PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed with the prescribed time period.

During the three months ended September 30, 2003, the Company completed the sale of its Precious Metals Business for cash proceeds of $814 million. This business had comprised two of the Company's three reportable segments--Precious Metals Chemistry and Metal Management--and accounted for approximately 85% of net sales in 2002 and 44% of total assets as of December 31, 2002. In addition, during the third quarter of 2003 the Company completed its restructuring program that commenced in the fourth quarter of 2002 and recorded restructuring and other charges in the period related to its continuing operations. As a result of these significant events, the finalization of the quarterly financial statements is taking longer than expected and the Company needs additional time to complete the Form 10-Q for its 2003 third quarter. The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q on or before November 19, 2003.

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made:

As a result of the sale of the Precious Metals Business, the continuing operations of the Company have been significantly changed compared to the third quarter of 2002. Please see the narrative under Part III.
