Item 2.06. Material Impairments

On September 15, 2008 Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. (Lehman Brothers) filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy. United Bankshares, Inc. (United) has a limited exposure in Lehman Brothers and does not have any equity interests in the Federal National Mortgage Association ( Fannie Mae ), Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ( Freddie Mac ), or American International Group (AIG). United holds a $10 million Lehman Brothers Senior Corporate Bond, which represents 0.125% of United's June 30, 2008 $8 billion asset balance. Since the Lehman Brothers bankruptcy was announced Lehman senior bonds have traded between $0.125 and $0.35 cents on the dollar, with the most recent trades in the lower portion of the range. Based on current market information, United expects to record a noncash other-than-temporary impairment related to this debt security in the 3rd quarter 2008. United will continue to assess and update its measurement of impairment loss in this bond during the 3rd quarter of 2008.

United also expects to record a positive tax adjustment of approximately $1.4 million or $0.03 diluted earnings per share. This positive adjustment is due to the expiration of the statute of limitations for examinations of certain years.

United reported $0.58 diluted earnings per share in the 2nd quarter 2008. Net of the expected impairment and tax adjustment United expects to realize diluted earnings per share for the third quarter 2008 meeting the street estimate.

United has determined the resulting effect will not impact United's or its subsidiary banks' ability to maintain capital ratios above the well capitalized regulatory requirements. During the third quarter of 2008, United's Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.29 per share which represented a 4% increase over the $0.28 paid in the third quarter of 2007. The 2008 annualized third quarter dividend of $0.29 per share equals $1.16, which would represent the 35th consecutive year of dividend increases for United shareholders.

This release contains certain forward-looking statements, including certain plans, expectations, goals and projections, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those contained in or implied by such statements for a variety of factors including: changes in economic conditions; movements in interest rates; competitive pressures on product pricing and services; success and timing of business strategies; the nature and extent of governmental actions and reforms; and rapidly changing technology and evolving banking industry standards.
