Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 22, 2006, Mr. Norman Stout replaced Mr. Steven Mihaylo as Inter-Tel (Delaware), Incorporated's (the Company's) Chief Executive Officer, with the understanding that Mr. Stout would be offered a written employment agreement with the Company. The Board delegated to the Compensation Committee the responsibility to develop the terms and conditions of the employment agreement, in consultation with the Compensation Committee's compensation consultant. After discussing various terms and approaches with its compensation consultant and the Company's legal advisors, the Compensation Committee members discussed and unanimously approved the material terms of a proposed employment agreement for Mr. Stout at a meeting of the Compensation Committee held on July 27, 2006. The proposed terms were then presented to the entire Board of Directors at its regular meeting on July 28, 2006. The Board met in executive session (without Mr. Stout) to consider the proposed terms of the employment agreement. Thereafter, the Board approved the terms of the employment agreement. The Board then delegated to Mr. Robert Anderson, in his capacity as Chairman of the Compensation Committee, the authority to negotiate and finalize an employment agreement with Mr. Stout. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Stout finalized and executed the employment agreement on October 12, 2006.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Stout is employed by the Company as Chief Executive Officer until August 1, 2009, unless the agreement is earlier terminated. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Stout is employed at his current annual salary of $400,000 per year (Base Salary) and is entitled to participate in any bonus or incentive plans made available by the Board to senior management and any benefit plans applicable to senior executives. If Mr. Stout terminates his employment for good reason or Mr. Stout is terminated by the Company without cause, Mr. Stout will receive a severance payment equal to his Base Salary (at the date of termination) for a period of 12 months or the remainder of the term of the agreement, whichever is longer. Alternately, if Mr. Stout is terminated without cause or Mr. Stout terminates his employment for good reason, within 90 days prior to a change of control or within 24 months following a change of control, then Mr. Stout will receive, among other things, (i) a lump-sum payment equal to his Base Salary (at termination or immediately prior to the change of control, whichever is greater) multiplied by 2.99 and (ii) a lump sum payment equal to the average annual bonus earned by him for the preceding five fiscal years, multiplied by 2.99. The terms "good reason", "cause", and "change of control" are defined in the agreement. Mr. Stout is subject to restrictive covenants in the agreement, including an 18-month non-competition and non-solicitation period following termination of his employment for any reason, and a perpetual confidentiality agreement.

The employment agreement also supersedes Mr. Stout's previous Tier 1 Key Employee Change of Control Severance Agreement. Under that agreement, if Mr. Stout's employment terminated in connection with a change of control, Mr. Stout was entitled to receive a lump sum severance payment equal to twenty four (24) months of his annual base salary and one hundred percent (100%) of his earned and unpaid bonus as of the date of termination.

The preceding summary of Mr. Stout's employment agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1. and incorporated herein by reference.
