MAY HARM OUR BUSINESS.

Our performance is substantially dependent on the performance of our executive officers, Michael D. Pruitt and Melinda Morris Zanon and other key employees. The familiarity of these key employees with the technology industry and the familiarity of the key employees of our charter aviation business, Kent Elsbree and Cary Evans, with the charter services business makes them especially critical to our success. In addition, our success is dependent on our ability to attract, train, retain and motivate high quality personnel, especially for our management team. The loss of the services of any of our executive officers or key employees may harm our business. Our success also depends on our continuing ability to attract, train, retain and motivate other highly qualified technical and managerial personnel. Competition for such personnel is intense and our limited resources are likely to make it more difficult for us to attract and retain such personnel.

OUR AVIATION TRAVEL SERVICES BUSINESS IS DEPENDENT UPON A FEW, KEY CUSTOMERS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS.

During the three month periods ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, sales to Vacation Express, a MyTravel Group company and a customer of the Company's aviation travel services business, represented 76% and 63%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue. For the years then ended, sales to Vacation Express represented 73% and 54%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue. This concentration of revenue with Vacation Express, and its sister company, Suntrips, Inc. (Suntrips), increased in July 2002 with the beginning of a new program for Suntrips.

If these customers default under the contracts that they presently have with the Company, or otherwise are unable to fulfill their obligations under such contracts, the Company's aviation travel services business would suffer operating losses which may result in a material adverse impact on the Company's financial position and its ability to continue operations.

The Company's aviation travel services business generally contracts with one to two carriers for each of the long-term tour operator contracts discussed above. While this concentration generally reduces the costs of the carrier service, if one or more of these carriers is unable to perform under its contract, our aviation travel services business may experience service interruptions which could reduce its revenue. Additionally, the Company's aviation travel services business may be forced to replace such a carrier which could result in higher operating costs for the carrier services, thereby reducing profitability.

The Company's aviation travel services business has a dispute of approximately $2.3 million with Pace Airlines, Inc. (Pace) related to amounts due to Pace for calendar year 2002 for shortages related to guaranteed flying revenue and expenses associated with relocating the air hub with the Vacation Express contract. Management believes these claims to be baseless and no funds are due Pace. In the event that funds were ultimately determined to be due Pace, management believes the payment responsibility would be with Vacation Express, or their parent company, My Travel. Accordingly a liability has not been booked in fiscal year 2003.

FUTURE EVENTS SIMILAR TO THOSE OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2001 MAY HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESSES.

The terrorist attack against the United States on September 11, 2001 produced great uncertainty in the economy in general and in the aviation industry in particular. Industry reports indicate that these events are still having a negative impact on the air travel industry. These events may drastically alter the long-term demand for charter services. In addition, these events may lead the Federal Aviation Administration to place additional restrictions on charter flight operators, which may increase the cost of private charter services. The long-term impact of these events on the aviation industry and the chartered services segment of that industry are not known. These events could have a material adverse effect on our aviation travel services business including the operation of our charter hub service through Atlanta, Georgia.

Also, additional terrorist attacks against the United States could produce uncertainty in the financial markets, which could negatively effect economic performance of the United States. These events could also have a material adverse effect on our home technology business and our other business segments.

IF OUR AVIATION TRAVEL SERVICES BUSINESS DOES NOT PRODUCE REVENUE AS FORECASTED, THEN WE WILL NEED TO RAISE ADDITIONAL CAPITAL SOONER THAN EXPECTED.

Pursuant to an agreement with a major tour operator, we created and operate a passenger hub at Atlanta's Hartsfield Airport. Pursuant to the terms of the related agreement, aircraft originate in six eastern and mid-western cities and serve six Caribbean destinations. This program began operations in December 2001. This agreement represents the majority of our fiscal 2003 aviation services revenue, and along with a similar three year agreement to service several Mexican destinations from several western cities that flightserv signed in July 2002, is expected to comprise the majority of our revenue in fiscal 2004. However, due in part to the slowdown and uncertainty in the economy in general and in the air travel industry in particular, there can be no guarantee that the revenue from these agreements will materialize. In fact, our customer for the Atlanta hub operation has reduced its scheduled flights between August 2003 and December 2003. These schedule changes are expected to reduce the Company's aviation services revenue, from the original schedule by approximately $1 million and gross profit during that period by $100,000. If our aviation travel services business does not generate the forecasted revenue, then our aviation travel services business may not operate profitably and we would not be able to offset any operating losses in other business segments or corporate expenses. As a result, we would need to raise additional capital, through debt or equity financing, sooner than expected.

AVIATION SERVICES CONTRACTS MAY RESULT IN LOSSES.

The Company actively pursues opportunities to operate scheduled and ad-hoc charter service outside of its two primary aviation services contracts with major tour operators, in order to utilize capacity on aircraft that it has under contract. These programs often require the Company to provide such services for a fixed fee or with limited ability to pass along increases in operating costs over the amounts estimated during the bid process. If actual operating costs are higher than forecast, the Company may lose money on such programs and these losses may exceed the operating profit generated on other aviation travel services contracts. For example, in fiscal 2003, the Company's Interstate Jet and DMM reservations center lost approximately $550,000 for the fiscal year due primarily to start up costs associated with the DMM reservation center, lower than anticipated load and yield factors for Interstate Jet and higher than anticipated fuel and aircraft costs. Management believes that passenger demand was significantly adversely effected by the war in Iraq, which coincided with the startup of some of the scheduled Interstate Jet service.

GOVERNMENT REGULATION OF THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY COULD IMPACT OUR AVIATION TRAVEL SERVICES BUSINESS OPERATIONS.

Certain segments of the travel industry are regulated by the United States Government and, while we are not currently required to be certified or licensed under such regulation, certain services offered by our aviation travel services business are affected by such regulation. Charter flights operators, upon which our aviation travel services business depends, are subject to vigorous and continuous certification requirements by the Federal Aviation Administration. Changes in the regulatory framework for charter aviation travel could adversely affect our aviation travel services business' operations and financial condition.

OUR AVIATION TRAVEL SERVICES BUSINESS FACES INTENSE COMPETITION FOR CUSTOMERS FROM THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY.

We provide leisure charter jet travel and face intense competition from commercial airlines for the potential customers who travel to these locations and other locations that we may serve in the future. These commercial airlines have greater resources, marketing efforts and brand equity than we do and they also offer a potential customer more flights to these locations. Furthermore, travelers have numerous choices of location when choosing travel destinations. Since we offer only limited travel destinations, we face intense competition from travel agents, commercial airlines, hotels, resorts, casinos and other organizations in the travel industry that offer alternative travel destinations to those offered by us. Such competitors possess far greater capital and human resources, marketing efforts and brand equity than we do. If we are unable to compete effectively with these various competitors in the travel industry, we may not be able to maintain profitability.

HOME TECHNOLOGY BUSINESS MAY NOT ACHIEVE OR SUSTAIN PROFITABILITY.

Our home technology business began operations in March 2000 and since then has not achieved profitability for a sustained period of time. Through our home technology business, we provide homeowners complete installation and equipment for structured wiring, home security, PC networking, home audio, home theater, central vacuum and accent lighting. We also provide similar services to the commercial market. Our planned expansion of this business through franchising and entering new markets may fail due to intense competition from competitors in the residential technology industry who have greater capital, technical, operational, marketing and human resources and greater experience and brand equity than we do. Furthermore, we may have overestimated the depth of the residential technology industry and the demand for our home technology products. Our inability to execute the expansion plan of Lifestyle and to attract and retain customers for this business would likely result in our home technology business continuing to operate at a loss.

OUR EFFORTS TO GROW OUR HOME TECHNOLOGY BUSINESS THROUGH THE SALE OF FRANCHISES MAY NOT SUCCEED.

We began franchising our home technology business in September 2001. There is no guarantee that efforts to franchise our home technology business model will be successful. To the extent we are successful in selling franchises, we may incur significant costs related to supervising and monitoring our franchisees and protecting our proprietary rights associated with our business model. Furthermore, franchise operations are regulated by the federal and state governments and compliance with such regulations may cause us to incur additional costs. We cannot be certain that we will generate adequate revenue from our franchise activities to offset these costs.

OUR TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS BUSINESS GENERALLY DOES NOT HAVE LONG-TERM CONTRACTS.

The clients of our technology solutions business are generally retained on project-by-project basis, rather than pursuant to long-term contracts. As a result, a client may or may not engage us for further services once a project is completed or may unilaterally reduce the scope of, or terminate, existing projects. The absence of long-term contracts creates an uncertain revenue stream, which could negatively affect the financial condition of our technology solutions business.

THE DEVELOPING MARKET FOR STRATEGIC INTERNET SERVICES AND THE LEVEL OF ACCEPTANCE OF THE INTERNET AS A BUSINESS MEDIUM WILL AFFECT OUR TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS BUSINESS.

The market for strategic Internet services is relatively new and is evolving rapidly. The future growth of our technology solutions business is dependent upon the ability of such business to provide strategic Internet services that are accepted by existing and future clients. Demand and market acceptance for recently introduced services are subject to a high level of uncertainty. The level of demand and acceptance of strategic Internet services is dependent upon a number of factors, including:

- the growth in consumer access to and acceptance of new interactive technologies such as the Internet;
- companies adopting Internet-based business models;
- the development of technologies that facilitate two-way communication between companies and targeted audiences;
- the level of capital spending on Internet, technology and communications initiatives; and
- the extent and nature of any domestic or international regulation of e-business or uses of the Internet.

Significant issues concerning the commercial use of these technologies include security, reliability, cost, ease of use and quality of service. These issues remain unresolved and may inhibit the growth of Internet business solutions that utilize these technologies.

Industry analysts and others may have made many predictions concerning the growth of the Internet as a business medium. You should not rely upon these predictions. Recently, the market for strategic Internet services in particular has contracted. If the market for strategic Internet services fails to develop, or develops more slowly than expected, or if the services provided by our technology solutions business do not achieve market acceptance, then revenue and operating results of such business may be volatile and our technology solutions business may be unable to achieve or sustain operating profits.

OUR TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS BUSINESS MAY NOT BE ABLE TO KEEP UP WITH THE CONTINUOUS TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE IN ITS MARKET.

The success of our technology solutions business will depend, in part, on its ability to respond to technological advances. This business may not be successful in responding quickly, cost-effectively and sufficiently to these developments. Many of the competitors of our technology solutions business are larger than we are and have significantly more financial resources to invest in advances in technology, products, engagement methodology and other areas central to providing technology and Internet solutions. Our technology solutions business will not be able to compete effectively or meet its growth objectives if it is unable, for technical, financial or other reasons, to adapt in a timely manner in response to technological advances. In addition, employee time allocated to responding to technological advances will not be available for client engagements.

THE SUCCESS OF OUR TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS BUSINESS IS LARGELY DEPENDENT UPON ITS ABILITY TO RETAIN ITS MANUFACTURER AUTHORIZATIONS THAT ALLOW IT TO SELL SOFTWARE TO EDUCATIONAL CUSTOMERS AT DISCOUNTED PRICING.

Our technology solutions business has been accumulating authorizations from key software manufacturers that allow it to sell products to educational facilities at deep discounts. If our technology solutions business were to lose any of these authorizations, its ability to sell computer products to educational customers would be adversely impacted, which could have a similar impact on its sales, profitability and ability to expand within this business line. In addition, this business uses credit lines extended by software and hardware manufacturers and distributors. The loss of any of these credit lines would limit the ability of our technology solutions business to meet customer demand, thereby reducing sales and profits.

THE EXERCISE OF OUTSTANDING OPTIONS AND WARRANTS COULD SUBSTANTIALLY DILUTE EXISTING STOCKHOLDERS AND COULD HAVE A NEGATIVE EFFECT OUR STOCK PRICE.

We have adopted the eResource Capital Group, Inc. Stock Option Plan (the Plan) and our stockholders have authorized the issuance of options to acquire up to 20,000,000 shares of Common Stock under the Plan. As of June 30, 2003, we have outstanding options for 2,409,750 shares, under the Plan that have been granted to our officers, directors, employees and other service providers of which options for 1,276,993 shares, are vested. There have been zero options exercised for fiscal year 2003 of Common Stock that were issued under the Plan. In addition to options issued under the Plan, we currently have outstanding warrants as of June 30, 2003 for up to 2,329,660 shares. Our outstanding options and warrants have exercise prices ranging from $0.28 to $28.00. The exercise of these options or warrants will dilute the percentage ownership of our current stockholders and the potential sale of shares issued upon the exercise of these warrants or options could have a negative impact on the market price of our Common Stock.

THE CONVERSION OF DEBT BY EXISTING DEBT HOLDERS COULD SUBSTANTIALLY DILUTE EXISTING STOCKHOLDERS AND COULD HAVE A NEGATIVE EFFECT OUR STOCK PRICE.

We have entered into debt conversion agreements with certain debt holders to give such parties the option to convert up to $1.049 million of debt and interest of the Company and two of its subsidiaries into the right to receive shares of the Company's Common Stock. The terms of these agreements allow such debt holders to convert balances due them into shares of our Common Stock at a 20% discount to an average market price, but no less than $1.12 per share, and require us to register the shares underlying the convertible debt on a registration statement. Up to 714,286 shares may be issued in connection with such debt conversions. During August, 2003 three debt holders elected to convert debt to common stock at $1.12 per share. Mr. G. David Gordon, a Company Stockholder and owner of six LFSI franchises, converted a total of $308,738 of outstanding debt and accrued interest into 275,658 restricted common shares.. GAIA Holdings, Inc., a privately held company, converted a total of $552,439 of outstanding debt and accrued interest into 387,445 restricted common shares. The Company incurred this debt during fiscal 2001 and fiscal 2002. These transactions occurred in accordance with the conversion terms contained in the debt agreements.

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

In addition, $18,603 owed to a vendor was converted to 36,000 shares of restricted common stock of the Company during August 2003.

In addition, we have $650,000 of debt outstanding that is convertible at $4.55 per share, the principal of which is due in August 2003, and $750,000 that is convertible at $2.10 per share or a mutually agreed upon discounted market price, the principal of $150,000 which is due in December 2003 and $600,000 which is due in December 2004.

Conversions of debt to shares of the Company's Common Stock will result in dilution of a stockholder's investment in the Company and the potential sales of Common Stock by the Selling Stockholders could have a negative impact on the market price of our Common Stock.

THE FUTURE SALES OF RESTRICTED SECURITIES COULD HAVE A NEGATIVE EFFECT ON OUR STOCK PRICE.

The market price of our Common Stock could be negatively affected by the future sale of shares of restricted Common Stock, including shares of restricted Common Stock underlying options and warrants that have been or will be issued by us. As of June 30, 2003 and 2002, approximately 2,100,000 of our 13,948,160 and 2,100,000 of our 12,280,820, respectively, issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock are believed to be restricted securities as defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act or otherwise not available for trading by the public. Rule 144 provides generally that restricted securities must be held for a one year period prior to resale and provides certain additional limitations on the sale of such shares, including limitations on the volume of such shares that a beneficial owner may sell in any three month period thereafter. Generally, non-affiliated stockholders may sell restricted shares that have been held for at least two years without any limitations. In addition, Rule 145 permits the sale by non-affiliates of restricted securities issued in connection with certain business combinations one year after such shares are issued. As restricted shares become eligible for resale pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 145, the number of sellers of our Common Stock could increase significantly and, as a result, the market price of our Common Stock could decrease.

INABILITY TO PROTECT INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

We rely primarily on a combination of intellectual property laws and contractual provisions to protect our proprietary rights and technologies, brand and marks. These laws and contractual provisions provide only limited protection of proprietary rights and technology. If we are not able to protect our intellectual property, proprietary rights and technology, we could lose those rights and incur substantial costs policing and defending those rights. Our means of protecting our intellectual property, proprietary rights and technology may not be adequate.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

On March 7, 2003 LFSI completed its acquisition of FutureSmart Systems, Inc., a manufacturer and distributor of structured wiring and home networking distribution panels. On May 28, 2003 LFSI's Board of Directors approved a plan to dispose of FutureSmart. Accordingly, its operations since March 7, 2003 have been included in discontinued operations.

In fiscal 2001, the Company discontinued its commercial real estate business, which consisted of two strip-mall shopping centers in the Atlanta, GA area. In May 2001, the Company entered a contract to sell its two shopping centers, which closed on August 31, 2001. As a result, the Company recorded a gain of approximately $575,000 in August 2001.

ITEM 6. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

Results of Continuing Operations

The following table summarizes results of continuing operations by business segment for fiscal 2003 and 2002:

	Year Ended June 30, 2003			Year Ended June 30, 2002
	Revenue	Gross Profit	Profit(Loss)	Revenue	Gross Profit	Profit(Loss)
Aviation Travel Services	$62,589,274	$3,527,736	$1,005,055	$27,209,440	$908,547	$(794,421)

Corporate	734	734	(1,257,361)	279,101	279,101	(1,439,411)
	$75,824,171	$5,994,237	$(4,252,947)	$40,723,866	$4,194,000	$(4,178,135)

The Company's revenue in the year ended June 30, 2003 was $75,824,171 compared to $40,723,866 in 2002. The increase of $35,100,305 or 86% in 2003 is due to the aviation travel services expanded charter aviation business. These increases were partially offset by a decline in the call center operations and corporate not earning fees for business advisory services.

During the three month periods ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, sales to Vacation Express Inc. (Vacation Express) and Suntrips, Inc. (Suntrips), both subsidiaries of MyTravel Group plc (MyTravel Group), customers of the Company's aviation travel services business, represented 76% and 63%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue. For the years then ended, sales to these customers represented 73% and 54%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue.

Gross profit in 2003 was $5,994,237 compared to $4,194,000 in the prior year, an increase of $1,800,237 or 43%. The increase in the current period is due to the gross profit generated by the expanded charter aviation business and elimination of the jet shuttle business, which operated at a gross margin deficit. The Company reported an 8% overall gross margin in 2003 as compared to 10% in 2002. The decrease in margin was due to aviation services increase in the dollar amount as a proportion of consolidated gross profit. In addition, business advisory services revenue and gross profit decreased by $278,367 from fiscal 2002 to 2003, which contributed to the decrease in the Company's overall gross margin percentage due to the high margin on these services.

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

In the year ended June 30, 2003, the Company reported $647,168 of non-cash expense related to the issuance of stock options and warrants, an increase of $618,343 from 2002. The Company incurred higher costs mainly because it granted options as a result of Lifestyle's acquisition of Futuresmart during the current year.

Selling, general and administrative expenses-other in the year ended June 30, 2003 was $8,069,781 compared with $7,706,185 in fiscal 2002, an increase of $363,596 or 5%. This increase is due to expenses of the newly acquired businesses and increased staff in the aviation travel services business to support its expanded charter operations partially offset by lower marketing expenses, due to the termination of the jet shuttle service and reduced corporate expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses-other as a percentage of revenue were reduced to 11% of revenue from 19% of revenue in 2002.

Bad debt expense decreased to $189,941 in fiscal 2003 from $264,641 in fiscal 2002, as a result of sharp decreases in all the Company's segments except for the home technology segment, which experienced collection problems with certain builders and with one of its franchisees.

The Company's depreciation and amortization expense in the year ended June 30, 2003 was $471,176 as compared with $385,678 in the prior year. The increase is due primarily to the continuing expansion of the aviation travel services segment.

In fiscal 2003, the Company incurred $464,358 of net interest expense related to its debt portfolio, which increased from $3,260,652 at June 30, 2002 to $4,140,071 at June 30, 2003.

In the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Company recorded a net gain on investments of $277,774 and $146,000, respectively. These amounts consist of $108,118 and $421,000, respectively, relating to net losses on market value adjustments of stock purchase warrants offset by a net realized gain of $385,892 and $567,000, respectively, on sales of securities. These results are reported primarily in the Corporate segment results. The Company's operating results for 2003 also include a loss of $67,355, primarily on the sale of two office units by the technology solutions business. The Company's operating results for 2002 also include a gain of $164,691, primarily on the sale of certain home technology net assets to companies that are presently operating these businesses as franchise locations.

The Company realized a gain of $575,824 on the sale of its discontinued commercial real estate business in the quarter ended September 30, 2001.

The Company's operating segments were tested for impairment at the end of fiscal 2003. The fair value of the reporting units were estimated based upon the expected present value of future cash flows and comparison to similar companies.

The Company completed its valuation of goodwill and made an adjustment of $2,020,772 to write-down the goodwill associated with its home technology segment. The adjustment reduced the carrying value of goodwill from $8,920,226 to $6,899,454 for the home technology segment. The decline in the fair value is attributed to lower than expected sales growth rates and fewer franchise sales. In fiscal 2002, the Company recorded the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle of $693,000, increasing the Company's reported net loss, as a result of its implementation of FAS 142. This adjustment was recorded as of July 1, 2001.

The Company experiences some seasonality in its aviation travel services and technology solutions businesses. The seasonality in the aviation travel services business is due to the higher level of charter travel to Caribbean and Mexican destinations during the vacation season, which coincides with the Company's first and fourth fiscal quarters. The Company's technology solutions business generally experiences higher revenue in the first and fourth fiscal quarters, with the largest amount being recognized in the fourth quarter, due to the fact that the Company's year end coincides with the year end of many schools and universities. These customers are tied to strict budgets and normally purchase more software at the start and the end of their fiscal year.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's shareholders' equity decreased $5,037,000 during fiscal year 2003. This decrease was due primarily to a net loss for the year of $5,251,000, unrealized losses on marketable securities of $225,000, termination of an agreement with a service provider resulting in the cancellation of unvested options and a reduction in additional paid-in capital of $45,000 and the Company's Common Stock receipt into treasury in partial payment of balances owed to the Company resulting in an increase in treasury stock of $24,000. These decreases were partially offset by an increase to shareholders' equity related to the sale of Common Stock, with net proceeds of $444,000 and a net increase in shareholders' equity of $64,000, as a result of the final settlements of contracts with two service providers.

Minority interest increased due to the LFSI transaction described above which resulted in net funding of $561,000, LFSI sales of stock under its private placements resulting in an increase in minority interest of $611,000, LFSI's issuance of preferred stock and common stock warrants in connection with its purchase of FutureSmart, which resulted in increases in minority interest of $100,000 and $206,000, respectively, and the Company's sale or disposition of LFSI restricted stock obtained in the LFSI transaction, which resulted in an increase in minority interest of $100,000. These increases were offset by the minority shareholders' portion of LFSI's operating losses of $1,165,000 and discontinued operating losses of $998,000.

For fiscal year 2003, continuing operations used $145,000 of cash. This amount includes $263,000 received in grant proceeds from a government assistance program designed to provide grants to companies whose businesses were directly impacted by the events of September 11, 2001. For fiscal year 2003, net cash used in continuing investing activities was $163,000, due to LFSI's purchase of FutureSmart which used cash of $439,000 and $50,000 relating to the purchase of eGolf by the technology solutions division, and net property and equipment purchases of $356,000, offset by cash received from the sale of investments of $461,000 and from the sale of the Company's technology solutions prior office space resulting in net proceeds of $221,000.

In September 2002, the Company completed the private sale of 125,000 shares of LFSI restricted common stock to a private investor. The Company sold these shares at $2.00 per share and received $250,000 in proceeds as a result of this sale. $150,000 of the proceeds was received in September 2002 with the balance being received in October 2002. During the three months ended December 31, 2002 the Company completed the private sale of an additional 60,000 shares of the LFSI restricted stock to the same private investor. These shares were also sold for $2.00 per share, resulting in proceeds to the Company of $120,000. During the quarter ended December 31, 2002 the Company issued 78,359 shares of the LFSI restricted stock to a debt holder of the Company in satisfaction of outstanding principal and interest totaling $156,718; or $2.00 per share. During the quarter ended March 31, 2003 the Company issued 25,000 shares of the LFSI restricted stock as prepaid interest on the $250,000 loan secured during January of 2003 and another 20,000 shares of LFSI restricted stock as payment for a certain sponsorship.

In connection with LFSI's acquisition of FutureSmart as discussed in the consolidated financial statements, the Company agreed that for a period equal to the lesser of (i) March 3, 2005, and (ii) one (1) year from the registration of the shares of common stock of the FutureSmart shareholders, in the event that the Company proposes to transfer fifteen percent (15%) or more of the shares of LFSI's capital stock owned by the Company (other than registered offerings, sales to certain investors, and related party sales), then certain of the FutureSmart shareholders shall have the right to participate in such transfer of stock on the same terms and conditions, and the number of shares of LFSI stock that the Company may sell in the transaction shall be correspondingly reduced; provided, however, that the aggregate number of shares that the FutureSmart shareholders may sell in any proposed sale transaction may not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of shares to be sold by the Company.

For fiscal year 2003, net cash flow from financing activities was $2,928,000 as a result of $4,548,000 in debt financing, $274,000 raised through the LFSI transaction, $1,159,000 raised through LFSI's private placement sale of common stock and $444,000 raised through the sale of the Company's Common Stock. These amounts were offset by principal debt repayments of $3,497,000. At June 30, 2003, the Company had a working capital deficit of $6,032,000. At June 30, 2003 the Company held cash and cash equivalents of $3,491,000 and investments of $403,000.

The Company's significant working capital deficit is due primarily to $3,379,000 of current debt, of which $1.8 million is due in the quarter ended September 30, 2003, $720,000 is due on demand and $250,000 is due on demand any time after July 27, 2003. On August 21, 2003, $467,500 of debt due in August 2003 in addition to $51,177 of accrued interest was converted into 464,103 shares of Common Stock. On August 21, 2003 the Company converted a note in the amount of $300,000 plus accrued interest in the amount of $42,500 into 200,000 shares of RCG common stock. The Company also has reached an agreement to extend $941,782 in debt that was due in August 2003. Additionally, the Company is in negotiations to extend the $250,000 due on demand, of which $25,000 was paid on October 2, 2003.

In October 2003 the the home technologies business received a commitment to provide additional financing in the amount of $300,000. The financing may either be debt or equity.

The Company is currently exploring additional sources of liquidity, including debt and equity financing alternatives and potential sales of additional shares of LFSI, a portion of which may or may not be sold from time to time depending on market conditions and the effectiveness of a LFSI registration statement, to provide additional cash to support operations, working capital and capital expenditure requirements for the next 12 months and to meet the scheduled debt repayments in fiscal year 2004. Additionally, the Company plans on negotiating with its debt holders to extend or convert into stock some or all of this debt. If (i) we are unable to grow our business or improve our operating cash flows as expected, (ii) we suffer significant losses on our investments, or (iii) we are unable to realize adequate proceeds from investments, including our holdings of LFSI restricted stock, then we will need to secure alternative debt or equity financing to provide us with additional working capital. There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available when needed or, if available, that it will be on terms favorable to the Company and its stockholders. If the Company is not successful in generating sufficient cash flow from operations, or in raising additional capital when required in sufficient amounts and on terms acceptable to the Company, these failures would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition. If additional funds are raised through the issuance of equity securities, the percentage ownership of the current stockholders will be diluted.

The Company's Board of Directors had previously considered distributing a portion of the LFSI shares to the shareholders of the Company. The Board of Directors currently believe the most prudent use of these shares is the sale of LFSI shares to external parties and does not currently intend to distribute any shares as a dividend.

The Company's aviation travel service business reported an operating profit of $1,005,005 for the year. The increase from the prior year represents both increases in charter air revenue related to the Suntrips contract which began in July 2002, and gross profit margin improvements resulting from re-negotiated ground services agreements and other cost reductions. The company is heavily reliant on tour operator contracts which have a fixed expiration, including Vacation Express and Suntrips. Accordingly, new business development projects were implemented including upgrading the systems at the telecommunications call center and Interstate Jet. The call center provided reservations services for Interstate Jet for a start up program subsidized by the airport authorities in Allentown, PA and Newburg, NY with service to Las Vegas, NV and Los Angeles, CA. Management believes demand for these programs was negatively impacted by the war in Iraq and regional economic conditions. These programs resulted in an operating loss of approximately $550,000.

In the quarter ended September 30, 2001, the Company implemented a national franchising program for its home technology business. Since its launch, the Company has sold 14 geographic markets to franchisees, primarily in the south and southeastern United States. During the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Company recognized revenue for the sale of 4.5 and 14 franchises sold, respectively. Total revenue from franchise sales and royalties was $896,000 and $1,020,000 for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. For the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Company's home technology business reported a loss from continuing operations of $3,536,000 and $1,184,000, respectively due primarily to investments made in the establishment and growth of the franchising program and operating losses in the two markets that the Company presently operates, Charlotte, NC and Atlanta, GA and an asset impairment charge in 2003 of $2,021,000.

In fiscal 2003, the Company's technology solutions business has grown through the expansion of its products, services and its sales force while reducing its operating expenses. These initiatives, focused on concurrent revenue growth and cost control, have resulted in improved operating results for fiscal year 2003. During the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, the technology solutions business reported an operating loss of $347,000 and $609,000, respectively. On February 28, 2003, the Company's technology solutions business secured a $1,000,000 revolving credit facility. The balance at June 30, 2003 is $274,000.

The Company's corporate expense in the current year decreased from a year ago due to the issuance of fewer stock options and warrants, staff reductions, lower public and investor relations costs, including a benefit from the resolution of a contract with a service provider, lower legal and professional fees and other costs saving measures.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities . SFAS 146 requires that a liability be recognized on the date on which the company had committed to an exit plan. In fiscal 2003 the Company adopted this statement with no effect on its financial position or results of operations, however, disclosure was modified to conform to the requirements of SFAS 146.

In December 2002, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure. This Statement amends SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this Statement amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. The Company adopted the provisions of this statement effective January 1, 2003 with no impact on its financial position or results of operations.

Effective January 1, 2003, we adopted SFAS Interpretation No. (FIN) 45, Guarantor s Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others. FIN 45 elaborates on the disclosures that must be made by a guarantor in its interim and annual financial statements about its obligations under certain guarantees. It also clarifies that a guarantor is required to recognize, at the inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing the guarantee. The adoption of this interpretation did not have a material effect on our financial position or results of operations.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FIN 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an Interpretation of ARB No. 51. FIN 46 requires a variable interest entity (VIE) to be consolidated by the primary beneficiary of the entity under certain circumstances. FIN 46 is effective for all new VIE s created or acquired after January 31, 2003. For VIE s created or acquired prior to February 1, 2003, the provisions of FIN 46 must be applied for the first interim or annual period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company does not expect adoption of this interpretation will have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS 149, Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. This Statement amends and clarifies financial accounting and reporting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts and for hedging activities under SFAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. The Statement is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003 and is to be applied prospectively. The Company adopted this Statement on April 30, 2003 with no impact on its financial position or results of operations.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. This Statement establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances). Many of those instruments were previously classified as equity. This Statement is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. It is to be implemented by reporting the cumulative effect of a change in an accounting principle for financial instruments created before the issuance date of the Statement and still existing at the beginning of the interim period of adoption. Restatement is not permitted. The Company does not expect the adoption of this Statement to have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

eRESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP, INC AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These financial statements include the operations of eResource Capital Group, Inc. (RCG) and its subsidiaries (collectively the Company). At June 30, 2003, the Company operated businesses in the aviation travel services, home technology, technology solutions and telecommunications call center segments in the United States. In October 2001, the Company changed its name from flightserv.com, Inc. to eResource Capital Group, Inc. to better reflect its plan to acquire substantial interests in, operate and enhance the value of expansion phase companies operating in the travel, entertainment and technology services sectors. Prior to that time, the Company was engaged in the development of its private aviation business and limited commercial real estate activities.

The Company experienced an operating loss from continuing operations of $4.2 million during fiscal 2003 and used cash of $.6 million in operating activities during the year. This cash loss was offset by the raising of debt and equity financing and the sales of investments. At June 30, 2003, the Company has cash and cash equivalents of $3.5 million and investments of $0.4 million. The Company believes that its existing balances of cash and cash equivalents and investments, including debt conversions as described in the Liquidity and Capital Resources section of Management s Discussion and Analysis, and receiving, as of October 8, 2003, $1.145 million of a $1.2 million private placement at $1.12 per share of Common Stock, will be sufficient to meet the working capital and capital expenditure requirements of our continuing operations through the end of fiscal 2004.

CONSOLIDATION

The Company s consolidated financial statements include the assets and liabilities and results of operations of RCG and each business acquired by RCG from the date of its acquisition through June 30, 2003. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the fiscal 2003 presentation.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company classifies as cash equivalents any investments which can be readily converted to cash and have an original maturity of less than three months. At times cash and cash equivalent balances at a limited number of banks and financial institutions may exceed insurable amounts. The Company believes it mitigates its risks by depositing cash or investing in cash equivalents in major financial institutions.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash, accounts receivable, investments, and notes payable. The Company places its temporary cash with high credit quality principal institutions. The Company performs periodic credit evaluations of its customers financial condition and generally does not require collateral. Although due dates of receivables vary based on contract terms, credit losses have been within management s estimates in determining the level of allowance for doubtful accounts. Overall financial strategies are reviewed periodically.

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating its fair value disclosures for financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents: The carrying amount reported in the balance sheet for cash approximates its fair value.

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

Accounts receivable and accounts payable: Due to their short term nature, the carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for accounts receivable and accounts payable approximate their fair value. The Company provides for any losses through its allowance for doubtful accounts.

Investments: The fair values for available-for-sale equity securities are based on quoted market prices.

Notes Payable: The carrying amount of the Company's notes payable approximate their fair value.

During fiscal year 2003 and 2002, sales to Vacation Express, a MyTravel Group company, a customer of the Company's aviation travel services business, represented 73% and 63%, respectively, of the Company's consolidated revenue. This concentration of revenue with Vacation Express, and its sister company, Suntrips, Inc. (Suntrips), both part of the MyTravel Group, increased in July 2002 with the beginning of a new scheduled charter program for Suntrips.

TRADE ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable from the sale of products or services are recorded at net realizable value and the Company grants credit to customers on an unsecured basis. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful collections that is based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information, and existing economic conditions. Normal trade receivables are due from 15 to 30 days after the issuance of an invoice. Receivables past due more than 120 days are considered delinquent. Delinquent receivables are written off based on individual credit evaluation and specific circumstances of the customer.

The Company computes finance charges on accounts that are 30 days past due. The finance charges are recognized into income when accrued unless collection is doubtful.

INVENTORY

Inventory consists mainly of purchased-in components used in the Company's Home Technology business. Inventory is recorded at the lower of cost or market with cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

INVESTMENTS

Investments, including certificates of deposit with maturities of greater than three months, not readily marketable equity securities, and other marketable securities, are classified as available for sale. Investment securities that are not readily marketable include securities (a) for which there is no market on a securities exchange or no independent publicly quoted market, (b) that cannot be publicly offered or sold unless registration has been effected under the Securities Act of 1933, or (c) that cannot be offered or sold because of other arrangements, restrictions, or conditions applicable to the securities or the Company. Certificates of deposit are recorded at cost plus accrued interest. Marketable equity securities are recorded at estimated values based on quoted market values for marketable securities of the investee discounted for trading restrictions. If there is no quoted market value, the recorded values are based on the most recent transactions in the securities discounted for lack of marketability. Investment securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. The difference between cost and fair value is recorded as unrealized gain or loss on available for sale securities as a component of comprehensive income.

Investments also include stock purchase warrants, which the Company periodically receives as part of its compensation for services. Stock purchase warrants from companies with publicly traded common stock are considered derivatives in accordance with SFAS 133 Accounting for Derivative Investments and Hedging Activities. The Company recognizes revenue at the fair value of such stock purchase warrants when earned based on the Black-Scholes valuation model. The Company recognizes unrealized gains or losses in the statement of operations based on the changes in value in the stock purchase warrants as determined by the Black-Scholes valuation model subsequent to the date received.

PREPAID EXPENSES

Prepaid expenses include insurance, deferred costs, certain taxes, and charter flight costs. Depending upon the volume and timing of charter flight activity, the amount of prepaid charter flight costs can fluctuate significantly.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line basis over the assets estimated useful lives. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Expenditures for improvements which extend the useful life or add value to the asset are capitalized and then expensed over that asset's remaining useful life.

Sales and disposals of assets are recorded by removing the related cost and accumulated depreciation amounts with any resulting gain or loss reflected in the statement of operations.

The carrying value of property and equipment and predevelopment costs is reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that such amounts may not be recoverable. If such an event occurred, the Company would prepare projections of future results of operations for the remaining useful lives of such assets. If such projections indicated that the expected future net cash flows (undiscounted and without interest) are less than the carrying amounts of the property and equipment and the predevelopment costs, the Company would record an impairment loss in the period such determination is made.

GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The Company records goodwill and intangible assets arising from business combinations in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement (FASB) No. 141 Business Combinations (FASB 141) which requires that the purchase method of accounting be used for all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001. SFAS 141 also specifies the criteria applicable to intangible assets acquired in a purchase method business combination to be recognized and reported apart from goodwill.

The Company accounts for goodwill and intangible assets in accordance with SFAS No. 142 Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (SFAS 142). The Company adopted SFAS 142 effective July 1, 2001. In completing the adoption of SFAS 142, the Company has allocated its previously existing goodwill as of July 1, 2001 to its reporting units, as defined in SFAS 142, and performed an initial test for impairment as of that date. The results of the Company's adoption of SFAS 142 are summarized in Note 5 to these financial statements.

In accordance with SFAS 142, the Company no longer amortizes goodwill. SFAS 142 requires that goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives no longer be amortized, but instead be tested at least annually for impairment. SFAS 142 also requires that intangible assets with definite useful lives be amortized over their respective estimated useful lives to their estimated residual values, and be reviewed for impairment.

Goodwill, which represents the cost in excess of fair value of net assets acquired, is subject to an impairment test on an annual basis, or when there is reason to believe that the value has been diminished or impaired. The fair value of the Company's identified reporting units was estimated using the expected present value of corresponding future cash flows and market values of comparable businesses where available. The Company completed the valuations of its reporting units that include goodwill in fiscal 2003 and concluded that an impairment charge of $2,020,772 was required for its home technology segment. Included in discontinued operations is an additional write-down of $556,275 relating to FutureSmart. The decline in the fair value is attributed to lower than expected sales growth rates and fewer franchise sales.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Charter Travel Aviation

Revenue related to the Company's aviation travel services consists of fees for charter flights and is recognized upon completion of the related flight.

Home Technology

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

The Company's home technology services work is completed in three phases—pre-wiring, trim-out and then hardware installation. The Company invoices its customers and records revenue as work is completed on each project. For alarm monitoring service contracts sold by the Company, revenue is recognized only when the contracts are sold to third party finance companies or as billed if the Company holds and services the contract. The Company sells substantially all of its alarm monitoring contracts immediately subsequent to the date the contracts are signed by the customer.

Sales of franchise licenses are recognized as revenue when the Company's obligations under the franchise agreement are substantially complete. The Company generally defines substantially complete as the completion of training by the franchisee's General Manager and the approval by the Company of the franchise location plan.

Royalties are based on a percentage of the sales recorded by franchisees and are recorded as earned. Procurement fees charged to franchisees are recorded in the month that the related product is shipped to the franchisee.

Technology Solutions

Internet website development services project revenue is recognized on a percentage of completion basis for fixed fee contracts, based on the ratio of costs incurred to total estimated costs for individual projects. Revenue is recognized as services are performed for time and material contracts at the applicable billing rates.

Unbilled revenue represents revenue earned under contracts in advance of billings. Such amounts are normally converted to accounts receivable within 90 days. Unearned income represents amounts billed or cash received in advance of services performed or cost incurred under contracts. Any anticipated losses on contracts are charged to operations when identified.

The Company provides e-commerce marketing and business development services to clients pursuant to contracts with varying terms. The contracts generally provide for monthly payments and, in some cases, advance deposits. Revenue is recognized over the respective contract period as services are provided.

Revenue from uncollateralized e-commerce sales or sales of hardware and software is recognized upon passage of title of the related goods to the customer.

NET LOSS PER SHARE

The Company computes net loss per share in accordance with SFAS No. 128, Earnings per Share which requires dual presentations of basic and diluted earnings per share.

Basic earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and potentially dilutive shares outstanding during the period. Options and warrants to purchase 4,739,410 and 3,763,392 shares of Common Stock were outstanding at June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Such outstanding options and warrants could potentially dilute earnings per share in the future but have not been included in the computation of diluted net loss per share in 2003 and 2002 as the impact would have been anti-dilutive.

ADVERTISING

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expense aggregated $151,835 and $378,004 for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with the liability method as provided under SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. Accordingly, deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences of differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. The measurement of deferred tax assets is reduced, if necessary, by the amount of any benefits that, based on available evidence, are not expected to be realized.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities . SFAS 146 requires that a liability be recognized on the date on which the company had committed to an exit plan. In fiscal 2003 the Company adopted this statement with no effect on its financial position or results of operations, however, disclosure was modified to conform to the requirements of SFAS 146.

In December 2002, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure. This Statement amends SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this Statement amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. The Company adopted the provisions of this statement effective January 1, 2003 with no impact on its financial position or results of operations.

Effective January 1, 2003, we adopted FASB Interpretation No. (FIN) 45, Guarantor s Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others. FIN 45 elaborates on the disclosures that must be made by a guarantor in its interim and annual financial statements about its obligations under certain guarantees. It also clarifies that a guarantor is required to recognize, at the inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing the guarantee. The adoption of this interpretation did not have a material effect on our financial position or results of operations.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FIN 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an Interpretation of ARB No. 51. FIN 46 requires a variable interest entity (VIE) to be consolidated by the primary beneficiary of the entity under certain circumstances. FIN 46 is effective for all new VIE s created or acquired after January 31, 2003. For VIE s created or acquired prior to February 1, 2003, the provisions of FIN 46 must be applied for the first interim or annual period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company does not expect adoption of this interpretation will have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS 149, Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. This Statement amends and clarifies financial accounting and reporting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts and for hedging activities under SFAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. The Statement is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003 and is to be applied prospectively. The Company adopted this Statement on April 30, 2003 with no impact on its financial position or results of operations.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. This Statement establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances). Many of those instruments were previously classified as equity. This Statement is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. It is to be implemented by reporting the cumulative effect of a change in an accounting principle for financial instruments created before the issuance date of the Statement and still existing at the beginning of the interim period of adoption. Restatement is not permitted. The Company does not expect the adoption of this Statement to have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

For fiscal 2003 goodwill was reduced by $2,020,772 in the home technology segment as a result of impairment testing. The decline in the fair value is attributed to lower than expected sales growth rates and fewer franchise sales. For fiscal 2002 goodwill was reduced by $693,000 in the technology solutions segment as a result of the implementation of FAS 142. This adjustment relates primarily to the discounting of the future net cash flows in the segment's Internet business development activity that was acquired as a part of the purchase of Avenel Alliance.

Goodwill allocated to the Corporate segment relates to business advisory activities that were acquired by the Company as a part of the acquisition of Avenel Ventures in February 2001 and integrated into Corporate.

During fiscal 2003, goodwill increased by $75,000 as a result of the technology solutions segment acquiring the assets of eGolf.com, an internet web site specializing in the retail sales of golf equipment. The goodwill adjustment is a reclassification of mortgage acquisition costs. During fiscal 2002, goodwill increased by $42,000 in the technology solutions business as a result of the issuance of 32,738 shares of Common Stock in accordance with the contingent consideration provisions of the related acquisition agreement. The remaining goodwill adjustments in fiscal 2002 relate to resolutions of contingencies that existed as of the dates that the related businesses were acquired by the Company.

Pro forma information regarding net loss is required by SFAS No. 123, which also requires that the information be determined as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options granted subsequent to July 1, 1996 under the fair value method of that statement. The fair value for these options was estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes Model with the following weighted average assumptions for fiscal 2003; risk-free interest rate range of 2.72% to 4.76%; no dividend yield; volatility factor of the expected market price of the Company's Common Stock for 2003 and 2002 of 1.16 and .974, respectively; and an expected life of the option of 3 to 5 years.

The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options, which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because the Company's employee stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can naturally affect the fair value estimate, in management's opinion, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company's employee stock options.

The Company's pro forma net loss and net loss per share assuming compensation cost was determined under SFAS No. 123 for all options would have been the following for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002:

The above outstanding debt includes a Note for $750,000 that is convertible into Common Stock of the Company at the lesser of $2.10 per share and a 25% discount to the fair market value of the Company s Common Stock.

During August, 2003, Mr. Gordon elected to convert certain outstanding debt into the Company s Common Stock. These transactions occurred in accordance with the conversion terms contained in the debt agreements. The Company incurred this debt during fiscal 2001 and fiscal 2002. A total of $308,738 of outstanding debt and accrued interest was converted at $1.12 per share in August 2003 into 275,658 restricted shares of Company Common Stock.

In April, 2003, a group of investors related to Mr. Gordon agreed to purchase 1,000,000 shares of restricted Common Stock at a price of $0.25 per share, or $250,000. The spouse of Mr. Gordon, purchased 100,000 shares and two educational trusts, which are for the benefit of Mr. Gordon s two children, collectively purchased 900,000 shares. As of June 30, 2003, the Company has received $200,000, or 800,000 shares. The remaining investment was received in the first quarter of fiscal year 2004. Mr. Gordon is not the trustee of these trusts and has no voting or investment power over these shares.

LFSI and its subsidiaries also have various outstanding debt obligations due to Mr. Gordon and his spouse. As of June 30, 2003, these obligations totaled $974,370, $500,000 of which is due to Mr. Gordon s spouse.

Paul B. Johnson, a former director of the Company, is an investor in a company, which in November 2001 became a franchisee of LFSI in the Dallas, Texas market and purchased franchises for two additional Dallas, Texas markets during the quarter ended March 31, 2003. In addition, Mr. Johnson was named Chief Executive Officer and a board member of LFSI, which acquired the Company s home technology business in September 2002. Mr. Johnson resigned as a director of the Company effective October 31, 2002 due to his being appointed the CEO of LFSI. Mr. Johnson resigned as CEO and as a board member from LFSI during March 2003 and remained President and Treasurer. Mr. Johnson is also an officer and director of various LFSI subsidiaries. The Dallas franchise locations owed the Company and its subsidiaries $116,409 at June 30, 2003.

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

Revenues from the franchisees discussed above for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002 are as follows:

	2003	2002
Houston and three North Carolina markets	$ 258,000	$ 90,000
Three South Carolina markets	270,000	22,000

LVA and subsidiaries	183,000	29,000

During fiscal 2002, Glenn Barrett resigned as President of Lifestyle Technologies, Inc. and began LVA Technologies LLC (LVA), a low voltage wiring business that operates as a Lifestyle franchisee headquartered in Charlotte, NC to serve the commercial market. The Company waived LVA's initial franchise fee for the commercial franchise. LVA also owns the Greenville and Columbia, SC franchises of LFSI. LVA's low voltage wiring business pays royalties on products purchased from LFSI at the same rate as LFSI's other franchisees, however, it does not pay royalties on revenue generated from products purchased elsewhere as required of the Company's other franchisees, including the Greenville and Columbia, SC franchises. LVA and its subsidiaries owed the Company and its subsidiaries $271,136 as of June 30, 2003.

In the quarter ended March 31, 2003, the Company received into treasury 52,857 shares of Common Stock from Mr. Barrett in partial payment of balances owed by Mr. Barrett to the Company. The shares were valued at $24,000.

In September 2003, P. Roger Byer, a director of the Company, purchased 89,285 shares of restricted Common Stock for $100,000 or $1.12 per share. Mr. Byer subscribed to purchase an additional 44,642 shares of restricted Common Stock for $50,000 which was closed in early October, 2003.

The Company owns an equity interest in a privately held company in which the executive vice president of the Company's aviation travel services business is a director and shareholder. Avenel Ventures, Inc. owned this equity interest prior to being acquired by the Company in fiscal 2002.

NOTE 15. CONTINGENCIES

Legal Proceedings

During the normal course of business, the Company is subject to various lawsuits, which may or may not have merit. Management intends to vigorously pursue and/or defend such suits, as applicable, and believes that they will not result in any material loss to the Company.

The Company's aviation services business is seeking to recover through litigation approximately $70,000 from Southeast Airlines, Inc. related to a fiscal year 2003 charter flight program. Flightfuel, Inc. a joint venture of the Company's aviation travel services business is seeking to recover through litigation approximately $360,000 in unpaid aviation fuel from Southeast Airlines, Inc.

Commitments

The Company's aviation travel services business has a dispute of approximately $2.3 million with Pace Airlines, Inc. (Pace) related to amounts due to Pace for calendar year 2002 for shortages related to guaranteed flying revenue and expenses associated with relocating the air hub with the Vacation Express contract. Management believes these claims to be baseless and no funds are due Pace. In the event that funds were ultimately determined to be due Pace, management believes the payment responsibility would be with Vacation Express, or their parent company, My Travel. Accordingly a liability has not been booked in fiscal year 2003.
