Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On January 28, 2014, Martin Marietta Materials, Inc. (“Martin Marietta”) announced financial results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2013. The press release, dated January 28, 2014, is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 28, 2014, Martin Marietta announced financial results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2013. The press release, dated January 28, 2014, is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated by reference herein. Additional information about the quarter and year end, and Martin Marietta’s use of non-GAAP financial measures, is available on Martin Marietta’s Web site at www.martinmarietta.com by clicking the heading “Financials”, in the “Investors” section and then clicking the quick link “Non-GAAP Financial Measures”.

Martin Marietta will host an online Web simulcast of its fourth-quarter and year ended December 31, 2013 earnings conference call on Tuesday, January 28, 2014. The live broadcast of Martin Marietta’s conference call will begin at 8:30 a.m., Eastern Time, on January 28, 2014. An online replay will be available approximately two hours following the conclusion of the live broadcast. A link to these events will be available at Martin Marietta’s Web site at www.martinmarietta.com. For those investors without online web access, the conference call may also be accessed by calling 866-610-1072 (international: 973-935-2840), confirmation number 51412630. A transcript of the online Web simulcast will be filed on a subsequent Form 8-K. Additional information about Martin Marietta’s use of non-GAAP financial measures, as well as certain other financial or statistical information Martin Marietta may present at the conference call, will be provided on Martin Marietta’s Web site.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 27, 2014, Martin Marietta, Texas Industries, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“TXI”), and Project Holdings, Inc., a North Carolina corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Martin Marietta (“Merger Sub”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”). The Merger Agreement provides for a business combination whereby Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Martin Marietta, will merge with and into TXI (the “Merger”). As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease and TXI will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each share of TXI common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.70 of a fully paid and nonassessable share of Martin Marietta common stock. A copy of the joint press release issued by Martin Marietta and TXI announcing the transaction is attached as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. The terms of the Merger Agreement, including the conditions to the Merger, will be described in a subsequent filing on Form 8-K.

On January 28, 2014, Martin Marietta released an investor presentation, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.3 and is incorporated herein by reference.

On January 28, 2014, Martin Marietta sent a letter and FAQ statement to its employees regarding the Merger, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 99.4 and 99.5, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this communication regarding the proposed acquisition of TXI by Martin Marietta, the expected timetable for completing the transaction, benefits and synergies of the transaction, future opportunities for the combined company and products and any other statements regarding Martin Marietta's and TXI's future expectations, beliefs, plans, objectives, financial conditions, assumptions or future events or performance that are not historical facts are "forward-looking" statements made within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These statements are often, but not always, made through the use of words or phrases such as "may", "believe," "anticipate," "could", "should," "intend," "plan," "will," "expect(s)," "estimate(s)," "project(s)," "forecast(s)", "positioned," "strategy," "ou expressions. All such forward-looking statements involve estimates and assumptions that are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results expressed in the statements. Among the key factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements are the following: the parties' ability to consummate the transaction; the conditions to the completion of the transaction, including the receipt of approval of both Martin Marietta's shareholders and TXI's stockholders; the regulatory approvals required for the transaction not being obtained on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; the parties' ability to meet expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the transaction; the possibility that the parties may be unable to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in connection with the transaction within the expected time-frames or at all and to successfully integrate TXI's operations into those of Martin Marietta; the integration of TXI's operations into those of Martin Marietta being more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; operating costs, customer loss and business disruption (including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers) being greater than expected following the transaction; the retention of certain key employees of TXI being difficult; Martin Marietta's and TXI's ability to adapt its services to changes in technology or the marketplace; Martin Marietta's and TXI's ability to maintain and grow its relationship with its customers; levels of construction spending in the markets; a decline in defense spending and the commercial component of the nonresidential construction market and the subsequent impact on construction activity; a slowdown in residential construction recovery; unfavorable weather conditions; a widespread decline in aggregates pricing; changes in the cost of raw materials, fuel and energy and the availability and cost of construction equipment in the United States; the timing and amount of federal, state and local transportation and infrastructure funding; the ability of states and/or other entities to finance approved projects either with tax revenues or alternative financing structures; and changes to and the impact of the laws, rules and regulations (including environmental laws, rules and regulations) that regulate Martin Marietta's and TXI's operations. Additional information concerning these and other factors can be found in Martin Marietta's and TXI's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Martin Marietta's and TXI's most recent Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. Martin Marietta and TXI assume no obligation to update or revise publicly the information in this communication, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as otherwise required by law. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof.
